MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence
Department of the Air Force

ADDRESSEE: Major James F. Byers
AUSL-DIA

SUBJECT: Declassification of the "Report of the Scientific Panel on Unidentified Flying Objects"

1. We have just received the final letter from the members of the above Panel concerning your request for declassification of the above report. Both CIA and all members of the Panel have agreed that the conclusions of paragraph 2, can be declassified and that Recommendation h-o can be declassified. However, it is the decision of all concerned that no connection with CIA may be disclosed, that the conclusion of paragraph 3, may not be declassified and that the recommendation of h-o may not be declassified. On the basis of the above declassification, no number of the Panel objects to the use of his name in connection with the declassified conclusion and recommendation.

2. In order to simplify your utilization of the declassified material, I am attaching hereto a revised version of the report of the Panel which consists of a paragraph of paragraph 1, the conclusion of paragraph 2, a new paragraph 3 which includes the declassified Recommendation h-o, and an appropriate paragraphing of the balance of paragraphs 4-8.

3. I trust that this will serve the purpose of this request.
