FOIPA Request No.: 1578303-000
Subject: COLBY, WILLIAM EGAN

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

The FBI has completed its search for records subject to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) that are responsive to your request. The enclosed 121 pages of records were determined to be responsive to your subject and were previously processed and released. Please see the selected paragraphs below for relevant information specific to your request as well as the enclosed FBI FOIPA Addendum for standard responses applicable to all requests.

- In an effort to provide you with responsive records as expeditiously as possible, we are releasing documents from previous requests regarding your subject. We consider your request fulfilled. Since we relied on previous results, additional records potentially responsive to your subject may exist. If this release of previously processed material does not satisfy your request, you may request an additional search for records. Submit your request by mail to Initial Processing Operations Unit; Record/Information Dissemination Section; Information Management Division; Federal Bureau of Investigation; 200 Constitution Drive; Winchester, VA 22602. You may also email your response to foipaquestions@fbi.gov. Please include the FOIPA Request Number listed above in your correspondence.
- Please be advised that additional records responsive to your subject exist. If this release of previously processed material does not satisfy your request, you must advise us that you want the additional records processed. Please submit your response within thirty (30) days to Initial Processing Operations Unit; Record/Information Dissemination Section; Information Management Division; Federal Bureau of Investigation; 200 Constitution Drive; Winchester, VA 22602. You may also email your response to foipaquestions@fbi.gov. Please include the FOIPA Request Number listed above in your correspondence. If we do not receive your decision within thirty (30) days of the date of this notification, your request will be closed.
- One or more of the enclosed records were transferred to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). Although we retained a version of the records previously processed pursuant to the FOIA, the original records are no longer in our possession.

If this release of the previously processed material does not satisfy your request, you may file a FOIPA request with NARA at the following address:

National Archives and Records Administration
Special Access and FOIA
8601 Adelphi Road, Room 5500
College Park, MD 20740-6001

Please reference the file number 94-HQ-69720.

- Records potentially responsive to your request were transferred to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), and they were not previously processed pursuant to the FOIA. You may file a request with NARA using the address above.
- One or more of the enclosed records were destroyed. Although we retained a version of the records previously processed pursuant to the FOIA, the original records are no longer in our possession. Record retention and disposal is carried out under supervision of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), Title 44, United States Code, Section 3301 as implemented by Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1228; Title 44, United States Code, Section 3310 as implemented by Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1229.10.
- Records potentially responsive to your request were destroyed. Since this material could not be reviewed, it is not known if it was responsive to your request. Record retention and disposal is carried out under supervision of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) according to Title 44 United States Code Section 3301, Title 36 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Chapter 12 Sub-chapter B Part 1228, and 36 CFR 1229.10.
- Documents or information referred to other Government agencies were not included in this release.

Please refer to the enclosed FBI FOIPA Addendum for additional standard responses applicable to your request. “Part 1” of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. “Part 2” includes additional standard responses that apply to all requests for records about yourself or any third party individuals. “Part 3” includes general information about FBI records that you may find useful. Also enclosed is our Explanation of Exemptions.

Additional information about the FOIPA can be found at www.fbi.gov/foia. Should you have questions regarding your request, please feel free to contact foipaquestions@fbi.gov. Please reference the FOIPA Request number listed above in all correspondence concerning your request.

Please be advised that if you are seeking a new search for records, you may wish to narrow the scope of your request based on material that you have already received, e.g., timeframe or locality. Additionally, be advised that “unusual circumstances” may apply. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(B)(iii). These “unusual circumstances” will delay our ability to make a determination on your request within 20 days. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(B). Additionally, the payment of pertinent fees may apply to your request. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(4)(A)(viii). The application of “unusual circumstances” is not a determination of how the FBI will respond to your substantive request.

If you are not satisfied with the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s determination in response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, 441 G Street, NW, 6th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20530, or you may submit an appeal through OIP’s FOIA STAR portal by creating an account following the instructions on OIP’s website: <https://www.justice.gov/oip/submit-and-track-request-or-appeal>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days of the date of this response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by emailing the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison at foipaquestions@fbi.gov. The subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so it may be easily identified. You may also contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.

Sincerely,

FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Confidential Informant Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of confidential informant records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(D), (b)(7)(E), and (b)(7)(F) [5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(D), (b)(7)(E), and (b)(7)(F)] and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552a (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records would reveal confidential informant identities and information, expose law enforcement techniques, and endanger the life or physical safety of individuals. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches and Standard Search Policy. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems, such as the Central Records System (CRS), or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. The CRS is an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. The standard search policy is a search for main entity records in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include a search for reference entity records, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files.
  - a. Main Entity Records – created for individuals or non-individuals who are the subjects or the focus of an investigation
  - b. Reference Entity Records- created for individuals or non-individuals who are associated with a case but are not known subjects or the focus of an investigation
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Foreseeable Harm Standard. As amended in 2016, the Freedom of Information Act provides that a federal agency may withhold responsive records only if: (1) the agency reasonably foresees that disclosure would harm an interest protected by one of the nine exemptions that FOIA enumerates, or (2) disclosure is prohibited by law (5 United States Code, Section 552(a)(8)(A)(i)). The FBI considers this foreseeable harm standard in the processing of its requests.
- (iv) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information ( A ) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, ( B ) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, ( C ) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, ( D ) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, ( E ) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or ( F ) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

March 6, 1975

Mr. William E. Colby,
Chief, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Colby:

The evil truth about your nefarious spying on innocent Americans is finally coming forth. It is shocking to realize that arrogant, fiendish government officials have been snooping into the lives of legislators and private citizens.

What do you have to do with domestic matters? What right have you to investigate the personal lives of people who have never been involved in foreign intrigue?

The 20-year file on Congresswoman Abzug is an outrage. This under-handed activity, covering such a long span, is no casual affair. It is part of a long-range scheme to intimidate and harass people who are not afraid to speak out.

Congresswoman Abzug is one of America's most honorable political figures. She is a woman of great courage and integrity. She speaks for the little person in America.

That a no-good skunk like you, with the mentality of a rattlesnake could pursue a respected figure like Mrs. Abzug so relentlessly is an indictment of you, not her.

ee n. dy

You ought to be shot, you son of a bitch! You have wilfully and deliberately searched the private and public life of a decent, honorable person, looking for ways of destroying her.

It is obvious that you have no scruples or decency. You and Mr. Nixon ought to be hung. You are both character assassins. You are no better than the vicious Soviet hatchet men who would sell their mothers, on orders from paranoid leaders.

The scholarly, bespectacled, business-like appearance belies the personality that lurks behind the cloak of a patriot. You are a cunning, evil man, who knows full well what he is up to. 1984! is upon us. We have Big Brother watching over us, with all the trappings of a police state. It can happen here! It already has!

capitalism, democracy and the American way of life. But, men like Nixon, Ford, Rockefeller, Rebozo, Buckley, Goldwater, J. Edgar Hoover, William Colby and the oil magnates, and the extremists of Big Business, have destroyed the American Dream for the innocent, small American like myself.

Having destroyed our innocence, you have broken the spirits of millions of decent, hard-working, conscientious Americans. By your ruthlessness, you have effectively killed everything decent and honorable in America.

You may think of yourself as a very decent, honorable man. You have the evil mind of a pervert. You are not a patriot. You are the lowest scum of the earth. Richard Nixon is also an evil man. Both of you have much in common.

I doubt that you are concerned much with terrible consequences of your acts. And, that reveals much about the distortion of your mind and your misplaced loyalties.

With people like you defending America, the U. S. doesn't need enemies. You are the enemy within!

Colby, get the hell out of public life or whatever you call the job you're doing.

If Kissinger and Mr. Ford condone your existence and behavior, this would confirm that these two pseudo-patriots have lost touch with grassroots America also. I am convinced that Mr. Ford and Mr. Kissinger are hiding a lot of activities and are covering up individuals like you, because the American people would reject this skullduggery as un-American.

And, that's about where it's at, Buster. The Un-Americans who care nothing about the small people of this country comprise a pretty large list in Government and in Big Business. Spying on other Americans is probably the least of your evil deeds. I would guess you are the cut-throat behind the assassination of political figures abroad.

Representative Abzug ought to sue you for $2,000,000 and for illegal surveillance, and for defamation of character. She ought to do this to put you out of business, and to prevent recurrence of this cruel and sadistic activity.

It takes a very special type of deviate to pursue your line of work and a very cruel streak, sadistic and smug, to guide a program as evil as CIA. You have proved that there are many people in America who have the instincts of scavengers. If the Communist KGB is evil, which it is, you are even more so, because you're well educated and should know better.

After your salary is paid, and your dedication proven, the one motivation that stands out in your work is that you like to be a spy. It takes a peeping Tom, a voyeur, and a vampire to enjoy this type of work and to prey on other people.

There is no justification for cut-throats like you in this country. You epitomize everything that is wrong with our government today, its greed, insensitivity, isolation from the good, common people, divorcement from human feelings, its violence and treachery, its duplicity and cynicism, its self-indulgences, its paranoia. You personally personify the evil executioner, who would carry out the cruel schemes of a Nixon, and a hard-driving Kissinger.

