Additionally, be advised that “unusual circumstances” may apply. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(B)(iii). These “unusual circumstances” will delay our ability to make a determination on your request within 20 days. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(B). Additionally, the payment of pertinent fees may apply to your request. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(4)(A)(viii). The application of “unusual circumstances” is not a determination of how the FBI will respond to your substantive request.

If you are not satisfied with the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s determination in response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, 441 G Street, NW, 6th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20530, or you may submit an appeal through OIP’s FOIA STAR portal by creating an account following the instructions on OIP’s website: <https://www.justice.gov/oip/submit-and-track-request-or-appeal>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so it may be easily identified.

FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

On November 23, 1965, at Linkov's request, they again lunched together. [redacted] stated he previously had asked Linkov to furnish him material on Soviet birth control programs [redacted] Linkov failed to bring the requested material. During this luncheon, Linkov asked [redacted] what the official feeling of the United States Government was in view of statements made by former Vice President Richard Nixon and retired General Curtis Lemay calling for increased bombing of North Viet-Nam. [redacted] stated he told Linkov he did not know the official position of the United States Government and had no way of assessing it. During this luncheon, they discussed such matters as religion and different economic systems. He described Linkov as lacking in social graces and adhering strictly to the party line. For these reasons, he wished to have no further association with Linkov.

January 7, 1966

Linkov attempted to arrange another luncheon appointment with [redacted] who declined, pleading coming examinations at American University. [redacted] [Redacted] Committee on Commerce, United States Senate, advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation that about three weeks ago he encountered Geliy D. Skritskiy, Second Secretary, in downtown Washington, D. C., and they agreed to meet for lunch a few days later.

Russ P

[Redacted] recalled that about a year ago, Skritskiy attended a hearing or two on East-West Trade, which hearings were open to the public and sponsored by the Committee on Commerce. During the ensuing luncheon, according to [Redacted] Skritskiy indicated an interest in knowing if anything was new in the area of East-West Trade.

(S)

[Redacted] replied there appeared to be nothing new on this subject. Skritskiy remarked that probably little progress could be made in stepping up East-West Trade as long as the Viet-Nam war continued.

b6
b7C

[Redacted] mentioned to Skritskiy that the Department of Commerce might send a trade delegation to Hungary in October, 1966, and wondered if it might serve the cause of East-West Trade if the mission made a side trip to the Soviet Union. Skritskiy replied it was always useful to talk but he felt that so long as the Viet-Nam war continued little progress would result from the talks.

On May 16, 1966, Linkov contacted [REDACTED] and arranged to meet him for lunch on [REDACTED]. During lunch, Linkov engaged in a discussion concerning the difference between the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House of Representatives Committee on Foreign Affairs, noting that Representative Frelinghuysen was a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee. He further inquired as to whether the President planned to have aerial bombing in Vietnam extended to oil storage targets near Hanoi and Haiphong, and whether it was true that American troop strength in Vietnam would be raised to 400,000 men. Linkov later stated he heard that there would be a considerable change in the State Department and that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara would replace Dean Rusk as Secretary of State. Linkov is suspected of being an officer of the Committee of State Security.

Poff of Virginia, informed a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that [Redacted] "Bull Elephants," an organization of male Republican staff employees of members of the House of Representatives. He stated this organization has toured several embassies, and [Redacted] he wrote a letter around June 1, 1966, to the Soviet Embassy, inquiring about a tour. Several days later he received a telephone call from Viktor F. Isakov, Second Secretary, who was to arrange the tour. Isakov called him two or three times, and visited his office once. Isakov, by telephone, requested the names of the persons who would attend; and at the time of his visit to [Redacted] office, he requested their addresses so that he could mail information to them in connection with the tour. [Redacted] said that because of this request of Isakov, and for fear the tour would reflect adversely on the Republican Party, he called Isakov and canceled the tour. Soviet Embassy on June 28, 1966, was cancelled because the Soviet Embassy had requested names and addresses of the members of the visiting group.
On reconsideration, the group thought the proposed visit would be unwise because of the Soviet stand on Vietnam.

