

The information recorded in the "books" ~~is~~ records entries of people, identified only by number. These people ~~were~~ were the subject of testing, to determine the effects of substances that were introduced into their bodies. The results were obtained through autopsy, entered into a data base, and used to refine or ~~reconstruct~~ reconstruct future "experiments." Source felt that ~~the~~ both first and second floors of Area # 2 were related. Source also perceived that the entire "complex" consisted of separate, but related areas of work.

41. (S/NF/SK) FEZOBACIK - Monitor suggested to source that there was a possibility of AOL drive re. ideas of "bio-experiments." Source agreed.