Until people like you are driven out of government, our system of democracy will not operate. So long as Big Business dominates every facet of our life and the market-place, so long as cynical men like Nixon, Ford, Rockefeller, Buckley, Stennis, enjoy political power, so long as William Colby directs the CIA, so long as Henry Kissinger pursues balance-of-power diplomacy mixed with secretiveness, this country will be little more than a dictatorship wrapped in democratic terms and the American flag.

The growing extremism where power is exercised in this country is causing this great nation to regress. More and more, we are imitating the Soviet repressive system.

Those of us who believe in true democracy have been betrayed. We are crying out in despair. We are criticizing what our system has become. The good people of America seem helpless to rid themselves of the arrogant, cruel tormentors who govern us today.

Your only honorable course would be to step down and to commit hari-kiri. Why don't you follow the honorable tradition of the Japanese, and relieve us of your presence? That would at least cleanse our country of the stench you have created.

For you have indeed created a fierce odor of repression. It stinks to high heaven. Like the lingering smell of Nixon, you reek with the foulness of a decaying mind and soul.

You have no justification for existence. You are less than human. You could dignify your existence by your departure, by some dramatic gesture of purification. Hitler finally did the right thing. Why don't you?

We the American people look forward with great anticipation to some great act of patriotism and expiation by you.

Kindly add my name to your blacklist. You may open a file on me.

With kind regards,

Specimens received 4/1/75

- Q1 Envelope postmarked "U.S. POSTAL SERVICE. NJ 073 1A
7 MAR PM 1975" bearing typewritten address "Mr. William Colby, Chief Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D.C."
- Q2 Accompanying three-page typewritten letter, first page beginning "Mr. Colby: The evil truth about your..."
- Q3 Second page beginning "...capitalism, democracy and the American way..."
- Q4 Third page beginning "There is no justification for cut-throats like you..."

Result of examination:

Q1 through Q4 were searched through the appropriate sections of the Anonymous Letter File without making an identification with a known person or with any other case. Appropriate copies will be added to this file for future reference.

The typewriting on Q1 through Q4 most closely resembles a standard maintained in the Laboratory for a Remington Rand pica style of type, spaced ten letters to the inch, which is found on electric machines.

No indented writing was noted on Q1 through Q4. Q1 contains no watermark or other identifying characteristics which would indicate its source. The watermark "CHILE BOND GOLDSMITH EROS, NY RAG CONTENT" was noted in Q2, Q3, and Q4. Information available in the Laboratory indicates that watermark is a private watermark of Goldsmith Brothers, 77 Nassau Street, New York, New York.

An arrest fingerprint card was located in the files of the Identification Division for a [redacted]

No conclusion was reached, however, whether [redacted]

[redacted] prepared the [redacted] signature on Q4 because of some variations in that signature which could not be accounted for based on the limited writing available for [redacted]

Q1 through Q4 have been photographed and are being retained temporarily in the Bureau.

2. Xerox copy of employment application of [redacted] with Sea-Land dated [redacted]

3. One xerox copy each of all enclosures set forth for the Bureau.

The following background is set forth for the benefit of the Document Section and the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Divisions:

R. J. Reynolds Industries, Winston-Salem, N.C. (RJR) was one of the original recipients of the demand letters in the FOXLETS case. RJR suggested a former employee of one of their subsidiaries, Sea-Land, Inc., as a possible suspect. This employee is [redacted]

[redacted] has written a series of letters to RJR and various senators and congressmen. These letters have been critical of RJR and its subsidiary, Sea-Land. These letters have been examined by an independent typewriter expert retained by RJR who concluded the letters written by [redacted] were typed on an Olympia typewriter. It was further concluded that the same typewriter was used to prepare the unsigned letter entitled "The Sea-Land Story," which was also received by RJR. [redacted] has corresponded with RJR from both Mexico and Canada. Although he uses the return address of [redacted] it is believed this is the address of a relative through which he can be contacted. [redacted] actual whereabouts are unknown and RJR has retained a private investigative service to determine his whereabouts. This matter has been discussed with the Jackson Division and they consider [redacted] to be a strong as suspect as any they have in this matter.

- Q14 Envelope bearing typewritten address [redacted]
[redacted] R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. Fourth & Main Streets Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27102 U.S.A."
- Q15 One-page typewritten letter dated 2/14/75, beginning "I am sending ..."

Specimens received 2/10/76 from SAC, Alexandria, under cover of Airtel dated 2/9/76 (D-760210199 MQ):

- Q16 Envelope bearing typewritten address [redacted]
[redacted] The American Embassy Taipei, Taiwan" and accompanying two-page typewritten letter beginning "I am available ..." signed "re"

- Q17 Envelope postmarked "TORONTO AM NOV 3 1974 ONTARIO," bearing typewritten address [redacted] the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics Department of State, Washington, D. C. 20520 U.S.A." and accompanying two-page typewritten letter beginning "I am available ..." signed "re"
- Q18 Envelope bearing typewritten address "Mr. William Colby Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D.C. U.S.A. 20505" and accompanying two-page typewritten letter beginning "On December 15, 1974 ..." signed "re"

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the questioned typewriting on specimens Qc1 through Q15 most closely resembles the FBI standards for an Olympia style of type having a horizontal spacing of 2.3 millimeters per letter. This type appears on Olympia typewriters manufactured in West Germany and on a typewriter by the name of Rheinmetall.

Due to an insufficient number of individual identifying defects a definite conclusion could not be reached as to whether all of the questioned specimens were prepared on the same typewriter.

The typewriting used in Bureau case entitled "Unsub. aka. [redacted] H. J. Heinz Company, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania-Victim, Extortion" was a Signature Junior Toy typewriter manufactured exclusively for Montgomery Ward in Japan. The typewriting appearing in Bureau case entitled "FOXLETS" is from a Royal typewriter and a Ransmayer style of type which appears on R. C. Allen and Woodstock typewriters.

Therefore the questioned typewriting on Qc1 through Q15 is not comparable to the typewriting in the above listed Bureau cases.

Specimens Q1 through Q15 and Q16 through Q18 are being returned herewith to Charlotte and Alexandria respectively. These specimens were photographed and copies retained.

Mr. LEO J. DUNN, Chief of Operations, Personnel Security and Investigations, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) Headquarters, McLean, Virginia, advised SA [redacted] Alexandria Office, FBI, on 2/3/76, that his agency could locate no record of a [redacted] ever having been employed by or officially associated with CIA in any way. However, Mr. DUNN furnished SA [redacted] with the Xerox copies of the above described enclosures noting that they were obtained from CIA's "crank file" pertaining to [redacted] of [redacted], who probably is identical with the [redacted] referred to in referenced Jackson airtel 1/28/76. He indicated that the CIA could furnish no additional information pertaining to [redacted] which would be pertinent to this investigation noting that no photographs were available.

It is noted that the date in the letter to Mr. COLBY did not reflect the year in its entirety; however, based on [redacted] reference to a letter he wrote on 12/15/74, Mr. DUNN assumes the correct year is 1975.

Mr. DUNN requested that his office be notified through Alexandria CIA liaison prior to divulging the source of the above enclosures outside the FBI.

Alexandria indices are negative on [redacted]
[redacted]

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU

The FBI Laboratory, Document Section, is requested to conduct appropriate examinations in order to determine the type and style of typewriter used in construction of the letters and envelopes. The Document Section is further requested to compare the enclosed letters with all previous submissions in this case in order to determine if the typewriter used in producing the letters is the same.

For Bureau information, Mr. DUNN, supra, advised that he will make the original letters sent by [redacted] available if the Xerox copies are not satisfactory for conducting the requested examinations. He further stated that the originals have been touched by numerous individuals.

CONGRESSIONAL/EXECUTIVE SECRET SERVICE, MULTINATIONAL

APR 5, 75

This special guard service is unique in that we primarily cover the world outside of the United States. We operate from Mexico City or Toronto, but when you are ready to travel we will fly to any place (in or out of the U.S.) to join you, then stay with you for the duration of the trip or project. We will go ANYWHERE. (Would need special permission for Cuba, North Korea or North Vietnam.) We can take you safely to places where other agencies fear to tread.

WHO: Members of Congress and their families, Corporate Executives and their relatives, Officials of any country and their families, Celebrities, Important people temporarily in exile, Retired senior citizens who waited a lifetime to travel around the world, only to find out it is no longer safe to travel unaided.

WHY: Kidnappings, Skyjackings-many international flights have no air marshals. Abductions, Terrorist violence, Political unrest; coups, military action, revolution, riots, undeclared war, guerrilla activity, etc., suddenly come about without warning. If you already have a specialized insurance policy our service may enable you to get a rate reduction. Our service is preventative in nature.

