SUMMARY - 079

LTC Higgins will be released from captivity as a hostage in the near future. He is being held in a small space (room) associated with a religious temple. The presence of a black metal fence, a small cramped area, ^{and} nearby ^{busy} road and torches burning in the ^a temple are ^{all} associated with the target site. Three captors are normally assigned to guard LTC Higgins. He will be released upon receipt of instructions from an Iranian-based terrorist group as opposed to instructions received from the head of the "local" group who took him captive. The captors/guards appear desirous that a determination be made in his (LTC Higgins) case. Some time following his release from captivity, LTC Higgins will lecture on the details of his captivity; eventually, he will be used/employed as an instructor at the university level.