Representative John V. Tunney of California contacted this Bureau on August 9, 1966, and reported that he had been visited by a Soviet official in Washington, D. C., on August 9, 1966. According to Representative Tunney, he and the Soviet official discussed the war in Vietnam in general terms and also discussed the necessity of improving relations between the Soviet Union and the United States through the medium of additional trade. Representative Tunney stated he had put the Soviet in his place throughout the entire conversation and had not agreed with anything the Soviet had stated. Representative Tunney added that he felt the Soviet probably would not contact him again but he desired to make this first meeting a matter of record in FBI files.

at the Soviet Embassy the responsibility of analyzing the happenings in Congress. Bubnov raised the question of alleged anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union and denied that such a situation currently exists. Bubnov questioned Representative Joelson on the major issues confronting him in the forthcoming congressional elections. On the subject of Vietnam, Bubnov was surprised when Representative Joelson informed him that criticism of the Administration has principally been for its not being aggressive enough militarily and not, as Bubnov thought, from people who want the Administration to de-escalate the situation. Representative Joelson informed Bubnov he supported the Administration on Vietnam and added that if Bubnov read the newspapers he could see that the "hawks" are above the "doves" in numbers and influence. Before leaving, Bubnov encouraged Representative Joelson to visit the Soviet Union after Congress adjourned. He stated he would assist the Representative in arranging for such a visit.

Bubnov subsequently contacted Representative Joelson and was reminded by him of Bubnov's statements made on October 5, 1966, denying the existence of anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union. Representative Joelson asked Bubnov to furnish him in writing his statements on anti-Semitism and added that he, Representative Joelson, would give the statements wide news media coverage. Bubnov, apparently startled, said he did not know whether he could do this. He said now that the issue of anti-Semitism no longer existed in the Soviet Union, such a statement would "stir up a lot of dirt." Bubnov said he would contact Representative Joelson at a later date. ~~X~~

[redacted] to Representative Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that on November 10, 1966, Yuriy K. Linkov, Third Secretary, called him and suggested they meet for lunch on [redacted]

[redacted] agreed and they met as planned. Linkov appeared at [redacted] office and they walked to a near-by restaurant. During lunch Linkov queried [redacted] on the significance of Republican Party gains in the recent Congressional elections. He acknowledged [redacted] observations that the elections as a whole reflected popular support for the Administration's Vietnam policy since the Republicans elected supported the Administration in this regard.

[redacted] noted that on the subject of Red China, Linkov's attitude stiffened since their last meeting and he was not inclined to offer excuses for Red Chinese actions.

Sedov furnished [redacted] with material [redacted] and at the same time requested that she obtain some books for him on industrial management at the university library. He said he was working towards a doctor's degree in industrial management at Moscow University. [redacted] obtained about fifteen books from the library for Sedov. The books were subsequently returned. [redacted] stated she and Sedov have met about [redacted] times since then. They usually met [redacted] and on one occasion Sedov brought along another Soviet Embassy employee, introduced as [redacted] who claimed to be attached to the political section of the Embassy. [redacted] said Sedov has asked her for nothing other than the books on industrial management and that their relationship has been based on a mutual interest in the United States and the Soviet Union. [redacted] has been employed by Senator Murphy since [redacted]. Prior to this, [redacted] she worked for Senator Thomas H. Kuchel of California.

States from Moscow. [redacted] attended the reception following which he accompanied a group of about twelve persons, including Sedov, to a local restaurant. Here he engaged Sedov in a friendly discussion concerning the United States, the Soviet Union and the Vietnam situation. [redacted] suggested to Sedov they get together again to continue the conversation. He stated he subsequently contacted Sedov and arranged to meet him for a few drinks on [redacted] at a Capitol Hill restaurant. They spent about two hours together in friendly conversation. At one point Sedov remarked that [redacted] "boss", Representative O'Konski, had an interesting record, indicating he was aware that Representative O'Konski has been an avid anti-communist. [redacted] stated he acknowledged to Sedov that this was true of both himself and Representative O'Konski. [redacted] subsequently contacted Sedov and arranged to meet him for dinner on [redacted]. [redacted] Sedov broke the engagement but suggested they get together in the future.

on June 6, 1967, he met [redacted]

1967. During lunch [redacted] spoke briefly of his background and stated that he is currently interested in United States domestic affairs, particularly trade unionism and the Civil Rights Movement. He discussed the removal of former Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev from his position; the fact that Fidel Castro of Cuba has been a problem to the Soviet Union; and the fact that the Soviet Union, in spite of its aid to North Vietnam, has less influence on the actions of that country than does China. He stated China poses a greater threat to the Soviet Union than it does to the United States. He noted with disgust that the Egyptians, although possessing good military equipment, were better at throwing rocks at embassies and knew nothing of discipline or strategy. [redacted] said he frequently visits Capitol Hill to contacted him to ascertain the date on which the Congressional Secretaries Club planned on visiting the Soviet Pavilion at Expo-67 in Montreal, Canada. Bubnov stated he made arrangements with Soviet representatives at the pavilion to provide preferential treatment to this group when they arrive.

