SUMMARY OF INFORMATION SG1B

The woman known as [REDACTED] is wanted by the FBI on charges of spying. She is suspected of giving classified information to people who have ties to European terrorist groups. The information that she passed was names of people who worked in the intelligence community. The information that she is suspected of giving away was flown out of the United States. This woman believes in the Communist ideology. The reason she did this was because of her ideology and not so much because of money. She is known to have traveled in France, Italy, and Greece. She may have even lived in West Germany for awhile. She is now living in the Washington D.C. (near American University?). She knows people in the newspaper business and she may socialize in these circles.
