Enclosure(s)
As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

(i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.

(ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests on individuals:

(i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual’s name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.

(ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

(iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

(i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.

(ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.

(iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

(iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

AN INDICES CHECK AT WASHINGTON FIELD REVEALED WASHINGTON FIELD FILE 9-4070, CAPTIONED "UNSUB, AKA IRVING GROSSMAN, HARRY GROSSMAN, SAM VOgel; EXTORTION." A REVIEW OF THAT FILE REVEALED THE FOLLOWING:

A STAGE PLAY IN WASHINGTON, D.C. (WDC) STARRING __________ RECEIVED A NUMBER OF THREATENING CALLS FROM AN INDIVIDUAL IDENTIFYING HIMSELF AS IRVING GROSSMAN. ON MAY 27, 1977, CONTACT WITH U.S. SECRET SERVICE, ADVISED THAT THEIR ORGANIZATION HAS MAINTAINED FILES ON GROSSMAN FOR SOME TIME AND IS CLASSIFIED AS A "NUT" CALLER. ADVISED THAT A CHECK OF U.S. SECRET SERVICE RECORDS REFLECT THAT GROSSMAN WAS LAST ARRESTED ON MARCH 16, 1977, BY NASSAU COUNTY POLICE, FOR THREATENING A HOSTAGE WHO WAS RELEASED FROM THE HANAFI TAKEOVER IN WDC.

FURTHER STATED THAT IN NOVEMBER, 1975, GROSSMAN CONTACTED VARIOUS POLICE DEPARTMENTS AND INDIVIDUALS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY, ADVISING THAT HE WAS INVOLVED WITH THE ASSASSINATION OF MARTIN LUTHER KING AND JOHN F. as BASIL CORNFIELD, LESTER CORNFIELD, BAYNORTH, and gave fictitious New Orleans and Los Angeles addresses. In every call, an unknown subject (using) made references to KENNEDY assassination and/or MARTIN LUTHER KING assassination and has threatened to kill the person to whom he was attempting to place a call with. It is noted that each victim has been a known public figure whose names are commonly seen in newspapers and magazines. To date, no information has been received indicating CORNFIELD has personally appeared at the offices involved; however, in many cases CORNFIELD has attempted to make appointments with some of the individuals involved.

On May 26, 1977, FBI Headquarters received information from the Jacksonville Division which a similar case had been worked in which an individual named IRVING GROSSMAN had made statements to an informant regarding the KENNEDY assassination.

An indices check at Washington Field was made of Washington Field file 9-4070, captioned "HARRY GROSSMAN, HARRY GROSSMAN, HARRY GROSSMAN, HARRY GROSSMAN, SAM YOGL, EXTENSION 6450" of that file revealed the following:

[Partial text missing]

stage play in Washington, D.C. and a number of threats were made by an individual identifying himself as IRVING GROSSMAN.

The following day, another call was received from an individual identifying himself as SAM YOGL, 315 Beverly Hills Road, at which time he advised that he was going to kill [redacted].

A number of additional calls were made by this same individual, again identifying himself as IRVING GROSSMAN, 3536 Hull Avenue, Bronx, New York, apartment 1G (Telephone (212) 861-9414).

The above phone number was called by an associate of [redacted] who spoke with a woman who identified herself as IRVING GROSSMAN, and she described [redacted] as a "sick person" and advised that he had just been released from the hospital. She identified [redacted] as a friend.
On January 5, 1977, New Rochelle interviewed who advised that IRVING was living at home and had recently been released from Gracie Square Hospital, New York City (NYC), about two months ago, where he had been committed by them.

In view of GROSSMAN's mental instability, no interview was conducted.

An airtel dated August 26, 1976, from Director to SAC, Albany, and all offices, entitled "IRVING GROSSMAN, aka HARRY GROSSMAN, SAM VOGEL, ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, DALLAS, TEXAS," advised as follows:

GROSSMAN has used the same method of operation (MO) in which he alleges involvement or information pertaining to the KENNEDY assassinations. It also states that GROSSMAN has a penchant for calling long distance and talking with persons whose names he has seen in the newspaper. It should also be mentioned that one of the addresses used in captioned case, 215 Beverly Hill Road, was also used in the GROSSMAN case.