June 21, 1967

Representative Charles S. Joelson of New Jersey advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Igor D. Bubnov, First Secretary, contacted him on June 20, 1967, and suggested that they meet for lunch the following day. They met at Representative Joelson's office on June 21, 1967, and both proceeded to a local restaurant. Bubnov informed Representative Joelson that he was primarily interested in ascertaining congressional reaction to Premier Alexei N. Kosygin's speech before the United Nations General Assembly on June 19, 1967. Representative Joelson informed Bubnov that the reaction was critical and Bubnov appeared concerned that the congressional attitude had hardened against the Soviet Union. Bubnov asked whether a meeting between the President of the United States and Kosygin would bring a return of good feeling. Bubnov then stated that he believed there would be such a meeting. Further discussion during lunch concerned the Middle East crisis, freedom of dissent and religion in the Soviet Union, the Vietnam situation and East-West trade legislation.

CONTACTS BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND MEMBERS OR STAFF PERSONNEL OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

1-Mr. Peterson

DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY DERIVED FROM:
FBI AUTOMATIC DECLASSIFICATION GUIDE
DATE 12-18-2014F76M45K62

A review of information we have developed through our coverage of Soviet officials and establishments in Washington, D. C., has disclosed a continuing interest by representatives of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) to maintain contacts with and cultivate members or staff personnel of the U. S. Congress. There appears below a compilation of such contacts which have come to our attention from January 1, 1967, to date:

	Senators	Representatives	Staff Employees
1967	77	55	265
1968	34	23	224
1969	53	10	239
1970 to date	16	6	104

Based on a review of the information disclosed through our coverage, it appears that Soviet officials are making more contacts with the following Congressmen or members of their staff than with other U. S. Legislators:

- Senator Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts
- Senator Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana
- Senator J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas
- Senator Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon
- Senator Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts
- Senator Michael J. Mansfield of Montana
- Senator Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota
- Senator George S. McGovern of South Dakota
- Senator Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota
- Senator Edmund S. Muskie of Maine

CONTACTS BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND MEMBERS OR STAFF PERSONNEL OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS

The review also disclosed more frequent contacts with staff employees of the following Congressional Committees:

- Senate Foreign Relations Committee
- House Foreign Affairs Committee
- Senate and House Armed Services Committees

On an annual basis, usually in the Spring, the Soviets hold a reception at their Embassy in Washington, D. C., for Congressional staff employees. Individuals who have attended these functions have informed us that Soviets whom they initially encountered at these events have later used the introductions effected there as an entree for further contacts. With concurrence of the Chairmen of the respective Congressional Committees or from individual Congressmen themselves, we are currently directing the activities of eight persons employed on Capitol Hill as a means of keeping apprised of Soviet contacts there. None of these eight situations is presently indicative of being sustained by the Soviets for clandestine intelligence purposes; however, information received from these individuals and that developed through our other coverage discloses that the majority of Soviet personnel maintaining contacts on Capitol Hill

Interview of [redacted] was conducted by SA [redacted]

For the additional information of the Bureau, in evaluating information received from [redacted] it is noted that four of the Soviets identified as visitors to her office between January and July, 1970, are newly arrived in Washington, D.C. during that period. They are: [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted]
[redacted] It is not considered unlikely that the increased number of visits noted by [redacted] might be a part of a orientation program for such new arrivals to the various sources of public information on Capitol Hill and elsewhere in Washington, D.C.

[redacted] advised that she will be alert to future developments concerning contacts of her office personnel by Soviet nationals. She stated she would advise WFO promptly of any unusual developments in this regard. She also requested that she be recontacted by a representative of the FBI a month or two hence in order that she might discuss, from that perspective, any changes in Soviet activities relative to the office of the Subcommittee on National Security.

This matter is being retained in a pending status at WFO and [redacted] will be recontacted in accordance with her request.

CONTACTS BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND MEMBERS OR STAFF
PERSONNEL OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS
INTERNAL SECURITY - R

[redacted] Subcommittee on National Security (SNS) of the Committee on Government Operations of the United States Senate, advised on August 10, 1970, that she has served in her present capacity for approximately [redacted] years. She said that throughout that period members of the Soviet Embassy staff and representatives of the various official Soviet news agencies have shown some interest in the publications issued by the SNS and have made occasional requests of her office for copies of these publications. She stated that visits to her office and requests for SNS publications have intensified during 1970. Concerned at this evidence of increased interest by the Soviets relative to SNS affairs, [redacted] stated that she had furnished the SNS Chairman, Senator Henry M. Jackson of Washington, an account of her knowledge in the matter.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated she felt that this new Soviet interest in the SNS grew out of the publication, in January, 1970, of the results of the SNS hearing, in December, 1969, with the British author and analyst of Soviet history and Soviet political leaders, Robert Conquest. Shortly thereafter, the SNS published a paper by Professor Adam Ulam, Harvard University, entitled "Communist Doctrine and Soviet Diplomacy: Some Observations," which she felt was also of special interest to the Soviets.

