Enclosure(s)

FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

THERE HAVE BEEN ABOUT 15-20 OTHER BURGLARIES IN THE AREA OF THE MATHIAS RESIDENCE, WITHIN THE PAST 2 MONTHS, ACCORDING TO DETECTIVE [REDACTED]. IN SOME CASES, DOORS HAVE BEEN KICKED OR FORCED OPENED, WHILE IN AT LEAST 2 OCCASIONS, ENTRY HAS BEEN MADE THROUGH UNLOCKED WINDOWS. THE VALUE OF PROPERTY, OR CASH, TAKEN IN THESE BURGLARIES RANGES FROM NOTHING IN 3 CASES TO JEWELRY AND FURS IN 2 CASES. IN ONE CASE, 85 CENTS WAS TAKEN. RANSACKINGS HAVE ALSO OCCURRED DURING SOME OF THESE BURGLARIES.

THERE HAVE BEEN AT LEAST 2 OCCASIONS WHERE A BURGLAR WAS SCARED OFF EITHER BY AN ALARM OR THE PRESENCE OF THE HOMEOWNER IN THE HOUSE.

AUSA CAMPBELL EXPRESSED THE DESIRE THAT THE FBI REOPEN THE INVESTIGATION REGARDING THE BURGLARY OF SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE ON THE POSSIBILITY THAT CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS WERE THE ITEMS BEING SOUGHT. ACCORDINGLY, IT WAS AGREED THAT WFO WOULD MAINTAIN A CLOSE LIAISON WITH THE METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT (MPD), WDC, IN ORDER TO MONITER AND ASSIST IN WHATEVER MANNER POSSIBLE THE PROGRESS OF THE MPD INVESTIGATION. LIAISON WAS IMMEDIATELY ESTABLISHED AND HAS BEEN MAINTAINED ON A FREQUENT BASIS THROUGH THE PRESENT TIME WITH MPD DETECTIVE [REDACTED].

EXCEPT WHERE OTHERWISE INDICATED THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION WAS FURNISHED ON A LIAISON BASIS BY THE MPD, WDC, TO WFO AND SUPPLEMENTS THAT INFORMATION ALREADY KNOWN TO THE BUREAU.

ON A DATE SUBSEQUENT TO THE BURGLARY (EXACT DATE UNKNOWN) AN INDIVIDUAL DELIVERED TO SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE A ONE PAGE HAND WRITTEN LETTER ADDRESSED TO "SENATOR ROBERT BAKER". ATTACHED TO IT WAS A 26 PAGE TYPE WRITTEN "MANUSCRIPT" DESCRIBING THIS PERSON'S PLANS RELATED TO HIS ARREST AND INCARCERATION FOR A DRUG OFFENSE. THE LETTER

ALTHOUGH [REDACTED] WAS NOT AND STILL IS NOT CONSIDERED
A SUSPECT IN CAPTIONED MATTER BY EITHER THE MPD OR WFO.
EFFORTS TO LOCATE HIM HAVE MET WITH NEGATIVE RESULTS.
THE MPD IS PROCEEDING WITH ATTEMPTS TO TOTALLY ELIMINATE

[REDACTED] AS EVEN A POSSIBLE SUSPECT BY COMPARING HIS KNOWN FINGERPRINTS (A PRIOR ARREST RECORD FOR [REDACTED] EXECUTED IN WDC) WITH LATENT PRINTS DEVELOPED AT THE CRIME
SCENE WITH BOTH SENATOR BAKER'S AND MATHIAS' RESIDENCES.

REVIEW OF THE REFERENCED BALTIMORE REGARDING THE BURGLARY OF SENATOR MATHIAS' RESIDENCE INDICATES THAT

IT SHOULD ALSO BE NOTED THAT THE BAKER FAMILY REPORTED

A REVIEW OF THE MPD DETAIL OFFENSE REPORT FOR THE PERIOD JANUARY 1, 1975, THROUGH OCTOBER 31, 1975, FOR DISTRICT TWO, BEAT 069, CARNEY BLOCK 239, REFLECTS THE FOLLOWING: IT IS NOTED THAT SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE IS WITHIN THIS AREA AND THE NOTED AREA IS COMPRISED OF ROUGHLY AN EIGHT BLOCK RADIUS FROM THE SENATOR'S HOME. OMIT THE TWO INCIDENTS IN 1975 REGARDING SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE, THE PREVIOUSLY DESCRIBED AREA HAS HAD ELEVEN BURGLARIES IN WHICH NOTHING WAS TAKEN ON FIVE OCCASIONS. ENTRY DURING THESE BURGLARIES WAS VARIED AND NO PARTICULAR PATTERNS OF MODUS OPERANDI HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED. WFO HAS ESTABLISHED LIAISON WITH BOB KELLEY OF SENATOR MATHIAS' STAFF BUT HAS BEEN INFORMED BY KELLEY THAT HOWARD LEIBENGOOD OF THE SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE, IS OUT OF TOWN AND WILL NOT RETURN UNTIL NEXT WEEK. KELLEY SUGGESTED THAT CONTACT BE ESTABLISHED WITH MIKE MATTIGAN ALSO OF THAT COMMITTEE, WHO WORKS CLOSELY WITH LEIBENGOOD. THIS LIAISON HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED AND WILL BE MAINTAINED UNTIL CAPTIONED MATTER IS RESOLVED.

Senator MATHIAS' residence was burglarized sometime between November 7 and 9, 1975. The only items which appeared to be taken were two Swiss 100 franc notes.

Alexandria and Birmingham will refer to enclosed teletypes for background in this matter.