WHAT FOR: Members of Congress and their guests traveling for pleasure or otherwise (but not qualifying for Washington's Secret Service). Because of increased world unrest, many multinational corporations have pulled back Division or Country Managers and key personnel, turning operations over to local citizens. But corporate representatives must make periodical trips to inspect operations. Why put a man on the permanent payroll if you need service for only a week, a month or a quarter. More developing countries have been added to the OPEC "insured" list. Businessmen may want to consider operating in new countries.

WHERE TO: Trans-Siberia train ride? Rangoon, Burma? South America? Cyprus? Indochina - Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia? Bangladesh? Eastern or Western Europe? Air Africa, with or without safari? Arabian countries? Indonesia? Australia? Oh Calcutta, India? "The Land of Smiles" Thailand? You name it.

We can guide you through countries that have no place to change money in their international airport upon arrival! Places where you must pay the hotel bill in US Dollars - they will not accept their own country's currency! Our specialized experience will spare you tremendous aggravation, and enable you to travel in comfort to places you might not safely go otherwise. The money we save you will help pay for our fee, which is tax deductible under certain circumstances.

BACKGROUND - data on the undernamed:

- Martial Arts (Karate). 12 years experience. Teach classes when not traveling. Train daily. Developing special, new techniques for today's problems.
- Familiar with many different kinds of weapons (but do not own any). Fired a variety of U.S. made arms and those of other countries, while in Asia.
- Worked and lived in Indochina for 9 years, based in South Vietnam.
- U.S. citizen, traveled and lived in more than 60 countries including less developed ones and "Police States." Highly adaptable.
- Had been an executive of a multinational corporation, handling both commercial (export/import) and U.S. Government military contract business. Have know how for dealing with officials and on negotiating contracts.
- Familiar with visa red tape. Once supervised the processing of 200 passports of 9 different countries.
- Age 33, inconspicuous appearance, no dependents or encumbrances.

GOOD SWIMMER.

RATES:

- Weekly $ 1,000 (Very reasonable considering there are no fringe)
- Monthly 3,500 (benefits - vacation, pension, etc. 7 long days)
- Quarterly 10,000 (a week.)
- Yearly 30,000

Plus reimbursement of transportation fare and hotel when required. Payment for services to be made after the mission is completed. If you are not fully satisfied, don't pay. - In the event of nuclear war, there is a 100% surcharge. (We are well versed on this subject.). No extra charge for ANY type of non-atomic military activity.

We are always ready. On Call 24 hours a day 365 days a year. If you do not have a requirement right now, please retain this for future reference or pass it on to an associate. NO DEPOSIT required when booking in advance. Not necessary to make reservations, but could be to your advantage. In the event that the below is scheduled for another mission when you need a man, another agent with a solid background in security can be readied. We have a special training program.

The American Embassy
Taipei, Taiwan

[Redacted]

Dear

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

I am available for special operations, without contract or with one if you prefer. Can work for you directly or with any agency under your command. Will work alone or with others. Would work for a foreign government if you caused them to contact me.

Types of problems that could develop where you may want assistance:

- A need to evacuate (because of natural disaster or strife) Americans from your country or from a neighboring country to yours.
- Military action - help hold the "fort" until sufficient regular forces arrive.
- Help train local forces of Taiwan in special defense methods.
- Skyjacking.
- Terrorists attacks or threats of them.
- Bodyguard for visiting VIP's or someone stationed in your area who has suddenly become involved in a controversy.
- Kidnapping or people-being held hostage.
- Courier. Delivery of valuables or important papers.
- Air Marshall. Certain planes arriving and departing your country.
- Guarding of nuclear materials during movement or emplacement.

While you have many capable people available to you through regular channels, there may be a time when you need an "extra", and real fast, without red tape. My bag is always packed and ready. On Call 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. There are no holidays during a crisis.

Rates are:	Weekly	$ 1,000	(Rates are very reasonable considering )
	Monthly	3,500	(there are no fringe benefits - vacation,)
	Quarterly	10,000	(pension or life insurance. 7 day week.)
	Yearly	30,000

In the event of nuclear war (anywhere) there is a surcharge of 100%. I am well versed on the special problems of radiation and of nuclear tactics. No extra charge for any other type of war, such as conventional or guerilla, contained or uncontained, declared or undeclared, civil, revolution, coup, etc.

Payment for services to be made after the mission is completed or objective accomplished. If on a yearly basis, fee may be paid at year end. If you are not fully satisfied with the service, don't pay.

If you do not have an immediate need for services, you may hold this for future reference. It is not a requirement that this letter be acknowledged. However, it would be to your benefit to maintain some type of contact, of which there would be no obligation on your part. If you wish to avoid direct communication, a note from an aide requesting "Please keep me advised of your cable address" will insure that you are always kept aware of my current direct cable address. Sometimes I travel. Below is not a business or residence, but a re-mail point, which will not change. A cable can be sent there, but it could be delayed for several hours before being relayed.

In the event that you cable for a specific problem (i.e. skyjacking) and it is resolved before I get there, there will be no fee - just reimbursement of airfare. One cannot know in advance whether a crisis will last an hour or a week. I keep the latest airline schedules handy and there is much incentive for getting there very fast.

I can be treated as a civilian private "consultant" with no association or affiliation with any government agency or institution. This is an advantage because of the current publicity showing some activities of the recent past in a bad light.

Below is some background data on the undersigned:

- Martial Arts. 12 years experience. Teach classes when not traveling. Train daily. Developing special, new techniques for today's problems.
- Familiar with many different kinds of weapons (but do not own any). Fired a variety of U.S. made and captured enemy arms while in Asia.
- Worked and lived in Indochina for 9 years (1 with infantry, 8 as a civilian). Based in South Vietnam with about 30 trips to Thailand, Cambodia and Laos.
- U.S. citizen, traveled and lived in more than 80 countries including less developed ones like Burma, Bangladesh, Calcutta, Indonesia, Iraq and most of the communist and Arabian countries. Highly adaptable.
- Had been an executive of a multinational corporation, handling both commercial (export/import) and U.S. Government military contract business. After 6 years of this, decided to go it alone.
- Income for the full year of 1973 comparative with the yearly rate listed above.
- Have cash reserves, stocks and foreign currency accounts. Will not go hungry between assignments.
- Age 33, average appearance, no dependents or encumbrances.

The Hon. Walter John Stoessel, Jr.
Ambassador to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I am available for special operations, without contract or with one if you prefer. Can work for you directly or with any agency under your command. Will work alone or with others. Would work for a foreign government if you caused them to contact me.

Types of problems that could develop where you may want assistance:

- A need to evacuate (because of strife or natural disaster) Americans from your country or from a neighboring country to yours.
- Military action -- help hold the "fort" until sufficient regular forces arrive. Assist in guarding the Embassy.
- Bodyguard for visiting VIP's or someone stationed in your area who has suddenly become involved in a controversy.
- Courier. Delivery of valuables or important papers.

While you have many capable people available to you through regular channels, there may be a time when you need an "extra", and real fast, without red tape. My bag is always packed and ready. On Call 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. There are no holidays during a crisis.

Rates are:	Weekly	$ 1,000	(Rates are very reasonable considering )
	Monthly	3,500	(there are no fringe benefits - vacation,)
	Quarterly	10,000	(pension or life insurance. 7 day week.)
	Yearly	30,000

In the event of nuclear war (anywhere) there is a surcharge of 100%. I am well versed on the special problems of radiation and of nuclear tactics. No extra charge for any other type of war, such as conventional or guerilla, contained or uncontained, declared or undeclared, civil, revolution, coup, etc.

Payment for services to be made after the mission is completed or objective accomplished. If on a yearly basis, fee may be paid at year end. If you are not fully satisfied with the service, don't pay.

The Hon. Harley O. Staggers
House of Representatives
Room 2356 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Staggers:

You are the only officer in West Virginia that is being contacted on this multiBillion dollar NATIONAL matter, which ultimately affects every citizen in West Virginia. We did get in touch with Governor Moore, but only on part of the third issue below.

PROPOSAL: North Carolina leaders and city chiefs should be encouraged to change the name of the city of Winston-Salem OR have the tobacco company alter the Names of these cigarette brands. A ban should be placed on the use of any town, city, county or country name as a tobacco product name.

Winston is the number one selling cigarette and Selem is fourth. This makes Winston-Salem, North Carolina the CANCER CAPITAL OF THE WORLD. Every time people write or type the words Winston-Salem in an address or letter or see a sign with these words, read a map, hear the city name spoken on TV and Radio (broadcast ban should cover this) or are exposed to the mention of the name in any one of a multitude of various ways, are subjected to two forms of intimation; first, a plug for the brands and second, a subtle indication that the city and state heads approve of and recommend these two. Deliberate intention or not, it makes no difference to the subconscious mind. The maker of Winston "reportedly has committed $34-million for advertizing to maintain Winston as the nation's top seller." They are getting double mileage - the second measure is a free ride on government's back. That is partly how these two brands became such big sellers.

Massachusetts, New Jersey, Oregon and other territories also have towns designated Salem. If the tobacco manufacturer does not change their name, these places will risk being branded Cancer Pushers.

