SUMMARY

The event seems to be some sort of meeting. There is an exchange of information, taking notes.... trying to negotiate something. A feeling of distrust on behalf of all parties involved. They are trying to reach an agreement on what, or how much will be exchanged. These talks are taking place in a small, sparsely furnished room. These talks are taking place near water, getting the feeling of an island, or a ship surrounded by water. Also getting a prisoner-of-war feeling, like someone being held against their will.

There are two persons who seem to stand out. One is a man, in his late forties, heavy-set, olive-colored skin, round, pudgy face, oriental-looking, and mostly bald headed. The other is a very business-like woman. I could only perceive her from behind. She had brownish, grey-streaked hair that was pulled back into a bun. She was also wearing large-frame glasses. The impressions were of a stern, mature, cool-under-pressure type person. She was listening intently and taking notes. There were at least three, maybe four people at this meeting, but these were the only ones I could focus on.

The meeting seems to have taken place aboard a ship, on a brightly moon-lit night.

There seem to be large wooden crates/boxes involved in this exchange.
