FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter, the FBI FOIPA Addendum includes information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. If you submitted a request regarding yourself or another person, Part 2 includes additional standard responses that apply to requests for individuals. If you have questions regarding the standard responses in Parts 1 or 2, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." Previously mentioned appeal and dispute resolution services are also available. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records that you may find useful.

Part 1: Standard Responses to All Requests: See Below for all Requests

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the fbi.gov website.
- (ii) National Security/Intelligence Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of national security and foreign intelligence records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) as applicable to requests for records about individuals [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2); 50 U.S.C. § 3024(i)(1)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3); 50 USC § 3024(i)(1). This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that national security or foreign intelligence records do or do not exist.

Part 2: Standard Responses to Requests for Individuals: See Below for all Requests for Individuals

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E) and (b)(7)(F) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching those systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. Most requests are satisfied by searching the Central Record System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled and maintained by the FBI in the course of fulfilling its dual law enforcement and intelligence mission as well as the performance of agency administrative and personnel functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization and encompasses the records of FBI Headquarters ("FBIHQ"), FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices ("Legats") worldwide. A CRS search includes Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records.
- (ii) FBI Records
Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or "Rap Sheets." The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks—often referred to as a criminal history record or "rap sheets." These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative "FBI file." An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) The National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private citizens cannot request a name check.

Subject: Viper Vest

[REDACTED]

My name is [REDACTED] I am an investigator with the US Air Force stationed at FE Warren AFB, Cheyenne, WY. My office is investigating a military member for theft and sale of government property part of which involves a Protective Products Viper Bullet Proof Vest. The information I have obtained from Ebay is that on 19 Mar 01, you purchased a Viper Bullet Proof Vest for [REDACTED] from our subject. It is important for you to understand that the US Government has no intentions nor wishes to pursue any criminal acts other than our military member. My office is asking for your cooperation in returning the property back to military control. I understand you are a distributor, thus may have resold the item in question. If this is the case are you able to provide a serial number which is listed on the inside of the vest and any shipping documents (how it was shipped, who shipped it, when it was shipped, ect...). Thank you for any assistance you may provide in the resolution in this matter.

b6
b7C

Synopsis: Open new case. Leads for Albany, Miami, Phoenix, and St. Louis Divisions.

Enclosures: Enclosed for each receiving office is a copy of a U.S. Air Force (USAF) investigative report.

Details: On 04/03/2002, USAF Staff Sergeant [REDACTED] a Criminal Investigator for the 90th Security Forces Squadron (SFS) at Francis E. Warren Air Force Base (FEWAFB), Wyoming, advised the Cheyenne RA of the facts of this case, and requested FBI assistance, as one subject [REDACTED] is now a civilian and does not fall under military jurisdiction.

b6
b7C

On 04/09/2002, SA [REDACTED] briefed AUSA [REDACTED]
Cheyenne, Wyoming, regarding this case. AUSA [REDACTED] agreed that while the dollar amount of loss is only about $13,000.00, the thefts warrant prosecution because in the wrong hands, some of the items could pose a serious risk to law enforcement. AUSA [REDACTED] advised his office would prosecute [REDACTED] if the evidence supports prosecution.

Re: 52C-DN-NEW, 04/11/2002

On 08/20/2001, FEWAFB personnel discovered the theft of one set of Night Vision Goggles (NVG) from the Alert Fire Team building at FEWAFB. The NVGs are model #PVS7D, serial #02483. These are the latest generation of military night vision equipment, used by USAF armed response teams securing the nuclear missile silos. The NVGs are valued at $5,700. In September, 2001, an inventory of the 90th SFS Supply Room discovered a second set of the same model NVGs, serial #02324, missing. On 08/31/2001, USAF investigators learned that on or about 08/20/2001, USAF Airman [redacted] told his co-workers that in order to pay off a debt to [redacted] Airman [redacted] gave him a set of NVGs that [redacted] stole from the supply room where [redacted] was working. [redacted] then sold the NVGs over the Internet, through the E-Bay auction website.