No patriotic American would want to see a pack of coffin nails called United States of America. Tar Poluted Thinkers do not realize they are incinerating the fruit of potential food crop land when they put matches to their butts.

If anyone thinks helping tobacco companies wins votes how do they explain the 1974 elections and the "dilution of the tobacco protection people" in Congress. Constituents ousted them. Wilmer David Mizell had been the Representative for the Fifth District(N.C.), home of Winston-Salem and was a member of the Subcommittee on Tobacco. The tobacco industry could not help him or Earl B. Ruth (N.C) remain in office - voters turned their backs on them at the polls. Other tobacco defenders, like Senator Kruska, will follow them out.

PROPOSAL: Cigarette smokers who accidently start fires which result in death of or injury to humans or to property, public or private, should be charged with Arson in the second degree or/and Manslaughter and prosecuted to the full extent of existing laws. The United States Code should be amended so as to clearly cover these crimes and spell out the penalties for those AT FAULT.

9-56431 Oct 1 MG

PROPOSAL: Legislation should be introduced to require all tobacco companies to contribute to a national health plan. Tobacco firms would be able to continue to advertise in newspapers, magazines, on billboards, with TV and Hollywood actors and actresses 'lighting themselves up' on the screen, etc., ONLY if they made matching payments to medical care, dollar for dollar.

An alternate proposal would be an absolute and total interdiction against any and all types of promotion. The new, huge increase in advertising makes the timing right for a complete ban. Senator Hruska claims current law "discriminates against the broadcast media" (radio and television). His reverse logic seem to imply: If poison can be huckstered by newspapers - why not via TV, too. Nuisance ads irritate and provoke non-smokers. Stopping ads would halt the accusation made by anti-smokers that adults and children are coerced and seduced into tobacco usage habits.

A leading tobacco company brags that "Since the broadcast ban, the brand's growth has shown a direct relationship to its candid advertising approach in newspapers and magazines." The greater the advertising, the bigger the sales, the larger the problem with Scarred, Tarred, Black Lung Disease and the more significant the possible need for additional health care.

North Carolina stimulates the propagation of cancer blight by having the lowest state tobacco tax rate - a paltry 2 cents. This meager amount is not enough to cover the cost of cleaning up tobacco product 'fallout' - debris, wrappers, litter and ash residue plus the expense of painting 'No Smoking' signs and repairing burns to public property or render compensation to the myriad non-smoking victims who perish in conflagrations carelessly set off by smokers and pay for hard drug related violent crimes. Persons not addicted to smoking (Arson of the body, slow form of self-immolation) are less likely to become involved in marijuana, which leads to dope and slavery.

Connecticut has a more reasonable tax rate of 21 cents, and their progressive Governor Ella Grasso told us of her written request to the General Assembly to "increase this tax four cents to 25 cents per pack." The Justice Department should investigate for possible ANTITRUST VIOLATIONS if a package of weeds does not retail for 19¢ less in North Carolina than in an area like Connecticut.

There are no restrictions on the use of this letter. Please have it entered, in part or in full, in the Congressional Record or its Extensions of Remarks. Photocopying permitted, without limitation.

We operate on the eternal struggle concept and will persevere until the objective is obtained. We are working on a nationwide campaign to drum up a tidal wave of popular support for the above and other resolutions, to counteract those who aid and abet the spreaders of bad health items that are anathema to living things. Office holders who support us will automatically receive our assistance in future elections. There is a separate 'machine' for this, because we engage in the negative sounding activity of destroying cancer. Your name will not be associated with the ROLLING THUNDER movement unless we have your prior permission. Our voices, fed through hundreds of institutions to thousands of places reaching millions, will be amplified into ROLLING THUNDER.

Dear [Redacted]

Please be informed <sup>THAT</sup> at the next annual meeting, to be held on the fourth Wednesday in April of 1975, I intend to present to the meeting the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the stockholders of R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc., assembled in annual meeting and by proxy, hereby request the Board of Directors to take the steps necessary for divestiture, sale or otherwise spin off the subsidiary Sea-Land Service, Inc.

I submit the following statement in support of my proposal:

Reynolds' form 10-K states "For 1971 military cargo accounted for approximately 29.7%..." of Sea-Land's transportation revenue. Military cargo (mainly Vietnam and Asia) had been significant during Sea-Land's growth and at time of merger with Reynolds on May 13, 1969.

Reynolds' 1973 Annual Report shows transportation only accounted for 3.2% of earnings, but 91% of the $339,729,000 for 1973 capital expenditures.

Long term debt was $137,125,000 at December 31, 1968. After the merger with Sea-Land, debt increased to $563,335,000 at December 31, 1973.

If you agree, please mark your proxy for this resolution; otherwise it is automatically cast against it.

Please include the above resolution with supporting statement in proxy material sent out to shareholders before the next meeting.

Sincerely,

their products and services. A major, worldwide movement will be soon and continued until certain objectives are reached - which could be months or many years. Churches, U.S. Officials, Foreign Governments, Unions, all of the world's biggest newspapers, and the world's major banks and financial institutions will be contacted. RJR's competitors will be notified and consumers made aware of alternative products and services.

Enclosed deals with but one type of problem. A hundred other very ugly and completely different skeletons will be pulled out into the open. We will gain a tidal wave of support. AVOID GETTING STUCK WITH WALLPAPER.

EXERCISE IN POWER - MULTINATIONAL CORPORATION IN A "DEVELOPING" COUNTRY.

SEA-LAND AMERICAN EMPLOYEE - DRINKING, SPEEDING - 6 HOST COUNTRY CITIZENS DIE. COMPANY PROTECTS EMPLOYEE; GIVES RAISE AND PROMOTION AFTER HE IS CONVICTED AND SENTENCED. GETS SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

Below is excerpts of the most pertinent data from a statement made by Mr. H, an American Claims Supervisor employed by Sea-Land, with years of experience in insurance. Words bracketed by slashes [ ] indicate editor's comments or corrections. Quoted exactly as made except for individual names and where marked by ... to show omission of wordy secondary or irrelevant data.

"At approximately 1630 hours, 24 November 1968, Mr. X (American, Assistant Maintenance Manager...) departed Ba Ngoi for our terminal. He had been delivering some sheet metal there and was returning from this village via the civilian highway when the incident occurred. (He stopped in the village of Sui Chin to take some pictures and drank two beers before starting on the final leg of the trip; this made a total of four beers consumed that afternoon)...at approximately 1700 hours, Mr. X made an odd, direct move into the left lane of the straight, level highway, and collided head-on with a Lambretta bus. This popular type of bus, with a capacity of eight (8) passengers, plus driver, had a total of twelve (12) people inside. The overload was due to having two extra people in the driver's seat. By observations of a 15-year old buffalo herder and the indications on the highway, our pick-up hit the bus, pushed it backwards for 10 feet, then knocked it 30 feet farther off the left shoulder. After they separated, the bus broke up into four pieces and the truck continued down the left lane for 30 feet more, spinning one-half turn and resting just off the left edge of the highway.

"Mr. W (American...) followed Mr. X by about five minutes and was the first one on the scene...drove him [Mr. X only - no Vietnamese victims] to the USAF [U.S. Air Force] hospital at CRB [Cam Ranh Bay].

"While enroute to the hospital, Mr. W stopped at an M.P. [U.S. Military Police] checkpoint and asked them to radio ahead for an ambulance...continued on his way to have Mr. X treated for facial cuts and leg bruises. The ambulance found four (4) passengers dead, and the other eight (8) very seriously injured, so they only picked up the living and rushed them back to the USAF hospital. One (1) more passenger was dead on arrival, and another expired 15 minutes later of multiple fractures and internal injuries.

"At 3:00 p.m., on 25 November, myself and Mr. N [Vietnamese] our Company lawyer, arrived in CRB and immediately compiled all terminal stories...

"The next morning we worked with the MPs, who had previously worked with the APs [U.S. Air Police] and National Police [Vietnamese]...the case had been turned over to the C. I. D. [American, Criminal Investigation Division]...

"...Mr. N and me to the USAF hospital for any information from the injured parties... Only one person was coherent, a young woman who could only reply, "I don't remember" to all questions. Three others were under intensive care, one was in the operating room, and another had just returned from same...

"During our visit to the National Police, it became [sic] evident that the Police Chief was an old Army officer friend of Mr. N [Sea-Land lawyer] and the Precinct Judge was a fellow lawyer friend as well; this seems to have weighed heavily in our behalf...the police were in no particular hurry to prosecute or arrest anyone... By combinning our records with the C. I. D. and police stories, we did discover these basic essentials. ...much of the evidence had been moved or washed away by the monsoon.

