TRANSCRIPT

REMOTE VIEWING (RV) SESSION DC-98

TIME

#66: This will be a remote viewing session for 0900 hours,
19 March 1981.

This will be a pre-session briefing to the remote viewer.
At this time I'm showing you a photograph of an individual SG1A identified as [REDACTED] He's believed to
graph.....

#08: Okay.

#66: During the session we're going to be asking you to focus your
SG1A attention on [REDACTED] and the area of his home in the evening hours at home. I want you to do this in the time frame that's comfortable to you. When you get to the target and you perceive him in the target, I will be asking you about what time it is and about what day it is that you have captured him. But you might think about yesterday, day before, recent times. And at home in the evening hours. I will be asking you questions about SG1A [REDACTED] once we are able to focus in on him. Do you have any questions?

#08: No. Let's go.

#66: Okay. Would you like to keep this picture with you?

#08: Yeah, why not?

SG1A
#66: I will refer to him by his first name, [REDACTED]

#08: Okay.

#66: And if you just think about his picture there, we'll be ready to go. All right. You now have about 25 minutes to prepare yourself for this session.

#08: Okay.

0900 #66: Relax and concentrate now. Relax...relax...relax. Focus your SG1A attention now solely and completely, fix your mind solely and completely on [REDACTED] whose picture I have shown you. Relax and focus, focus... Focus and move now to [REDACTED] spending an SG1A evening at home. Focus and describe the scene to me.

+03 #08: I see, uh.....the impressions are the same as, as the ones that, uh...that came up as soon as you gave me that, that picture in the mission. There's an impression of a...an apartment...second or third floor, probably the third. Very, uh...very...very clean, ah...modest but very clean, very hygienic, almost sterile in appearance. I gotta get rid of some of this other stuff too.

He's a, he's a short man...not more than 5'6", probably 5'5". I also see a...a wife, a daughter of about...12 or 13 and a younger daughter about 7 or 8. Then there's a...impression of a.....very young, uh, child. But that goes away, comes and goes away... SG1A

#66: Tell me more about [REDACTED] himself.

#08: Uh.....ah.....Very doctrinaire type, uh....and yet, uh....fortunate to find himself in a...in a, the equivalent of our civil service stuff. And he's, uh...he's real, uh...real, uh...motivation is his family and decent living, although he doesn't admit to that. Very, uh.....

#66: Turn away from him-

+07 #08: He's definitely with the government trying to find out what the...what, uh, principal, uh, section of the economy (mumble). He's the low functionary. He's done well. I also get the impression that somebody believes that, uh, this guy's going to be very important, but he's not.

#66: Okay, let's um, change your focus now a little bit. Tell me about the time window you accessed.

+08 #08: Uh...(mumbling). Picked him up, uh...typical week day, if you wish, at home. Then I, uh, moved up, uh, to, uh, his work day. And then the good impression is there of a, something about the legal system.

I keep getting this, uh, impression of halls and, not that he works there, he's just associated with.... He himself is a... he's not an attorney, he's some kind of broker or something within the legal profession working for that kind... If you want to take the time frame as this week, I don't care.

#66: Okay, uh, let me see if I understand. We have perceptions from two time windows, one being an evening hour at home and one being a work day.

#08: Yeah, I started with the home. I wanted to see what his family was like.

#66: All right. I'd like to-

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

#08: Where he lived and what he did.

#66: I'd like to return to the time window of home last week.

#08: Last week?

#66: Return to the time window you had when you perceived that to be.

#08: Oh, okay. That's this week. Go ahead.

#66: This week?

#08: Yeah.

#66: All right. Focus on that time window now and describe Anatoliy's personality to me.....

+10 #08: Well. At his professional function he's very rigid and there's some carryover of that to, uh, to the home, although he... extremely devoted, uh, family man. But some of that rigidity is, uh, brought over to the home. But I keep seeing....a wife who's a, a small woman, just as he is..... And, uh,...how can I say? Very devoted family man who knows that, uh...he's, uh, got it made within the system, so to speak. And very, uh, this keeps switching from professional to personal. In other words he's made a tremendous effort to, uh...not only master what he's supposed to know but even make a special effort to even go beyond that. That being a real professional, but he's not high in, in the government hierarchy. He's just a good man for a high functionary to have...say, as a...

#66: Okay. Let's turn away from his personality now and focus your attention on Anatoliy, solely and completely on Anatoliy. And describe some of his personal interest to me.

+12 #08: Law...one, first, 'cause it's associated with his work.

#66: Describe the experience you have-

#08: It's the same.

#66: -makes you say law.

#08: Because..

#66: Just describe the experience to me.

#08: All right. It's...it's a huge, the image is of a huge domed court type building, and, uh, government offices associated with that. And that's where he's, he's not in the huge hall, he's just one of the small functionaries. Very official atmosphere associated with this building...

#66: Okay, focus again now on his interests.

+14 #08: Yeah, I'm coming back to it... Okay, it goes somethin' like this. Professional, which I've described. Secondly, of equal importance, perhaps more, his family. And then what they do together..... Has something to do with, uh, camping and hiking, if you wish.... Also involved in the...in something like stamp collection, but I don't know what it is.

