E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The target is an area that is arid, dry and very bright. There is low, splotchy patches of green, brown and black ground cover. There are also patches of tall wavy lines reminiscent of grasses. In the distance are huge, looming objects which appear to jut out of the ground. They are blocky with straight as well as crumbly sides and edges.

The location has a primitive feel to it. It is isolated and considered to be home to s specific group of people. There are groups of moving, living objects. There is a flat, curving surface which seems to wind or twist about throughout the area.

It is very pleasant here and peaceful. The environment is considered hostile by most but is very special to a select few. There is a purity and simplicity to this location. There are numerous shades of particularly reds, yellows, oranges and blues.
