54½ - This man wears a uniform he is singlehandedly planning/analyzing field operations at least 2 levels down, i.e., skipping echelons but this seems to be acceptable to his lieutenants who respect - and possibly revere him.

A/S - ~~subordinates~~

AI - a person with whom I might follow into battle the attracted to him professionally

AOL - remind me
 of GEN SINGLAUB psychologically and physically

uniform does not seem to have any

Confers with civilian-attired men

Tough

area
open spread out but contained to the West by natural boundary

4 1/2 - man flew into this area, has escorts with him

401 - like staff officers

hard headstrong
 no weak / soft spots concerned only with his profession - arms
 not a political animal
 loner, doesn't mind places himself in position for optimal for planning - moment - moment wants to know what's happening
 - disposition of assets
 - focus
 - both sides
 tactical vs strategic has no problem executing orders even if he believes them to be stupid.

imposing, even though not tall

401 - SSO officer

S4 1/2 - there is an operation in progress toward the West, ~~coast~~ (hills / mountains) - problems / planning associated sleeps in the field but to be close to ops and to get away from

"head shed" in built up area.

AOL - impression of a Sov officer ~~is~~ in a "foreign" but <sup>politically</sup> controlled environment LIKE - LA or AFGAN does not coordinate with peers - there are none present all are subordinates.

Subordinates are used to his continuum presence -

he makes them uncomfortable but they trust his experience and in battle savvy.

Does not get directly involved in engagements. Kept abreast of operations as they occur.

Lieutenants are capable - professional big boned

brutish

4 1/2 - There are parallels with Singlet: ~~about the~~

this man is psychologically similar in many ways. Heris brow wrinkled

does not wear hat

talks business only

4 1/2 - this man's focus is on the area to the West (hills/mts). There are problems here which require analysis/planning and action. At least once in the past, this man has flown above and to the east of the problem area (not-recon).