1. Mr. X made a strange move into the left lane and hit the Lambretta.
  - a. Possibly sleeping at the wheel, plus excessively speeding; both vehicles totaled out.
2. six (6) persons dead, six (6) persons injured, plus our own driver [released from the hospital the same day after minor treatment].
3. The police are to issue a summons for Mr. X as he comes under their jurisdiction.
  - a. The C. I. D. also has jurisdiction, but it is second to the civilian code [therefore frustrating efforts they might want to make].
  - b. The summons must be issued by Mr. N's friend, the Judge, who is temporarily ill and in the hospital.
  - c. The Police Chief, again, a friend of Mr. N, must serve the summons via the AP to our terminal.
4. The police respect his U.S. citizenship [because of Vietnam's dependence on U.S. AID] and are in no hurry for arrest.
5. Mr. N advised the Police Chief that Mr. X is an injured person and...

The above statement does not explain why sheet metal (which was not a regular inventory item) was being delivered to Ba Ngoi (there was no regular company bus there) and by a Supervisory employe instead of a regular driver. The Supervisor, X, stopped in Sui Chin to drink beer. This village was often off limits during various times over the years, because of trouble over booze and girls, crime and disease. Even though Sea-Land was operating under United States Department of Navy Contract #N0003367SA1029, the U.S. Military Police were unable to prevent U.S. civilians from going to Sui Chin, which created friction between the military and civilians. This editor does not know if it was officially off limits on the day that Mr. X drank beer there and the above statement fails to go into this.

"...total of four beers consumed that afternoon..." while with a company vehicle. The above treats this as if it were a normal occurrence. It does not say what kind of beer; there are two main types of local beer - "33" comes in a regular size bottle and Beer LaRue which is in a bottle roughly 2½ times bigger in size. There is also illegal black market American beer in 12 ounce cans. Local beer is good tasting and popular, but the quality control (in 1968) was nowhere near as good as in U.S. brews. Four local beers could give a regular drinker a "buzz" one day but make him drunk the next. Also, can we really be sure that Mr. X only had 4 beers?

The Lambretta bus was the most common means of public transportation. Because of the shortage of vehicles it was normal and routine for 12 people (or even a few more if some were small children) to be in the bus and common for two passengers to be in the front with the driver. This editor had access to a Lambretta during 1966/67 and drove it overloaded and with two passengers in the front on occasion. When this type vehicle is overloaded it can only travel at a very slow pace as there is not much horsepower. The small Lambretta was traveling at a slow pace in a straight line when the speeding heavy duty ¾ ton truck of Mr. X "...made an odd, direct move into the left lane of the straight, level highway, and collided head-on..." with it. If there had been only 8 people in the bus instead of 12 it would not have prevented the crash and may not have saved any lives - in fact with only 8 it would have been traveling faster and all 8 could have died instead of 6 deaths.

On July 7, 1969 the highest Sea-Land representative in Vietnam wrote to 16 other Sea-Land corporate officers and personnel at the very top in Elizabeth, New Jersey (Home Office), Washington, D.C., Oakland, Seattle and Yokohama, Japan. "The Mr. X accident case finally came to trial. Mr. X received a five-month jail sentence. However, our lawyer has appealed and the appeal will probably come up in three to nine months. If it looks bad at the appeal trial, we will have to put Mr. X on an airplane." None of the Sea-Land officials objected to the idea of helping a convicted man leave the country in order to escape legal punishment. This is a direct contradiction to the Sea-Land December 13, 1968 statement made for the Vietnam Government which said "Sea-Land Service, Inc. will take all reasonable precautions to make certain that the driver of above listed vehicle will remain available for questioning and/or be present at any time the Court requests."

Mr. X had been on the payroll for only 4 months at the time of the drinking/speeding/fatalities incident - hired on July 18, 1968. By not terminating the employe, transferring him to a different work site for his protection, giving him time off from work with pay to "rest up" and an amazing amount of other assistance, Sea-Land did not show disapproval of his behavior and the consequences of them.

"On June 23, 1969, The Court with Extended Jurisdiction of Binh Thuan (Phanrang) has delivered the following judgement:

- Sentence Mr. X to 5 month imprisonment."

But in spite of this, 17 days later on July 10, 1969 a Sea-Land Vice President (who was also one of the 16 on distribution of the above mentioned "airplane escape" letter) wrote this letter:

"Dear Mr. X:

We are pleased to inform you that your title has been changed to Garage Manager and your salary increased $1,500.00 a year, effective June 16, 1969."

A man convicted and sentenced to 5 months (less than one month per death), but not serving a single day in jail is "punished" by Sea-Land with a promotion to higher responsibility and given a substantial salary increase!!!

A salary adjustment was made 4½ months later on November 3, 1969 -4½- Mr. X's second.

None of the Sea-Land officials objected to the idea of helping a convicted man leave the country in order to escape legal punishment. This is a direct contradiction to the Sea-Land December 13, 1968 statement made for the Vietnam Government which said "Sea-Land Service, Inc. will take all reasonable precautions to make certain that the driver of above listed vehicle will remain available for questioning and/or be present at any time the Court requests."

Mr. X had been on the payroll for only 4 months at the time of the drinking/speeding/fatalities incident - hired on July 18, 1968. By not terminating the employe, transferring him to a different work site for his protection, giving him time off from work with pay to "rest up" and an amazing amount of other assistance, Sea-Land did not show disapproval of his behavior and the consequences of them.

"On June 23, 1969, The Court with Extended Jurisdiction of Binh Thuan (Phanrang) has delivered the following judgement:

- Sentence Mr. X to 5 month imprisonment."

But in spite of this, 17 days later on July 10, 1969 a Sea-Land Vice President (who was also one of the 16 on distribution of the above mentioned "airplane escape" letter) wrote this letter:

"Dear Mr. X:

We are pleased to inform you that your title has been changed to Garage Manager and your salary increased $1,500.00 a year, effective June 16, 1969."

A man convicted and sentenced to 5 months (less than one month per death), but not serving a single day in jail is "punished" by Sea-Land with a promotion to higher responsibility and given a substantial salary increase!!!

A salary adjustment was made 4½ months later on November 3, 1969 -4½- Mr. X's second.

Re the above mentioned appeal. It was not until April 29, 1971 that "the sentence of 5 month imprisonment" was "suspended" without any change in the guilty verdict. Mr. X did not need to leave the country to avoid going to jail.

Only two months after the July 10, 1969 salary increase letter, Mr. C, the highest Sea-Land man in Vietnam wrote Mr. X on September 15, 1969:

"Based on reports of....following their recent inspection visit, you are hereby placed on indefinite probation."

"In addition to the technical maintenance areas which you were found lacking in, your personal attitude and the supervision of your men were also criticized. It would seem obvious that you cannot improve the technical deficiencies if you do not develop a definite attitude of concern and more closely manage your manpower assets [Vietnamese laborers]."

mentioned)." So "Let's wait awhile..."

March 28, 1970 a Major, Department of the Army, Headquarters 5th Transportation Command, sent a security Violation Report regarding activities of Mr. X on March 28, 1970 and requesting disciplinary action be taken. "VIOLATION: Keeping an unauthorized Local National woman on [a military] compound over night. He was stopped while trying to take her out Gate #1 [0615 a.m.]." No action taken by the company.

Roughly 3 years after the 12 casualty event, Mr. X decided, on his own, to leave the company. He stayed off the payroll for about a year. Then the Division Manager decided he needed another maintenance supervisor and that Mr. X was the only one he wanted for the job. The Assistant Manager vigorously protested the idea because; 1-Written company policy prohibited the rehiring of ex-employees, regardless of whether they had resigned or had been terminated - unless special permission was obtained from the Vice President, Personnel in advance, and it wasn't, 2-Mr. X was past the age limit for hiring and there had already been a case where this age policy was broken and the employe soon died of a heart attack while assigned to a rough environment area, 3-Mr. X was a convicted man and all claims of dead and injured had not yet been fully settled, causing some risk (visa, work permit, etc.), 4-The political circumstances were changing in Vietnam where Sea-Land would need good cooperation with the host government and an "ugly American" image should be avoided - the natives knew of Mr.X's past and would not forget, 5-He was known to strongly hate the local people (partly why he left) and the job was to train and supervise dozens of Vietnamese mechanics. The Manager ignored his Assistant and ordered that Mr. X be processed as a "New Hire."

Several months later, Sea-Land was experiencing a serious problem with truck tires disappearing en masse. A Vietnamese, who worked for the local government, made a discreet visit to the Division Manager, and in his absence, talked to the Assistant. He gave a very detailed report of how he saw a Sea-Land truck unloading valuable, new heavy duty tractor/trailer tires near his home. He identified the Sea-Land truck by number and gave a good description of the American who drove and unloaded the vehicle under suspicious circumstances in a "black market" area. The vehicle was assigned to Mr. X, the description of the driver fit him accurately and he was the American maintenance manager who was responsible for the safekeeping of the tires and all parts plus inventory control records. The witness showed his Government identification card with his address and offered to return for further questioning whenever called.

For years, the Assistant (who also ran the Accounting Department) had been emphatically insisting that stolen maintenance parts and tools was costing the company over $100,000 per year, but this concern was not shared seriously by many others. The manager, upon his return to the main office, refused to recall the witness, said he would take over the tire investigation and ordered his Assistant to bow out of it. Nothing further happened. The supply of new tires ran out so the stealing of them (but not other parts) stopped.

