SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The contraband is heroin which is currently (07 1300L May 1990) in large, rectangular crate(s)/container(s)/box(es) which are in a warehouse in Anchorage, Alaska. The warehouse is of block-construction and is one of many in a crowded area of close rows of warehouses. The warehouse is within a mile of the harbor and the name "McKenna" is somehow associated with it or its location/address.

The contraband is packaged inside colorful (bright blue, red, white) boxes which are within boxes which are within boxes, i.e. there are several outer layers of boxes and packaging material around the colorful boxes.

The drugs will be transported to San Francisco by freighter. The freighter has a black hull and white trim and will depart Alaska around 9 May 1990. In San Francisco the drugs will be taken to Chinatown.
