

DRAFT

Terms of Reference for Declassification Review

Classify as SECRET information regarding:

- sources and/or methods of intelligence operations.
- intelligence and/or military operational targets
- intelligence and/or military operational tasking
- names of any government personnel involved in performing against operational tasks
- names and/or affiliations of any classified tasking organizations

Any information regarding the categories below is UNCLASSIFIED and should be downgraded if currently classified:

- code names for the project, e.g. Grill Flame, Star Gate, etc.
- names of government sponsoring organizations
- names of industrial organizations performing R&D under government contract
- activities which deal with R&D including related laboratory and CONUS field experiments, development and testing of protocols, development and testing of training and training procedures except in those instances where knowledge of these items would infer information which would otherwise be classified or where, in the opinion of the reviewer, disclosure could cause grave damage to the United States.
- discussion of interest, involvement and/or cooperation with organizations and/or personnel of other countries performing R&D in similar or related fields of technology except in those instances where knowledge of these items would infer information which would otherwise be classified or where, in the opinion of the reviewer, disclosure could cause grave damage to the United States.

DRAFT

This document is made available through the declassification efforts and research of John Greenewald, Jr., creator of:

The Black Vault

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

Discover the Truth at: <http://www.theblackvault.com>