a feeling of shock, death

4 1/2 impression of people going about their daily business in a modern "concrete jungle" like city. Cars, trucks, traffic, congestion, crowded, frustration at normal day to day level. Overall EI perception - one of sadness, feeling of loss, confusion.

SUMMARY

Feel that tasking involves two separate future events. One involves ^{a feeling of} the illness or death of some prominent personality. There is a feeling of loss or grief... sadness shared by many people of a large metropolitan city of the size of New York or London. The second event is not very clear at this time. It appears to be red, hot, explosive... like a volcanic eruption, a fiery airplane crash, or some other kind of explosion.