b7C

[redacted] told USAF investigators that [redacted] had lived with him, in government quarters on FEWAFB for about a month in March-April, 2001, until [redacted] was discharged (for [redacted] from the USAF. During that time, [redacted] stored NVGs, ballistic protective vests, gas masks, and other USAF property, in [redacted] quarters. [redacted] said he knew [redacted] had stolen these items from the supply room on FEWAFB. At some point in the interview, [redacted] terminated his cooperation with USAF investigators and requested an attorney. Because of [redacted] involvement in the theft of USAF property, he is on administrative hold awaiting possible court-martial. [redacted] was [redacted] from the USAF on [redacted] before the discovery of the thefts, and he resides at [redacted] Missouri. On 4/11/02, SA [redacted] contacted USAF Staff Judge Advocate Captain [redacted] concerning gaining the cooperation of [redacted] against [redacted] is exploring that possibility with [redacted] military defense attorney.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

[redacted] a witness interviewed by USAF investigators in December, 2001, said that in September, 2001, [redacted] spouse of [redacted] admitted that her husband, via E-Bay, sold a vest and other USAF property that was given to him by [redacted] who stole them from the supply room.

b6
b7C

In October, 2001, USAF investigators contacted Chesterfield, Missouri Police Detective [redacted] and requested that [redacted] be interviewed, asked a number of specific questions, and that a consent search of the residence for any of the missing items be conducted. According to SSG [redacted] no search was conducted, the specific questions were not answered (or asked), and he received only a short statement from [redacted] that he knew nothing about any thefts. SSG [redacted] telephonically contacted [] in December, 2001, in an effort to gain his cooperation. [] admitted to once seeing [] in possession of NVGs, but denied knowledge of any thefts. Investigators think [] may believe that he is immune from prosecution because he has been discharged from the military. A thorough interview of [] has never been conducted.

Re: 52C-DN-NEW, 04/11/2002

b6
b7C

In February, 2002, the USAF contacted [] of E-Bay's fraud department, and obtained records from E-Bay, concerning the accounts used by []. No E-Bay accounts were found for []. E-Bay records showed the following sales by [] under his various E-Bay accounts:

b6
b7C

03/19/2001: sale of one ballistic vest to [] of GL Distributors, 18459 Pines Boulevard #340, Pembroke Pines, Florida, for $81.00.

b6
b7C

03/22/2001: sale of one set of NVGs model number PVS-7D (unknown serial number), to [] [] Arizona, for $1,560.75.

b6
b7C

10/31/2001: sale of one pair of military issue Gortex pants to [] New York, for $26.17.

10/31/2001: sale of one pair (USAF issue) Danner brand boots, to [] Virginia, for $158.00

b6
b7C

Based on this information, on 02/13/2002, SSG [] contacted Officer [] of the Eagar, Arizona, Police Department for assistance in identifying []. It was determined that [] is an attorney in Eagar, Arizona, who had no connection to that P.O. box, which was assigned to William Cooper. William Cooper was described by Arizona law enforcement as an anti-government activist with his own website and followers who, in an unrelated matter, had recently been in a shoot-out with police and Arizona Department of Public Safety (ADPS) agents, during which a deputy was critically wounded, and Cooper was killed. SSG [] another FEWAFB investigator, advised on 04/11/2002, that according to the ADPS, the NVGs were not found in Cooper's possession or at his residence. SA [] of Phoenix Division, who was familiar with Cooper, advised that Cooper could have sold the NVGs to one of his followers.

b6
b7C

On 3/21/02, USAF investigators telephonically contacted [] who advised he bid $158.00, plus $10.00 shipping, for the Danner boots on the E-Bay auction site on 10/31/01. [redacted] was still at their quarters, but usually stayed with one or more women he associated with. One was a Black female and two were Hispanic females. All three were in the Air Force. b6

[REDACTED] had Internet service and an e-mail address at her government quarters, but she does not recall the address. [REDACTED] said she and her husband will return to Boston as soon as he gets out of the Air Force. She said that is being delayed because he is being "dumped on" by the Air Force for something he didn't do.

(SA [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] if she knew what her husband is under investigation for by the Air Force.) [REDACTED] said she did not know why her husband was being "dumped on" by the Air Force. (SA [REDACTED] explained that her husband is suspected of receiving stolen Air Force property from [REDACTED], then selling it over the Internet, and using her Internet address.) [REDACTED] said she did not know that, but then said her husband did say it was something about selling things over the Internet. She said her husband would never steal, or sell stolen goods. She said he would not take stolen goods from [REDACTED]. The only thing her husband sells is baseball cards. He sells them over the Internet to supplement their income, which is low. She said [REDACTED] is not in good standing with her and [REDACTED] because he lies, and because while staying with them, he once used her credit card to order something without her permission.
