I'm not really ignoring you--I guess it just seems that way. (Actually, I've been on leave. (excuses, excuses!)) The DI is going to take the position that it can't support this effort. OSWR, who would be the likely choice to tackle foreign assessments, will be, by 1997, only [redacted] of its 1992 strength. There are so many really important things that we have had to eliminate because of downsizing-

SG1A

[redacted]-that it's hard to imagine devoting any effort to this project. And, wasn't it Congress who said we as an Agency weren't being selective enough about what we do?

Anyway, I will continue to try and touch base with [redacted] and I believe that [redacted] DD/SWR, will try to get in touch with [redacted] Please get back to me--would love to expand/expound. Look forward to hearing from you. [redacted]
