Water is still + has organic smells, much vegetation + animal/insect life typical to it, but is fresh + the way it naturally should be.

Site has a central building bordered by other structures, winding landscaped walkways with trees + many bird sounds. The main building has a quiet almost "reverent" atmosphere; stairs lead up to areas of interest which are covered with several smaller rooms of different sizes. Bldg aims to be ^{specialized} dissemination of knowledge on a medium, low-key scale. People present include women who are probably receptionist, and are happy, friendly, enthusiastic, warm and give some private membership, devotees, and outside ~~visitors~~ visitors. ~~Site~~ Site seems to evoke a sense of memorial, but with an ongoing purpose of service as that memorial. Site strongly brings to mind A.R.E. Books + a library are present and ~~serve~~ serve as an important part of the site. It has an "almost" university feel, but more exclusive.