On May 27, 1977, contact with advised that their organization has maintained files on GROSSMAN for some time and is classified as a "nut" caller. advised that a check of U.S. Secret Service records reflect that GROSSMAN was last arrested on March 16, 1977, by Nassau County Police, for threatening a hostage who was released from the Hanafi takeover in WDC.

further stated that in November, 1975, GROSSMAN contacted various police departments and individuals throughout the country, advising that he was involved with the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING and JOHN F. KENNEDY. Other information developed was that GROSSMAN would periodically call the White House and ask for the President, or call other distinguished individuals such as EDWARD KENNEDY, SUSAN FORD, RICHARD NIXON, ETC. GROSSMAN was interviewed by U.S. Secret Service and admitted making the calls.
WFO 89-506

On May 27, 1977, SA U.S. Secret Service advised their NYC Office of the Information pertaining to GROSSMAN and requested that U.S. Secret Service Agents be present at the time GROSSMAN was interviewed.

The following individuals have been victimized by captioned individual:

- April 23, 1977,
- April 25, 1977,
- April 29, 1977,
- May 5, 1977,
- May 6, 1977,
- May 7, 1977,
- May 9, 1977,
- May 11, 1977,
- May 12, 1977,
- May 13, 1977, WILLIAM C. LIEDTKI, JR., President of Pennzoil (Houston); and
- May 14, 1977, HUGH LIEDTKE, Chairman of the Board, Pennzoil (Houston).
Washington Field is awaiting the results of interview of GROSSMAN and will advise all offices of the information. Washington Field has also obtained subpoena for toll records on GROSSMAN.

All offices involved should disseminate above information to interested police departments and insure that WFO receives copies of all correspondence in this matter.

On June 10, 1977, at 1:30 a.m., United States Secret Service Agents and located IRVING GROSSMAN at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. GROSSMAN voluntarily accompanied the Agents to the United States Secret Service office at Cambridge, Massachusetts.
IRVING GROSSMAN, 3536 Hull Avenue, Bronx, New York, was interviewed by Special Agents (SAs) [redacted], at the United States Secret Service Office, Cambridge, Massachusetts. SA [redacted] advised IRVING GROSSMAN that he and SA [redacted] were Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and they desired to interview GROSSMAN regarding interstate threatening telephone calls. SA [redacted] read GROSSMAN his Constitutional Rights as set forth on the "Advice and Waiver of Rights" form. GROSSMAN stated he understood his rights and desired to waive them. IRVING GROSSMAN then read the "Advice and Waiver of Rights" form, stated he understood his rights and desired to waive them. He then signed the form and furnished the following information:

IRVING GROSSMAN advised that since April, 1977, to date, he has been making threatening telephone calls to prominent persons throughout the United States. He said that in every case he would attempt to get an appointment with these persons to talk about his pre-determined knowledge of the KENNEDY assassination and, when they would not give him an appointment, he would threaten to kill them and their families.

Mr. GROSSMAN said that he recalled on June 8, 1977, he made a long-distance telephone call to [redacted]. In order to make this call, Mr. GROSSMAN said he called the long-distance operator from a pay phone and told the operator that he had been talking with [redacted] and had been disconnected. The operator would then put the call through. Mr. GROSSMAN stated that whenever he made any long-distance, threatening telephone calls he would not pay for them, he would merely call the Long-Distance Operator and tell her he had gotten disconnected. Mr. GROSSMAN said that, on every occasion, the operator would put through his call. In regard to [redacted], Mr. GROSSMAN said he got the long-distance operator to put him through to her on two occasions.
The first call he talked to her husband and, on the second call, he talked to himself. He recalls telling on the phone that he would kill her and her family. Mr. GROSSMAN said that when he called he used the name ALEX NORTH. He explained that he knew it was wrong and against the law to make threatening long-distance calls so, in order not to get caught, he used false names. Mr. GROSSMAN stated that he has used the aliases of SAM VOGEL, BASIL CORNFIELD, ALEX NORTH and ALEXANDER NORTH when making threatening telephone calls, in the past. Mr. GROSSMAN said he would get the names of the people he called from newspapers or out of magazines. He said that these numbers were listed or easily obtained from Long Distance Information Operator. He stated that he could not remember if he called from Boston or New York.

IRVING GROSSMAN stated that very often, when he made a threatening telephone call to a prominent person and threatened to kill that person, he would give the address of 215 Beverly Hills Road, Beverly Hills, California, or 215 New Orleans Drive, New Orleans, Louisiana. He said that both these addresses were fictitious.

Mr. GROSSMAN said that on June 6, 1977, he was briefly visiting his parents in New York and, on that date, made a threatening telephone call to said he made the call from a downtown Manhattan pay telephone booth, and he used the name ALEX NORTH. GROSSMAN stated that he recalled speaking to secretary and he told the secretary that he would kill

IRVING GROSSMAN said he could not recall whether or not he made telephone calls to ; WILLIAM LIEDTKE, Houston, Texas; GROSSMAN said he usually makes one or two telephone calls a day and it is impossible to recall all the people he called.
IRVING GROSSMAN stated that he did recall calling [name], and threatening to kill [name]. He said he made this call from a pay phone at the Penn Central Railroad Station in New York City. GROSSMAN said that on the same day that he called [name], he also called [name] of the Justice Department from the Penn Central Railroad Station. GROSSMAN said that he did not find [name] name in a newspaper. He said he was familiar with [name] name and thought everyone knew who [name] was. GROSSMAN said he threatened [name] but could not recall his exact words.