#66: Describe the experience you have-

#08: Uh...something he has in his desk, albums or something, which require research. He likes that kind of stuff. And, uh....

#66: Okay. Let's change your focus again now. Turn away from his interests, turn away from his interests and focus on [REDACTED] Focus now on [REDACTED] and describe his character to me.

PAUSE

#08: Well.....uh..... He makes, uh, no big enemies because.....it's difficult to explain.

#66: Describe the experience to me.

+17 #08: I see a man poring over books who was only called upon to render opinions...rarely. And who, who impresses people by the grasp of what he has in his field. It's not as if this were a daily thing... Because he's involved in routine drudgery, but when called upon to...to, uh...to assist a second, uh, and somebody's opinion he comes out with some, uh, professional opinions that are very...very valid and highly researched and extremely accurate and therefore impressive. But he..he's not a threat to anybody.

#66: Okay. As we've gone through these descriptions you seem to always come back to his work and seem to stay away from your perceptions of-

#08: That's ninety percent of his life.

+19 #66: Okay. Let's focus now intently on that work. Let's move with purpose to the time window of him at work. Tell me about his job.....

#08: He is one of several who provides expertise to a...government functionary in a government department... Here comes his.....

#66: What is the experience you're having that makes you say these things? Tell me of the experience-

#08: It's like line and block chart, the honcho that, uh, whose office he's in, well, you're man would be not within the next

#08: block but below that with...with a small group, six or eight, ten maybe, provide both administrative and professional support. Which is this, ultimately this government functionary...this government official...

#66: Describe his area of expertise.....

#08: His area of expertise is his...his personal area of expertise is legal background, but..... The, uh, the uh...there's a government, uh, official (mumbling) definitely at the ministry level. Has something to do with workers and food....and that's all I get.

SG1A

#66: All right. I have no further questions about [REDACTED] but I would like to provide you the time now to explore and comment as you see fit. I will wait.

#08: Yeah, about 3 minutes.

PAUSE

I don't have anything else.

#66: All right, fine. Return your focus now to my voice, to the present time of me here in the room with you. Move your arms and move your legs and take a few deep breaths and let's prepare to draw that which you've perceived.

#08: Okay, I've just drawn sketch one and two. Sketch one is just a simple representation of where...of the type of environment that I found him in with his family after, uh, duty hours, so to speak. And I found him in about the third floor of a condominium type high-rise. Uh, I also got the distance impression that it was government sponsored. Saw a man and a family who was quite content with his role. Felt that he was sufficiently happy and making headway into whatever he was doing. I got the distance impression that he was a government employee.

The, uh...sketch number two is an attempt to describe what his real function is within the government. And it's, it's important, but it's not at the ministerial or national level, so to speak. And I tried to get a feel for what he did and was respected for, because he is respected, highly respected. But he's not a, you know, he's not a, an elected member of the government. He's sort of a, like many of us- civil service functionary, at the mid-level, management type level, working for two, at least two principal assistants who are in direct support of the minister. And he's quite content with that. Uh, I was looking for something special, of special interest and all I got was like he was a lead under assessment for possible approach. But I couldn't find anything...

#66: Any particular, special thing about him that attracted your attention to him?

- #08: No. I was looking for something like that in both his personal life, his professional life, and, uh, he's (mumble). He's as, uh, well-programmed as clockwork, his life is very well-determined, he knows where he's going, he knows what he's doing and very content man within the environment.
- #66: Okay. Understanding, of course, you can't draw pictures and personalities, you can only draw pictures of places and so forth and so on. Uh, you've said quite a lot about him. Maybe I can get you to restate here with one question. Uh... what kind of a guy is he?
- #08: That kept coming back to his professional interest and functions, which is sort of a one administrative and yet research type work, like someone who would be working for a law firm having dual responsibility of doing administrative work and also some research work in a specialized area. And the area itself, when I tried to determine it, wasn't that specialized. I think this is where the legal aspects of his background- and he's not an attorney- seem to help because he's got rules and regulations he spent a hell of a lot of time learning that nature and the limitations of his job and the rules and regulations that, that prompt, or that guide this entire ministry. And when I got to the ministerial level I was trying to determine what it really dealt with. And it's a multi-faceted thing. And the thing that came up was food, welfare, and workers. But that's all I could get.
- #66: Okay.
- #08: Okay, now this rigidity and, uh, temperament is carried into his family life, although I don't- he's trying very, very hard not to, but it's definitely carried over. The catalyst is his wife and his kids, and he's very, very closely attached to them. Uh, it's hard sometimes to determine the difference between character and personality. If I were to describe his personality, which I tried to and it kept coming back into the professional stream. You know, sort of a...not a complete introvert but very dedicated and, uh, even-keeled, unemotional, and yet uh, very interested and dedicated for a guy that just keeps doing his job without making waves, and when called upon renders an opinion that is very highly respected. That's the best way I can describe it.
- #66: Okay, I have no further ~~questions~~ ^{SG1A}. Are there any other comments you'd like to make about [REDACTED]
- #08: No.
- #66: Okay, fine.
