SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

NOTE: Session was an ERV Session followed by a 'HOT FINGER' map dowse. Two areas were hot (marked on map as AREA 1 AND AREA 2). I feel better about area 1.

Session started with the session of slamming into a reball and violently bouncing off, shooting into space. Moved in slower after taking an AI break. Impression of driving through new intersection at Mapes and 32. ^(saw arrow) ↑ Impression of beacon parking on asphalt and standing between door and car with door open for a few minutes. Impression of a wire fence with barb wire pointing outward (Fig 1). Impression of a low brick building with one window that is somehow covered/barred/shuttered (Fig 2).

Impression of moving away from fenced area. Impression of something circular and low (Fig 4). Impression of walking on a white path. Impression of deep breathing through nose.

Impression of bending down looking at something dark and shiny "like" (AOL: a small piece of slate). Impression of walking on orange sand/gravel/clay impression of some bits of junk strewn around "like" (A/S) old construction remnants: a bit of block, a small piece of board (Fig 3). Impression of going to car and driving somewhere new. (Not back to unit?)