RE: CONTACTS BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND MEMBERS OR STAFF
PERSONNEL OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[ ] said that the most frequent Soviet visitor to the SNS office during 1970 has been [ ]. He first visited the office in January, 1970, and obtained copies of published material relative to "Planning - Programming - Budgeting," as set out on page six of the "List of Jackson Subcommittee Publications (As of July, 1970)," a copy of which list is attached in the appendix. Shortly thereafter, [ ] consulted with [ ] regarding that material, and proved to be knowledgeable in the field and, in her opinion, a person of excellent academic background and intellect. He informed [ ] that his profession is that of librarian.

[ ] visited the SNS office an estimated total of eight or ten times between January, 1970, and the present. During that time, he requested copies of all the remaining publications set out in the above-mentioned appended list. Copies of all such publications still available were furnished to him. [ ] had no recollection of which of these publications might not have been available and thus not furnished to him. She stated that none of these publications were subject to government security classification.

b7C

In the course of his visits, [ ] presented [ ] and her secretary, [ ] each with a bottle of vodka and a small wooden Russian doll. He also extended to [ ] an invitation to a reception of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D.C. (WDC), on May 8, 1970, which she accepted but did not attend.

On one of [ ] visits, he was accompanied by Igor D. Bubnov, then a First Secretary at the Soviet Embassy, WDC, whom he introduced to [ ]. It is noted that Bubnov has subsequently been promoted to the position of Counselor at the Soviet Embassy.

The April, 1970, issue of "Employees of Diplomatic Missions," published by the United States Department of State

(USDS), lists [redacted] as an employee of the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), WDC.

The May, 1970, issue of the "Diplomatic List," published by the USDS, lists Igor D. Bubnov as Counselor, Embassy of the USSR, WDC.

On the basis of available information and investigation, [redacted]

From a perusal of photographs of selected Soviet Embassy personnel and Soviet nationals, [redacted] identified [redacted] [redacted] Attache, Soviet Embassy, WDC, as one of the persons who has visited the SNS office from time to time, and as the person who first brought [redacted] to her office, according to her recollection. She advised that she did not know [redacted] by name, however.

Based upon available information and investigation,
[redacted]

[redacted] also identified the following individuals from photographs as having visited the SNS office in recent months:

Institute of World Economy and International Relations, Academy of Sciences, USSR

[redacted]
Employee, Embassy of the USSR,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Based upon available information and investigation,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also named Vadim I. Kuznetsov, Third Secretary, Embassy of the USSR, as another Soviet Embassy official who has visited the SNS office on more than one occasion.

b3
b6
b7C
b7E

[REDACTED] advised, in addition to the above, the usual persons whom she knows or believes to be from the official press organizations of the USSR have continued to stop in the SNS office occasionally for publications and information releases. She does not know these representatives by name but their visits, and those of other foreign news agencies, are the routine operational procedure for Congressional offices such as the SNS office.

[REDACTED] advised that on some of the visits by these Soviet representatives to her office, two of them came together, and while one was making inquiry about a publication, the other seemed to her to be trying to observe whatever material might be spread on the nearest desk. She said, however, that no information of a classified or sensitive nature crosses those desks in the front of the office near which she had noted such activity. She advised that she had no independent recollection regarding which of the Soviets had visited the office in pairs, and that it had occurred only a few times.

[REDACTED] said that she had discerned a definite effort on the part of the various Soviets to determine the names of the persons on her staff. She cited the apparent efforts of Vladimir N. Orlov to engage one of the summer interns, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in conversation. On that particular occasion, [REDACTED] interceded by introducing herself to Orlov and asking if she could help him. Orlov showed annoyance at the interruption and later apparently made a point of visiting the office during [REDACTED] lunch hour to pick up a publication. He spoke briefly with [redacted] at that time and determined her name, according to [redacted] subsequent account of the matter to [redacted]

[redacted] said she similarly intercepted Vadim I. Kuznetsov late in July, 1970, when he came to the office and approached [redacted] desk in the front of the room. Kuznetsov, who did not seem to have a definite errand to perform, merely picked up one of the routine publications and left the office without further conversation. She gathered the impression that he, too, might have been annoyed at her interruption, and this impression has been reinforced by the fact that none of the Soviets have visited the SNS office since this incident, a period of two weeks or more.

b7C

[redacted] advised that the SNS office occupies a single, unpartitioned room in the Old Senate Office Building. She has a close relationship with her staff, generally only [redacted] people, including summer interns, and there is no question but that any contact by the Soviets of an unusual nature with her staff will be brought to her attention.

