[REDACTED]

1 March 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: Transfer of Funds to [REDACTED]
for Consultant Services

1. Following the suggestion of the special [REDACTED] Control Group established for continuing review of Project OFTEN, two established persons in the fields of Pharmacology and Behavioral Science were invited to review the program. The two individuals selected were Dr. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Their appraisals of the program were previously reported.

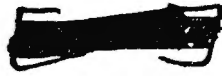

2. Both Drs. [REDACTED] following this initial briefing and review, agreed to serve as consultants on a continuing basis because as they expressed it, the program had merit and was within their area of interest. However, in examining the implementation of this proposed relationship, both men expressed the wish that their services be processed as consultantships to our screening facility, [REDACTED]

3. Accordingly, [REDACTED] is requesting the transfer of [REDACTED] to the [REDACTED] to support consultant services to Project OFTEN within the Materials Analysis Project; such consultant services to be available to [REDACTED] generally should the need arise. These funds will cover a period of twelve months.

4. A follow-on action can be anticipated at about the same level depending upon need of services and continued availability of these personnel.

5. Dr. [REDACTED] extension [REDACTED] will be the project officer with responsibility for monitoring the execution of this task. The work will be UNCLASSIFIED, but Agency association with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] IS CONFIDENTIAL.

6. The [redacted] recommends approval of the transfer of [redacted] to the [redacted] for support of consultant services.
