ADC STATION LIST

HEADQUARTERS, AEROSPACE DEFENSE COMMAND
Ent Air Force Base, Colorado
31 January 1970

INTRODUCTION

1. PURPOSE: The ADC Station List is published in accordance with ADCR 5-2 and is both a numerical and an alphabetical listing of all ADC units, by location and unit of assignment. AFM 11-4 contains official addresses for Air Force activities down through group level. Directory of USAF Organizations (SS-OL1) contains information indicating geographic location of units down through squadron level.
2. CONTENTS: The Station List consists of seven parts:
 - a. Part 1 is an alphabetical-numerical listing of ADC units.
 - b. Part 2 is an alphabetical listing of ADC units by station.
 - c. Part 3 is an alphabetical listing of ADC units by parent unit.
 - d. Part 4 is listing of ADC Air National Guard units by location.
 - e. Part 5 is listing of ADC units by servicing ADC Management Engineering Teams.
 - f. Part 6 is an alphabetical-numerical listing of ADC units by unit, kind and type.
 - g. Part 7 contains organization charts for ADC units.
3. DISTRIBUTION: Requests to increase distribution will be submitted in accordance with ADCR 5-2.
4. OMISSIONS: Report all omissions to Aerospace Defense Command, Attn: Command Director, Manpower and Organization.

This Station List supersedes the ADC Station List dated 30 Sep 1969.

ADC STATION LIST

The ADC Station List is published in accordance with ADCR 5-2 and is both a numerical and an alphabetical listing of all ADC units by location and unit of assignment. AFM 11-4 contains official addresses for Air Force activities down through group level. The Directory of USAF Organizations (SS-OL1) contains information indicating geographic location of units down through squadron level.

1. Contents. The ADC Station List consists of three parts:
 - a. Part 1 is a listing of ADC units by type of unit.
 - b. Part 2 is an alphabetical-numerical listing of ADC units.
 - c. Part 3 contains organizational charts for ADC units.
2. Distribution. Requests to receive distribution or to increase distribution requirements already established will be submitted in accordance with ADCR 5-2.
3. Omissions. Report all omissions to ADC (ADCMO).

This Station List supersedes the ADC Station List, 31 January 1970.

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
 HEADQUARTERS AEROSPACE DEFENSE COMMAND
 ENT AIR FORCE BASE, COLORADO 80912

REPLY TO
 ATTN OF: DAA

22 JUN 1970

SUBJECT: Air Force Standard Office Address Symbol Directory

TO: All Deputy Chiefs of Staff and Special Staff Heads

1. The attached USAF Standard Office Address Symbols which apply to ADC are effective upon receipt. The old ADC symbols are listed with the new ones for your convenience. USAF will publish the complete directory as attachment 4, AFR 10-5. An instructional letter with the attached lists was sent to all ADC Units on Friday, 19 June 1970.
2. Those staff offices that do not have a symbol under the new system cannot use their old one. Until a symbol is assigned, they may use the full title of their office or use the symbol of the next higher related staff office. Locally developed office address symbols are no longer authorized at any level of command. Office symbols through five letters are controlled by HQ USAF. Added letters are assigned by DAA for the command.
3. Submit to DAA no later than 2 July all requests for additional office symbols. Symbols for offices or sections below branch level are to have 6 or more letters. Please keep requests for symbols of 5 letters or less to a minimum. AFR 10-5 is the best reference for developing office symbols.
4. Requests for six letter symbols or more from headquarters staffs and subordinate units will be coordinated by DAA for inclusion in an ADC supplement to AFR 10-5. Publishing date of the ADC supplement depends upon the timely receipt of all requests.
