SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

Tasking: "Describe and draw the target site labeled SPT-1"

RESULTS:

1. The target site is a long, very large, triangular-topped structure in an open, spacious area (no other structures close by, but lots of tall trees). It has one main end as its "front". I do not find any sides to it, almost as though either the sides are open, the triangular top part reaches the ground, or both.
2. The air is very cool and crisp, like mountain air. The land is uneven, with the structure located on a high point of the land.
3. The structure carries feelings of religious, scientific, business natures, and there is also a feeling of strong architectural interest about it. Its one-main-ended triangular shape and its large size drove strong AOL's of both a large mountain chalet, and the Air Force Chapel.
