

Project 8035
Session DCC-61
I Ver #14
R Ver #7
270900 May 81

Prior to session, I was advised that greatest interest was in the
activity within an
area around the target

SG1B

number 1 batch of zeros: a "K" 1000K

fancy fence like wrought iron
iron is white; square instead of round

masonry bldg - several bldgs.
one id

AA +07 move him around the building - get a four sided description
don't see many vehicles

6-8 masonry steps front broad platform
porch
cut columns attached to bldg
overhang on l. side (facing front)
in back is another bldg or wing sticking
out to left

AA +11 move him on around the building

to right is rugged hill or cliffs.

terrain seems to cause a problem on the R. in the back.

Inside the front door (end away from the hill) large entry hall - big room.

Desk - guard standing at attention.

 15 Have him expand his consciousness and determine the purpose or function of this building.

Bldg has very high ranking people in it.

could be intelligence or embassy or something like that.

not fancy enough for embassy must be something of govt bldg, probably intelligence.

Desk is like desk watch at off-peak hours.

guard

 20

Have him locate the highest ranking individual assigned or associated with this building.

 21

Have him locate the most important individual associated with this building.

On my right looking deeper into bldg
open foyer place into R. Another guard. That's where he is - either heavy "pomp" for rank or he's a general.

*+24 Beacon in on him and find him
regardless of place

5'9" - 5'10", 160 lbs, dark hair
Clean shaven, roundish face

*+25 when you think he's ready, have (#7) ask him what his most important concerns are at this time.

black shiny car
horn, noises, traffic
2 people in back seat
not perturbed - must be accustomed
to traffic

~~not~~
not in uniform but supposed to be
"pouring over" some kind of ~~map~~ charts or something like political districts and
there's a big round thing
(old, symbol, area? don't know)
seems to be important - it's an area, I think.

There's a meeting that's important a big meeting - on some kind of high ground someplace, he's thinking of the approach to the place.

*+36 Approved For Release 2000/08/07 : CIA-RDP96-00788R000500180002-7
Ask him what the meaning of the round

thing on the chart or map.
at first thought a fancy approach
#437 Have him ask the guy

road network like divided highway

That's as far as he can go in his chain (The buck stops here).
The circle is the seat of political power.

Anxiety about place.

Poss ancient symbol?

Overlaying symbol of some kind of combative animal like lion or tiger - meaning relative to some troops he's concerned with. Stylized and symbolic.

+42 Tape Change

Very aware of history * just having a fantasy about some ancient sword-wielding this weapon.

Either just received tremendous power or a potential to achieve tremendous power and notoriety.

A perceived threat and given the authority to deal with it

+45 Okay, now we need to know if the "power" is really this power to gain notoriety - I don't Know how to do it, think about it,

> It doesn't come off

He might have in his eagerness to be in the right position, he showed his hand and he feels vulnerable relative to a few powerful people who've angered a few otherwise neutral people.

The whole thing is just delayed but doesn't know how long

What he hoped would occur did not. Lost some ground politically - only politically

(D) I D important to him

#51

He used the term "showed his hand", I'd like to know if he "played his hand", in other words, did he actually move.

Self emergency or calling to do, important at least to him to have this chance. But his increased involvement; managerial moves he was looking forward to. Something beyond his control went sour and petered out and he didn't get to make the grandiose move.

looked for battle but couldn't see a fight or weapons.

++556 lets have ~~stan~~ (#7) visualize a
time line - lets figure out
how far ahead in the future
he is.

++557 That's the last question - bring him
back after we get an answer.

lots summer or fall
harvesting mostly complete.

kept seeing numbers 82 but get feeling is fall of this year!
