TRANSCRIPT

REMOTE VIEWING (RV) SESSION CD-33

TIME

#14: This will be a remote viewing session for 3 June 1980. Mission time is 1400 hours.

PAUSE

All right #36 the time is now 1415. Your mission for today is to locate James Lopez. Identify his location, any other hostages, and security at this same location. I want you now to relax, focus on Lopez.

PAUSE

+05 #36: I don't see.....I thought I sensed his presence in there. Rather rural scene. Very old, very old village. I saw chickens running around outside. Remote. But, I don't know what that has to do with...where I'm supposed to be. Wait a minute.

PAUSE

I see him there. Lying on a cot with white sheets. Head of the cot is, I guess a wall that must be at least 3 foot thick. It looks like dried mud. Adobe type stuff. Looks, looks rather primitive. I don't think, I don't think there's any bars on the windows. Must be hot. He's lying down with just shorts and no cover on. No air conditioning.

PAUSE

+10 There seems to be a big tower, communications tower nearby. The place...it looks like an old, like an old villa setting on a slope above a narrow valley. Building is...got alot of overhanging porches like, and extensions.

PAUSE

#14: Are there any other personnel at this location?

#36: I've been looking for other people. I saw some people sleeping, but I didn't know if they were part of this group or not. I was aware of one half a dozen or so other people. One seemed quite young. Two or three of them seem very poor physical, mental condition. I looked for guards.....and I saw people lodging around...it...
I felt were part of the security force. I didn't see fence. I had the distinct feeling that nobody in his right mind would try to walk out of here. I guess it's because...stand out from local people. There's no place to go. I didn't see walls, fences. I had the feeling this place must have been very expensive place at one time. It's apparently quite old. For what it's worth.... doesn't look like any place I've looked at before.

+20

That's about it.

#14: I have no further questions at this time.

PAUSE

#14: We are now ready for debrief. But, first of all I would like to make it a matter of record. It's very uncomfortable working. Temperature must be at least 86 to 90 degrees in this room, with a 80 percent humidity and absolute stagnant air conditions.

How did you feel about it?

#36: I felt because I was so miserable, and intermittantly I was conscious of my discomfort I have very little faith and confidence of the accuracy of this session.

#14: All right. Well, why don't you go ahead and put down what impressions you did have.

PAUSE

#36: I thought I saw the individual in a...that looked to me looked like a rather primitive setting...with shorts on lying on a cot with white sheets, and I thought the walls in the room appeared very, very thick with a window set on the outside. Rather rough stucco or rammed earth or compacted mud or something like wall. Floor seemed the same, tan....uh....

#14: Did the noise get to you at any time during the session?

#36: I remember the noise, but I was very confused with..... I normally have feelings at a target site and I was very confused with the heat and sweat and times I thought I was feeling it at the target site, and, no, I'm not. That's for real. It was very confusing. I don't remember any noise.

- #36: I can't get this right, but this building was above me looking up at it upon a hill above me, and off down towards the bottom of the page was a, a very narrow valley .....came into almost a gully, or something..... This had a big exposed porch of some kind, and nearby was a tall radio tower of some type...within a 100 yards. That's about all I remember.
- #14: All right. Call this end of session.
