1. (S) This report documents a remote viewing session conducted in compliance with a request for information on a target of interest.
2. (S) The remote viewer seemed to have attained his usual state of relaxed concentration. During the session there was a great deal of ambient room noise. It is important to note that this remote viewer is having many problems at home and is also concerned about his personal finances. In addition to all that, on the day of the session the viewer had a great deal of other very important work to do in the office. His effort simply was not dedicated to remote viewing. Even though the viewer stated that he was not disturbed by ambient room noise, the viewer was satisfied with his imagery.