CONTACTS BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND MEMBERS OR STAFF PERSONNEL OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS

On September 17, 1970, [redacted] [redacted] Subcommittee on National Security and International Relations of the Committee on Government Operations of the United States Senate, advised that the Office of the Subcommittee had been contacted by members of the staff of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C. (WDC), during the previous five weeks on routine matters. She said that these recent contacts followed the pattern of such contacts over the years in that they visited her office infrequently, came alone, and came for the apparent purpose of obtaining publicly released information of the Subcommittee.

D -

It is noted that [redacted] previously reported her impression, on August 10, 1970, that these Soviets had intensified their interest in the Subcommittee's work. This impression was based upon her observation that visits by the Soviets had increased, that sometimes they visited the office in pairs, and upon their apparent interest in determining the identities of persons employed in the office. She stated that at that time, however, any such intensified interest apparently had terminated, since no contact of her office by any Soviet representative had occurred for a period of two weeks or more.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that the first visit to her office by a Soviet representative after the above mentioned hiatus was by Vladimir N. Orlov, First Secretary, Soviet Embassy, WDC. This visit took place on or about August 11, 1970.
Orlov stopped briefly in the office to ask if there had been any releases by the Subcommittee which had not been picked up by someone from the Soviet Embassy. She told him that there had been none, and Orlov left without further conversation.

Based upon available information and investigation

[redacted]

[redacted] advised that [redacted] had visited the Subcommittee office twice since August 10, 1970. On his first visit he was seeking a specific publication, the nature of which was not recalled by [redacted] and which did not emanate from her office. She said that she directed him elsewhere for this publication. On his second visit, which took place during September, 1970, [redacted] asked for copies of some of the recent publications of the Subcommittee. When [redacted] [redacted] told him that there were none that had not already been procured by other Soviet Embassy representatives, [redacted] stated that he is not on the regular Embassy staff, but is with the Soviet Military Office in WDC. He did not press the matter, however, and left her office after picking up a few publications from the stacks which are maintained there for the public.

The July, 1970, issue of "Employees of Diplomatic Missions" published by the United States Department of State (USDS) lists [redacted] as an employee of the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, WDC. On the basis of available information and investigation, [redacted]

b3

b7E

[redacted] advised that [redacted] who has previously been a frequent visitor to the Subcommittee office, had recontacted her by telephone on September 10, 1970, and asked her if there were any new publications available. She told him that no new publications had been released since he last contacted her office.

[redacted] also asked [redacted] if she had determined where the publications of the Soviet counterpart to the Subcommittee were assembled and translated by the U.S. Government.

She said that [ ] was apparently using this technique to avoid any personal responsibility for fulfilling a request which she had previously made of him. She had told him that he ought to furnish the Subcommittee with publications of equal substance and value prepared by the Subcommittee's Soviet counterpart in exchange for the ones he was receiving from the Subcommittee. This counterpart organ in the Soviet government, according to her understanding, would be the American Institute of the Institute of World Economy and International Relations of the Academy of Sciences in Moscow. She said that [ ] has never provided her with any such publications and told her that such documents would be issued by the Soviet Government in the Russian language only. He told her that he felt certain that translations of this material were available through some agency of the U.S. Government.

[ ] said that [ ] also asked to borrow a copy of a book [ ]

b6
b7C

[ ] stopped at her office on the same day to pick up the book, but she found that she did not have a copy at the office. They agreed that she will bring a copy to the office and he will pick it up later.

Regarding [ ] interest in the functions of the Subcommittee, [ ] said that it is her understanding that he is doing a study for the Soviet government concerning U.S. international relations and is doing extensive reading and research on the subject.

The July, 1970, issue of "Employees of Diplomatic Missions" published by USDS, lists [ ] as an employee of the Embassy of the USSR, WDC.

For a number of years Soviet diplomatic personnel posted to their establishment in Washington, D. C., have been known to be in contact with members or staff personnel of the U. S. Congress. Because of the large number of institutions of higher learning in the Washington, D. Our experience has shown that [REDACTED] apparently regard these persons as more susceptible to cultivation than the legislators themselves, possibly due to factors of immaturity or a desire for academic freedom existing in their younger student employees.