As time moved on, there was a large increase in complaints about the hostile attitude of Supervisor X towards the mechanics under him and all Vietnamese people who came in contact with him. The main office treated these complaints lightly and completely ignored some of them. On several occasions Mr. X vehemently admitted to his American associates that "I hate these people" - meaning the Vietnamese.

Then, several months after the tire fiasco, Mr. X came to the main office around 1700 hours to check for mail. He said a few curse words in front of a Vietnamese secretary. This mature woman was married and had children, but was still attractive and usually wore the shortest of mini-skirts. The Division Manager often commented on her "beautiful" legs. The secretary (/actress) went into the Manager's office shedding big tear drops behind a closed door and told how she was insulted and badly abused with ugly, vulgar language. The Manager called in Mr. X and gave him the option of being fired or resigning. He resigned.

It is ironic that the secretary who caused the end of Mr. X's Sea-Land career (assuming he is not "New Hire" a third time) was well versed in unladylike language. Her personnel file contained a well documented past history of a vengeful attitude, always trying to get even with the other girls AND various other American Supervisors whenever she imagined she had been wronged. She had bad arguments in past times with the other girls and cursed them purple. The Assistant had to rearrange the office so as to keep her desk away from certain other Vietnamese - male and female. Two days after Mr. X's ouster, she bragged of her ultimate achievement to the other girls. She was as proud as a big game hunter who had downed a charging rhinoceros. Several months later she became bolder and tried to cause trouble for two other Supervisors. Insubordination resulted in her being "surplussed" (permanent layoff) with full severance pay.

CDIG Popular Forces (semi police/military) personnel. He went to his house, "...armed himself with a carbine and pursued the then rapidly retreating group to Hai Ba Trung [Street] and fired three rounds. One man fell and later bled to death at the VN Hospital." This employe did not stay on the payroll - he resigned so he could better flee from the authorities. The Office of the Vietnamese Prime Minister called Sea-Land asking for assistance in locating Supervisor B. Sea-Land's main office told them and the American CID that they did not know where he was, when at that same time other Sea-Land employes from the terminal he had worked at were helping him avoid the authorities in a Sea-Land vehicle! Later, the same day, Mr. B walked into the Sea-Land main office and was told that people were looking for him and who. He stayed for 15 or 20 minutes and left. No one advised the authorities. Other Vietnamese died in Sea-Land connected incidents with no one being punished.

So how was Mr. X (or the others) to know that his activities might not be quite right? He got raises, didn't he? He was a heavy drinker, but others drank more than him, including the Division Manager. Some employes drank so much that they were still drunk when they woke up in the morning and they drank during working hours or at any hour and 365 days a year. Other employes raced around in company vehicles and violated Vietnamese laws and U.S. military regulations. Many other Sea-Land Supervisors were involved in missing property cases and caught with contraband.

Dead people leave behind families - big families. There was no birth control (at least not voluntary) because the wartime country needed to be repopulated. When the spouse and children see the American go free and there is no longer a head of household and they begin to starve it becomes less clear who is their real enemy. Is it the Viet Cong, the Americans or the South Vietnam Government, who permits Americans to stay and doesn't put them in jail when their loved ones are killed? Some surviving relatives become Viet Cong or VC sympathizers and supporters. We have all heard of young children - girls as well as boys - tossing hand grenades into a group of GIs. Ever stop and ask WHY? No guerrilla war can succeed without the support of the populace. We made more enemies than friends, making losing inevitable. Americans complained that they could not tell the good guys from the bad guys. Local citizens had trouble figuring out who was worse - the allies or the North - both caused them harm. Over 500,000 Americans could not win against less than 200,000 enemy because the enemy ended up with the support of the great majority of the 17 or 18 million South Vietnamese. A few hundred billion dollars did not make many friends.

Sea-Land did not lose the entire war all by itself. But with never more than 40 Americans on their payroll in Vietnam a full Congressional investigation might show that they did more things wrong than other U.S. Government Contractor firms that had 5 or 10 times as many Americans. When the Department of Navy "put out a contract" to Sea-Land we don't think they wanted Vietnamese to die, but they had some small knowledge of what was going on yet they kept renewing or extending the contract every year or two whenever necessary. (There had been talk of competitors underbidding Sea-Land but getting turned down anyway.)

The Senator Gravel Edition of the Pentagon Papers is four long volumes long, and very fine work - but not complete. A fifth volume, no shorter than any of the first four, could be added on Sea-Land alone - all new material not covered yet.

Sea-Land had way over 100 Vietnamese working directly for them and almost 200 at the peak. U.S. intelligence people were well aware of how fast and efficient the local grapevine was. The Vietnamese are known to never forget or forgive when a very serious offence is committed. How do you think the mechanics working under Mr. X felt? They didn't all quit because they had families to feed and it was not easy to get another job. Keeping Mr. X on the payroll did not make for good morale, but was a psychological slap in the face, arrogance, a reflection of what the company thought of Asian lives.

Americans complained when local people stole, but they set a bad example and taught them new ways. It is not inconceivable that 40 Americans might have stolen more in total dollar value than 150 Vietnamese. A full investigation would uncover amazing corruption on our side, too.

It is ironic that R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. owns Sea-Land and also makes a profit from Chun King Oriental foods sold mostly to Westerners. Few people were aware of The Sea-Land Story and Reynolds says "Chun King products - sold in both canned and frozen varieties - continued to be the nation's leader in the Oriental foodline in 1973." R. J. Reynolds is the leading tobacco company.

R. J. Reynolds is the leading tobacco company, exporting health hazard cigarettes and other products to more than 100 countries and it's transportation subsidiary, Sea-Land, "operates" in over 40 countries around the world. Sea-Land used Vietnam as a training ground for Supervisory personnel. Those that survived the whims of the company (turnover was unbelievable) were usually transferred to other countries, sometimes against their volition. One Supervisor who had been involved in one death and two injured (all Asians) was shifted around to Singapore, Indonesia, Hong Kong and then Japan where he finally had to go because of a personality conflict with his boss.

Dear [Redacted]

Re my November 30, 1974 letter, I have not received any indication that you intend to comply with the request that the proposed resolution will be included in your proxy material. Enclosed is an extra copy of the letter. I am also sending a copy to the NYSE.

On November 23, 1974 I wrote to [Redacted] asking where and when I may see the stockholder register. My letter was never answered. If you have reasons for not wanting shareholders to see the register, I will settle (for the current time) for a list of only the major owners -- believe there are about 170 institutions holding approximately 4,858,607 shares.

Dear [Redacted]

I just received the letter from your [Redacted] dated January 6, 1975. Your records are incomplete. I am an R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. stockholder. Purchase was made (and stock held) by Hornblower & Weeks, account number [Redacted]. Since your records are incomplete, you may contact my broker to verify that I am a security holder. His full address is shown below on distribution and this authorizes the release of information on my account.

Again, I request that my resolution and supporting statement, as outlined in my November 30, 1974 letter, be included in the Company's proxy statement for the 1975 annual meeting. Please advise printing date and confirm that my proposal will be included, without further delay.

Sincerely,

Dear [Redacted]

Today I received [Redacted] letter of January 22 and [Redacted] letters of January 27 and 28, 1975.

1-On January 15, 1975 I wrote to Hornblower & Weeks requesting that a statement be sent to you, [Redacted] advising of my status as a stockholder. You should have received this statement by now. It would seem that [Redacted] uncomplicated letter of January 27, 1975 would supersede [Redacted] complex demands of Hornblower & Weeks. However, in the event that the statement is not worded exactly as you want it, a second certification will be issued. [Redacted] could have helped you make the proxy material available to the printers sooner by sending copies of their January 22 and/or 27 letters to Hornblower & Weeks. My January 15, 1975 letter provided the complete, full address and authorized the release of information on my account. The failure to copy in the brokerage firm would tend to take up more time in getting a reply back to you, which subtracts from the 'time extension.'

2-Re the printing schedule. My proposal dates back to November 30, 1974. If my "...Proposal is not now timely..." there is considerable documentation to support that this situation is not my fault. In fact, when I made the original stock purchase I specified in writing that it be held in my name rather than "street name." I am willing to take your word that my name does not appear on your stockholder register even though you were not willing to accept my January 15, 1975 statement that I am, indeed, a security holder. Why my name does not appear in your records gets into the bigger area of problems involving Wall Street, millions of individual investors and the current system being used, but thanks to [Redacted] of the SEC this may not be important now in this case.

3-On November 23, 1974 I wrote RJR [Redacted] When and where I, as a stockholder, might see the stockholder register. No answer.

4-Re [Redacted] January 22, 1975 letter. My "concern over Sea-Land's performance in 1973" is but one of a multitude of reasons why I believe that my proposal is to the benefit of the stockholders and RJR. There is a limitation on the size of supporting statements. If you were aware of ALL that is involved you, too, might favor the resolution.

