Site is a building with bright light, very old air.
There is a lot of equipment, measuring equipment (gauges, dials, etc.) along the walls. The "room" has a medicinal smell and containers of ~~solid~~ plastic containers. People wearing hooded, reflective visored suits with padded
"brodie" type shoes work in the area. ~~They~~ They manipulate the contents of the room using such safe-guards as pass tubes. It's almost like, Av. a BW facility, or Av.
a facility that using volatile nerve gas elements.
