SESSION SUMMARY
23 NOVEMBER 1987
SOURCE 95

The site is a dry, arid, flat, empty, dusty land colored with lots of reds and browns, AOL like the southwest. The land is old (untouched?). At the site a handful of people are witnessing an abrupt event. They are wearing similar standardized clothing part of which is white. The people belong together, a team, and are organized/ specialized. The event they are watching involves energy. Strong, powerful, complex, rhythmic, greenish energy. A curving or circular component is associated with the energy. Motion also is associated with the energy as is motion that can be felt in the land. The people are very still as they watch the event. They are in awe, as if their breath has been knocked out of them emotionally. The awe turns into strong fear as they sense/feel the energy. Then they feel nothing (death?).

Site is flat dry land (AOL likes sw)

There are a small group of people watching an event. They wear similar, standardized clothing. something's realized about them. They are somewhat awe struck what they are watching.

And very still. Brightness, energy + motion relate in some way to what's going on. And the motion can be felt in the land. The land is old.