Sincerely

Dear [Redacted]

About 2 years ago I paid only 6 cents per page for reproductions from the SEC - they used Leasco Systems & Research Corp. Now the SEC is charging 15 cents - same contractor, Leasco. Does this mean inflation is running 150%?, or that it is time to get rid of Leasco and have contractors bid for the job?, or is it a conspiracy to circumvent the Freedom Of Information Act by charging exorbitant "reasonable" fees? Perhaps the 94th Congress should look into this.

Since RJR prides itself on efficiency and does not suffer from 150% inflation and probably could have below reports printed in quantity which is cheaper than paying 4 or 5 cents per "Xerox" page, and assuming that you are not trying to turn this into a profitable business, .10 cents per page should be more than adequate to cover handling costs. Your attempt to stick stockholders with an $18.50 charge for 74 sheets of paper staggers the imagination.

Dear Senator Inouye:

I am sending the attached to you first because you are not afraid to challenge big business when it misuses power. This has been on my mind for years and I have decided to act now. I will not rest until I know that all 535 members of the 94th Congress have had an opportunity to know of what is going on. Please have it entered, in part or in full, in the Congressional Record - or it's Extensions of Remarks. If there is some technical reason why this cannot be done I will have copies printed and sent to each of the other 534 members. This would cost me $89.20 for printing, $8.68 for envelopes and $42.72 for stamps.

In the event that you or others might want to make an investigation, I would be able to work on it without charge for services. Willing to testify under oath and take a polygraph test. ~~A lie detector test is not legal evidence, but can help establish credibility of a witness.~~ The multibillion dollar corporation could attempt to discredit me.

I had been with Sea-Land for over 6 years and I am well versed in their activities. I could work with the GAO, IRS, CID, Treasury Department, Justice Department or other agencies. Would even be willing to conduct the investigation alone after learning what types of activities Congress would be most interested in and given investigative authority.

There are no restrictions on the use of this letter, the attachment or my name, but the below address is limited to government officials only. Below is not a residence or business but a re-mail point. I am in Canada for a short visit and will set up a new residence later this year. I will gladly go to Washington or any other place (including Asia) to meet with interested officials. Available immediately.

Sincerely,

[Redacted] memorandum to the Director, dated 7/20/73, summarizing the Congressional Record 7/19/73, contained a paragraph relating remarks of Congressman Robert F. Drinan (D-Mass.) concerning testimony he intended to deliver before the Senate Armed Forces Committee opposing appointment of William E. Colby as Director of CIA.

Drinan said that Colby approves of a secret FBI-CIA arrangement by which both agencies agree to help each other. Drinan declared that as a member of the House Judiciary Committee with direct oversight of the Department of Justice and the FBI (sic) he felt that he has the right to see that document and to question those who wrote it and those who operate by it; that the Congress should review the agreement between the CIA and FBI which was drawn up some years ago.

The Director indicated that he would like to see any such document as referred to by Drinan.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller
Re: Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)
Operations in the United States

In connection with the 1966 letter to CIA, a memorandum was also prepared which enclosed an SAC letter (SAC Letter 66-10) which apprised the field background and ground rules which both the CIA and FBI had accepted as guidelines for effecting necessary coordination relating to CIA's operational activities in the United States. A copy of the memorandum and SAC letter are attached.

Contrary to the inference which can be drawn from Congressman Drinan's remarks that the FBI and CIA are acting outside the scope of their lawful missions, the above-mentioned agreements simply establish and delineate CIA's foreign intelligence responsibilities when such responsibilities require activity within the United States. There are no hidden meanings or unlawful arrangements contained in the ground rules. No purely domestic operations are permitted or agreed to on the part of CIA, and over the years the ground rules have worked exceedingly well.

Since the operational ground rules relate to the highly sensitive area of development and control of foreign intelligence agents targeted against hostile intelligence services, there should be no public review of these agreements.

PURPOSE:

To provide Assistant Director background regarding appearance of Mr. Colby.

RECOMMENDATION: (OGA info unclass per 3-2-10 ref resp)

None. For information.

DETAILS:

Enclosed is a biographic summary of Mr. Colby's career.

He was contacted by Special Agent (SA) [Redacted] Washington Field Office (WFO), during the normal course of counterintelligence business. Upon recontact SA [Redacted] asked Mr. Colby to autograph his book Honorable Men and solicited his interest in being a guest speaker. Mr. Colby accepted. The date was changed to October 6, 1980, to accommodate the Director's schedule.

DE-69 94-69720-1

Mr. Colby was apprised of the Intelligence Division (INTD) guest lecturer program. For your information this program, when initiated, had three goals 1) education of INTD supervisors 2) to provide a surcease from the hectic operational pace 3) to address broad counterintelligence concerns that transcended a supervisor's particular speciality in the hope of dispelling prejudices toward particular types of counterintelligence work. None of these goals have been fully met by the INTD guest lecture program.

Memorandum from [redacted] to [redacted]
Re: Appearance of Mr. William E. Colby, October 6, 1980

DETAILS: (continued)

About four guest lecturers are presented each year. They have included a Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) psychiatrist, National Foreign Assessment Center strategists on Soviet foreign policy, several Directorate chiefs from CIA, and several defectors.

All Headquarters Divisions and WFO have been invited to send SAs to hear Mr. Colby address "Intelligence in the 1980s."

MR. WILLIAM E. COLBY

NY
Mr. Colby was born in St. Paul, Minnesota, in 1920. He attended Princeton University from which he graduated in 1940. During World War II, Mr. Colby served as a paratroop commander in France and Norway. He also served with the Office of Strategic Service, the precursor of the Central Intelligence Agency. He was awarded the Bronze Star, the Silver Star, the Croix de guerre, and the St. Olaf's medal for his World War II exploits.

Japan
At the end of World War II, Mr. Colby attended Columbia University in New York from whence he graduated with an LLB degree in 1947. For two years in New York City, Mr. Colby practiced law and then joined the Central Intelligence Agency.

His Central Intelligence Agency postings included attache at the American Embassy, Stockholm, Sweden, and attache at the American Embassy, Rome, Italy, until 1958. From 1959 to 1962, Mr. Colby served as Chief of Station of the American Embassy, Saigon. He returned from Vietnam in 1962 to become Chief of Central Intelligence Agency's Far East Division from 1962 to 1967. He again returned to Saigon and in 1972 returned to Langley Headquarters to assume the job of Comptroller of Central Intelligence Agency. In 1973 he was appointed Deputy Director for Operations, and from 1973 to 1976, he was Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Va
Mr. Colby has received several prestigious intelligence awards. His remarkable career has spanned crisis periods in our nation's history and in his professional life, Mr. Colby has earned distinction as a soldier, an intelligence officer, and as a lawyer.

Mr. Colby is married and has four children. Currently, he practices law in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Colby will lecture on the topic, "Intelligence in the 1980s."

ENCLOSURE 94-69720-X

Colby Is Sworn In as CIA Director

By Lou Cannon

Washington Post Staff Writer

President Nixon watched the swearing-in of his new Central Intelligence Agency director yesterday and then made one request: He wanted to learn what was "going to happen" from the CIA rather than reading about it in the newspapers.

"That is a very direct charge," replied William E. Colby, the man who once directed the American pacification program in Vietnam.

Mr. Nixon praised Colby, 53, as "a true professional" and a "Distinguished public servant."

His appointment has met with, I would say, almost universal acclaim . . . and with a very overwhelming vote in the Senate," the President said. "I would point out, too, that his career of service in the CIA is not as well known as most, because, as we all know, in that particular organization your successes usually must remain unknown and your failures become known."

The Minnesota-born Colby was known as "the professional's professional" within the CIA. He rose through the ranks after a World War II career with the Office of Strategic Services that included parachute drops into occupied France and Norway.

The oath-taking ceremony in the President's oval office was witnessed by members of Colby's family, Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger, Secretary of State-designate Henry A. Kissinger and Admiral Thomas H. Moorer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The oath was administered by U.S. District Judge George L. Hart Jr.

In a brief response Colby pledged that the CIA would seek to serve "in protecting our national security and welfare."

"Take it as a major charge to fulfill both meanings of the word 'intelligence,'" Colby said. "The one is the official meaning of an intelligence organization . . . but the second meaning is the application of the human quality of intelligence to be able to analyze facts and come out with assessments and judgments about them."

Mr. Nixon recalled that he had first met Colby when he was directing the pacification program in Vietnam. The hard work of Colby and others, the President said, had succeeded "in building South Vietnam into a viable peacetime country." The President nominated Colby last May to succeed

Schlesinger, who replaced Richard Helms, the CIA chief under President Johnson whom Mr. Nixon made ambassador to Iran.

The swearing-in ceremony was the first official business since Mr. Nixon returned early Saturday from a two-week trip to Key Biscayne and San Clemente. Mr. Nixon met Saturday morning with Vice President Spiro Agnew and with counsellor Melvin R. Laird.

