Inside "bubble" - very clean, sterile, noiseless.
 As though even pieces of whatever furnishings were present were transparent. There would be sudden noises, odor or flashes of color - unexplained but causing reactions. Very strong feeling of being watched constantly.

 No privacy. There was almost a frantic feeling of searching for someone to make contact with - as though while I was gone there was someone there they refused to acknowledge their presence. Very intimidating. I felt very small - everything outside this bubble was bigger than me.

bundle -

1st - could see - but no sound

2nd - not being able to see outside but it could be looked into