Mr. GROSSMAN advised that he could recall that he saw the name of [name] in the "New York Times" and decided to call her. GROSSMAN stated he called her from a pay phone on Wall Street, New York City, and when she would not meet him, he told her he would kill her.

IRVING GROSSMAN said that he made a long-distance telephone call to [name] also and threatened to kill [name]. GROSSMAN said he made the call from a Wall Street New York, pay booth.

IRVING GROSSMAN said that he recalled calling [name] from Boston, and when he made the call he felt very hostile regarding [name]. GROSSMAN said he made the call from a pay phone, the exact location which he could not recall. He said he threatened to kill [name] because he would not meet with him.

Mr. GROSSMAN said that he made a long-distance telephone call from Boston to [name] and left a message for [name] that he was going to kill him. This call was made from a pay phone in the Boston area and, like all the other calls, was made by telling the Long-Distance Operator that he had been disconnected.

IRVING GROSSMAN said he could clearly recall telephoning long distance to [name] because he was able to talk with both [name]. He said he threatened to kill them both and he made the call from a telephone booth in Boston.
IRVING GROSSMAN said he recalled making a long-distance call through the operator to _______. He said that he told the operator that he was disconnected and was very surprised and happy when the operator put his call through, all the way to Newport Beach, California. GROSSMAN said he made the call from Boston but could not recall if he talked with or his Secretary. GROSSMAN said that in either event he did threaten to kill _______.

Mr. GROSSMAN recalled that on May 23, 1977, he made a long-distance telephone call from Boston, Massachusetts, and threatened to kill _______. Also, from Boston, Massachusetts, he recalled threatening to kill _______. He said he made the call to _______ from Boston after reading _______ name in the "New York Times."

In addition to the above calls, Mr. GROSSMAN stated that he recalled making a long-distance telephone call from New York City to Washington, D. C. and threatening to kill _______. He made the call after _______ refused to meet with him. The telephone call was made from a Wall Street, New York City, pay phone.

In regard to the threatening telephone calls he made, Mr. GROSSMAN explained that he sincerely believes that he was in possession of pre-determined knowledge regarding the assassination of the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY and that he told the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) of the assassination plot before President KENNEDY was assassinated. Mr. GROSSMAN said that he now suffers from voices within his head and, when these voices come into his head, he feels compelled to call prominent people in order to make an appointment to tell them about his prior knowledge of the assassination of President KENNEDY. IRVING GROSSMAN said that whenever one of these prominent persons who he calls refuses to meet with him, he immediately becomes hostile and threatens to kill the individual and the individual's family. GROSSMAN said he made these long-distance calls by telling the Long-Distance Operator that he had been disconnected from the party who he intended to call. GROSSMAN would then demand to be re-connected at no charge. Mr. GROSSMAN said that invariably the operator would connect him to the party he wished to call, and GROSSMAN would not have to pay for the call.
IRVING GROSSMAN said that the voices he hears in his head are those of his schoolmates when he was a youth. GROSSMAN said he hears the voices of

New Small Hotels Thrive Among Giants in Cities
By Emphasizing Personal Service and Intimacy

By HANAN S. BRULIN
Staff Reporter of THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

A Chicago executive found himself in a mob of convention goers at an 1,600-room hotel. He had 30 minutes to check in, he said, and 10 minutes to squeeze into a crowded elevator, only to find then that he was 20 minutes late. His hotel, however, is much smaller, where he got much better service.

For the likes of the Chicago executive, that elegant small hotels are enjoying a re-birth in the U.S., as an alternative to the big chain establishments. Small hotels traditionally finished outside the big cities, and the 1305 Rodger's and Hart song "There's a Small Hotel" helped to romanticize them. (Although an inn in New Jersey says it was the one lyricist Loren Hart had in mind, Richard Rodgers's autobiography, "Easy Steps," says the hotel in the song was just 'an idealized country inn.')

Today's small hotels, however, are being opened in major cities, sometimes right in the midst of their giant competitors. The belief is that the personalized approach seeking to emulate the one little hotels of Europe, and they often advertise the "Europe-style" of living.

An Acquired Taste

A few small hotels like the Aigeanquin in New York have long been preferred by many a room wasn't ready. He likes the personal touch, the staff, the style of the hotel.