White House officials predicted throughout Mr. Nixon's stay in California that a "more visible President" would soon be in the offing. But at the daily White House briefing yesterday, White House spokesman Gerald L. Warren insisted that published and televised reports of scheduled appearances were premature.

Decisions have not yet been reached on Mr. Nixon's next public appearances or when he will hold another news conference, Warren said.

Warren did announce that Mr. Nixon would hold a cabinet meeting this week and also would meet with Republican congressional leaders.

Another meeting that is under consideration is a session with GOP state chairmen, who will be in Washington this Sunday to attend a meeting of the Republican National Committee.

Mr. Nixon returned to the White House at 10:15 p.m. Monday and spent his first evening there since Aug. 16. He escaped the weekend heat at Camp David with his family and close friend Charles (Bebe) Rebozo.

Aides said that Mr. Nixon swam every day in the pool, walked in the woods, watched movies and saw the Sunday broadcast of the football game between the Washington Redskins and the New England Patriots.

The President announced yesterday that he will nominate Vice Chairman George H. Hearn of Brooklyn, N.Y., for a new five-year term on the Federal Maritime Commission.

Hearn, a Democrat, has served since 1964 in the $38,000-a-year post.

President Nixon congratulates new CIA Director William E. Colby before White House swearing-in ceremony. Looking on are Mrs. Colby and Judge George L. Hart.

Nixon's Choice to Head the C.I.A.

William Egan Colby

WASHINGTON, May 10—William Egan Colby, named today as the new chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, is one of the few professionals to rise to the top of a major Government department: He is a career clandestine operative.

The 53-year-old Mr. Colby's involvement with intelligence work dates to 1943, when, responding to a call for French-speaking volunteers, he joined the Office of Strategic Services, the forerunner of the C.I.A., and parachuted behind enemy lines in France to join a Resistance unit.

He continued his O.S.S. service through the rest of the war, then took time to obtain a law degree from Columbia University and work in the New York City law firm, headed by Maj. Gen. William S. Donovan, the former head of the O.S.S. He joined the C.I.A. in 1950. Except for a brief interval as deputy and then chief United States adviser to the pacification program in South Vietnam, Mr. Colby has been with the agency ever since.

Since March 3, he has been the agency's deputy director of operations, the head of its clandestine services, known otherwise as the "Department of Dirty Tricks." He had been executive director-controller of the agency since January, 1972, six months after he returned from Saigon, where he had succeeded Robert W. Komer as the director of the United States phase of the South Vietnamese Government's pacification program. Mr. Komer, now with the Rand Corporation here, describes Mr. Colby as "a professional's professional—outstandingly capable."

Mr. Colby's involvement with the pacification program was well-known, particularly after he testified about the controversial Operation Phoenix—an antissubversion program—before a House subcommittee in the summer of 1971. Much less is known about his other assignments.

His official biography shows him on "the staff" of the United States Embassy in Stockholm in 1951, and notes that he "served" in the Embassy in Rome from 1953 to 1958. In 1959, he began his involvement with Vietnam, with the title of First Secretary of the Embassy in Saigon.

He was working for the C.I.A., eventually becoming Saigon station chief, and he returned to the agency's McLean, Va., headquarters in 1962 as chief of the Far East Division, which means, in effect, the man in charge of the agency's operations in Vietnam.

The known facts of Mr. Colby's life outside the agency are few. He was born Jan. 4, 1920, in St. Paul, the son of an Army officer. Much of his childhood was spent at Army posts. He graduated from Princeton in 1940, joined the Army the next year, and served in the parachute field artillery until that 1943 call for volunteers for the O.S.S.

He and his wife, the former Barbara Heinzen, live in a Washington suburb. They are, according to friends, devout Roman Catholics, a faith that sustained them after the recent death of a 19-year-old daughter, one of five children.

His personality, by all accounts, is suitable for a man of his calling—"attractive, low-key, almost deliberately anti-charismatic," Mr. Komer said. "Very soft-spoken, unexuberant, very careful," said another man who had had contact with him in Vietnam.

Opinion Differs
He is a man whose life has been the agency's since leaving college. Mr. Komer sees this as an advantage, since he is known and respected among the professionals; others see it as less benign, tending toward making the agency more of a sovereign state. "The first rule is to protect the organization," said one man who views Mr. Colby's appointment skeptically.

The thin, bespectacled Mr. Colby is, however, perhaps the only C.I.A. official ever to have testified on the record, which he did during a Congressional investigation of the "Operation Phoenix" program. He conceded that there had been "occasional abuses," such as political assassinations and the killing of civilian suspects, but maintained that the program was "an essential part of the war effort."

Mr. Komer said that Mr. Colby was a "deep believer in the other war, trying to help the people." Others describe him as an "absolutely committed hard-line Vietnam veteran," a man to whom the ends of the agency justify any means.

GROOMED BY HELMS

Old CIA Hands

Laud Colby Move

Star-News Staff Writer

Earlier this week the Central Intelligence Agency, still somewhat demoralized by the bureaucratic house cleaning ordered by its new director, James R. Schlesinger, was shaken by disclosures that the agency had helped Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt in an illegal domestic espionage mission.

Called to account in Congress, Schlesinger admitted the 1971 association with Hunt was "ill-advised" and promised such things would never happen again. And he strongly implied that his predecessor, Richard M. Helms, the career agent ousted from the CIA directorship early in President Nixon's second term, was partly to blame.

Today, with congressional hearings still pending, Helms' administration stands partly vindicated. With the sudden transfer of Schlesinger to the Pentagon, the new CIA director-designate turns out to be the very man Helms himself was quietly grooming as his successor: William E. Colby.

The announcement that Colby, a veteran agent who is the CIA's ranking expert on Vietnam, would step up to the directorship from his post as director of clandestine operations, drew uniform praise from old agency hands.

'S professional' was the way one old hand summed it up. The consensus was that no more fitting a successor to Helms himself could have been found — despite the bureaucratic house-cleaning

Phoenix, with its highly publicized and exaggerated body counts of Vietcong killed by its South Vietnamese operatives, gained a widespread reputation as an organization of political assassination. This could inject controversy into Colby's confirmation hearings in the Senate.

BUT FOR CORDS operatives in the field, little of that oort of reputation has rubbed off on the slight, bespectacled and self-effacing Colby who created little lore, and even close associates had trouble thinking of an anecdote to illustrate his style.

The most characteristic one perhaps was related by Colby's former boss Komer:

Colby, on loan to the State Department from the CIA, was extremely reluctant to inherit Komer's colonial scale house in Saigon and chauffeur-driven car when he took over as chief deputy in the CORDS program in November 1968.

He even felt uneasy with the title ambassador, Komer recalls, and agreed to accept the title, house and car only when it was pointed out to him that the Vietnamese nominally running the program would think he was down-graded if the trappings of Komer's lifestyle were not maintained. "He still made one mistake," Komer recalled. "He didn't keep my Chinese cook."

HELMS, like Colby, stepped up to the CIA directorate from the directorship of clandestine operations.

Despite in-house elation at seeing an insider resume control at the CIA, informed observers feel that the main lines of the modernization Schlesinger began will remain — if only because Colby was virtually the only charter member of the old-line intelligence club to be promoted under Schlesinger's tenure.

"If he has the mandate to keep on cutting down staff, he'll dh it," one associate from Vietnam days predicted. "He has that ruthlessness."

UNDER Schlesinger, a staff cut-back of five to ten percent of the agency's 15,000 employes was well underway, and during Schlesinger's first few weeks in office, a whole group of old-line professionals who had been close to Helms were fired.

The actual direction the Colby regime will take probably will not become known for many months. But a few surface indications could appear immediately if Colby decides in the name of professional tradition to undo some of the minute changes of style Schlesinger has ordered in his first few months as director.

Changing "plans" to "operations" was one. Another was even more symbolic: When you telephone the agency's central switchboard now, the operator no longer answers with a recital of the number you have just dialed. She says, "Central Intelligence." Such candor has been unheard of for the past ten years at least.

Schlesinger had carried out in recent months.

Less reverently, Colby's coming could be described as the re-establishment of the "old-boy network" that has dominated the agency since its beginning in 1947 and which Schlesinger, for reasons of ideology as well as economy, had been instructed to dismantel.

A Yale graduate, a World War II alumnus of Gen. William (Wild Bill) Donovan's Office of Strategic Services who twice parachuted behind enemy lines, Colby, 53, is probably best known as an architect of the pacification program in Vietnam in the late 1960s.

DETACHED from the CIA to serve under the controversial Robert Komer in Vietnam right after TET 1968, Colby quickly made a name for himself as the rare official in that frustrating, endless war "who always listened to what you had to say and always followed through when he promised something," as a province adviser who served under him recalled yesterday.

The pacification program, or Civil Operations and Rural Development Support (CORDS), despite the controversy that surrounded its counter-insurgency offshoot program, Phoenix, was one of the few American operations in Vietnam whose participants occasionally believed they were accomplishing something.
