Memo

O/NE Comments on Present Nature of Threat to South Vietnam

6 June 1956

This document is made available through the declassification efforts and research of John Greenewald, Jr., creator of:

The Black Vault

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

Discover the Truth at: http://www.theblackvault.com

(b)(3)

4 June 1956

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Contral Intelligence
SUBJECT: O/NE Comments on Present Nature of Threat to South Viotnam

- it was have reviewed our astimates bearing on the situation in Vietnam. In the light of the contributions to the new Vietnam settimates which is due to the IAC on 17 July. The portions of these estimates which relate to Vietnamh intentions and to the internal security situation remain substantially valid, but some modifications in particular situations are noted below.
- 2. Although the Vietnamese National Army (about 142, 000 men) has made gradual progress in rearganization and training, it still could not delay an invesion of the greatly superior Vietminh army (about 265, 000 regular • MIE 13-56: Chinese Communist Capabilities and Probable Gourses of Action through 1960 (5 January 1956); MIE 63.1-5-55: Probable Developments in Vietnam to July 1956 (il October 1955); and RIE 63.1-55: Probable Developments in North Vietnam (19 July 1955).

1

Min Trang area. (South Central Assaus) troops) for more than 60 days north of the Ban Me Thuot-

- 13-56 (Chinese Communist Capebilides and Probable Courses requirements of their present "peaceful" tactics tary action by fear of possible US counteraction and by the of Action through 1969) that the Vietninh will not launch an er so. The Communists will be restrained from evert millepen invasion of South Vietnam, at least for the next year 3. Movemen, we continue to believe, as stated in Mill
- tion within the South is improving due to the increasing Vistnamese control. However, the over-all security situa-16,000, the Vietminh probably could develop a guerrille effort. to askr up armed resistance within the South, possibly North. Although our estimate of the number of armed Vieteffectiveness of Vistamer's military and security forces, the experted by the fufficration of armed personnel from the wish is the South is down a bit from last year's figure of atuacion of the Civil Guard and Self-Defense Corps network. a such a scale as to desy large areas of rural Vicinais to 4. We continue to believe that the Vietzalah may attempt and political and occasionic measures of the government.

FOR THE BOARD OF NATIONAL ESTIMATES:

MERMAN KENT Assistant Director Vational Estimates

CEAR