On 11/24/75, [redacted] and HOWARD LEIBENGOOD, Staff members for Senator BAKER, were interviewed by WFO. They advised that Senator BAKER discovered a pair of glasses in his residence after the burglary. BAKER was unable to determine the owner of these glasses, and subsequently turned them over to Detective [redacted], Burglary Squad, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Washington, D.C. (WDC).

b6

At this point, it was stated that [redacted] has a room on the third floor of the Senator's home, which was also ransacked. Approximately one week to ten days ago, [redacted] advised a woman from Senator BAKER's Knoxville Office, who was visiting the Senator's wife, that although most people believe that nothing was taken during the burglary, she, in fact, was missing two cassette tapes and a microphone to a recorder. The contents of these tapes were that of a birthday party, apparently attended by [redacted] and her boy friend, [redacted], and the recording of a "meet the press" interview of Senator of HARRY BIERD.

b6
b7C

It was further noted that on approximately July 18, 1975 or July 19, 1975, Senator BAKER's office received an anonymous telephone call advising his staff that the caller was aware of [redacted] and her boy friend, [redacted]. This anonymous caller made the allegation that [redacted] is, in some way, connected with [redacted] and was formerly involved in [redacted].

b6
b7C

It was noted that [redacted] broke off all relationships with [redacted] for no apparent reason, on approximately November 17, 1975 or November 18, 1975. To date, she refuses to discuss with anyone the reasons and further refuses to speak with [redacted].

b6
b7C

LEIBENGOOD made available a copy of a Western Union Mailgram dated August 6, 1975 and apparently sent from Birmingham, Alabama. Stamped on the face of this Mailgram is the date August 7, 1975 which, according to LEIBENGOOD, indicates the date received in the Senator's office. The Mailgram is addressed to "Honorable HOWARD H. BAKER, U. S. Senator, U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C. 20310" and reads as follows:

WFO 52-16554

"Caution set up possible toothpaste squeeze repaired document in and out safe."

LEIBENGOOD's only explanation was a possible reference to JOHN DEAN when he made reference to JOHN EHRLICHMAN's statement during the Watergate hearings to the effect that once the toothpaste is out of the tube you can't put it back in. He also stated that the Senator's office had received numerous other items of "crank" mail which he considered of no significant value.

Neither [redacted] nor LEIBENGOOD could provide any additional pertinent information regarding the matter of Senator BAKER's burglary.

On 11/25/75, Detective [redacted] made available the enclosed eyeglasses and Brown case to SA [redacted], WFO.

[redacted] advised the right lens of the glasses had been broken when the glasses were accidentally caught in the door of an MPD Cruiser.

A copy of instant communication is being furnished to the Baltimore Division for their information.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to determine the prescription of the eyeglasses and determine any other identifying data concerning the glasses or eyeglass case.

POSSIBLE THEFT OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

The Washington, D.C. (WDC) residence of United States Senator Howard H. Baker, 3224 Woodland Drive, N.W., WDC, was burglarized on August 4 - 5, 1975 by an unknown person(s). Entry to Senator Baker's residence was gained through the removal of a single pane of glass in the french doors located on the lower level in the rear of the structure.

Members of the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) WDC, and the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) conducted preliminary investigation at Senator Baker's home. The unknown subjects were apparently in every room of the house and did varying degrees of damage to each room. The most extensive damage was noted in the master bedroom in which drawers were emptied and the entire room was strewn with papers and clothing. Although jewelry, coins, silver, cameras, and stereo equipment were in plain view, apparently none of these items were taken. Also noted was a small safe in the family room on the lower level which had been overturned and pried open through the bottom.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

SENATOR HOWARD E. BAKER
SENATOR CHARLES MC C MATHIAS, JR.

The crime scene was processed by the MPD, WDC, Mobile Crime Laboratory and several latent prints were recovered from various locations of the house.

Subsequent discussion with the United States Attorney's Office, WDC, reflected that although no Federal Violation was apparent in this matter, it was desired that the FBI maintain close contact with the MPD, WDC, in their investigation. This request was based upon the possibility that classified documents were being sought by the burglars. Liaison has been maintained with the MPD since that time.

On November 10, 1975, Senator Charles McC Mathias reported to the Montgomery County Police Department (MCPD), Maryland, and the Silver Spring Resident Agency, FBI, that his home in Chevy Chase, Maryland had been burglarized between November 7 - 9, 1975. The investigation at Senator Mathias' home by the MCPD disclosed that Mrs. Mathias and their two sons returned to their home at approximately 8:30 p.m., November 9, 1975. It was observed that the french doors in the dining room and a kitchen window were partially open. Also noted were several plants which had been moved from their usual location. Upon Senator Mathias' return on the evening of November 10, 1975, after being apprised by his family of their observations the previous night, he noted that several articles in his bedroom appeared to have been handled or disturbed. The only items apparently taken were two $100 Swiss franc notes, one missing from a drawer in Senator Mathias' bedroom while the other was missing from a drawer in one of his son's bedroom. No sign of a forced entry was noted.

As a result of liaison between the FBI, MPD, and MCPD, the following was determined:

Approximately 15 to 20 burglaries have occurred in the area of the Mathias residence within a two month period immediately preceeding the burglary of Senator Mathias' home. In some cases doors have been kicked or forced open, while on at least two occasions, entry has been made through unlocked windows. The value of property or cash taken in these burglaries ranges from nothing in three burglaries, 85¢ in one case, and jewelry and furs in two instances. Ransacking has also occurred during several of these burglaries.

SENATOR HOWARD H. BAKER
SENATOR CHARLES MC C. MATHIAS, JR.

A review of the MPD detail offense report for the period January 1, 1975 - October 31, 1975 for the area immediately surrounding Senator Baker's residence disclosed that 11 other burglaries occurred in which nothing was taken on five occasions. Entry during these burglaries was varied and no particular pattern of modus operandi was established.

On November 24, 1975 [redacted] and Howard Leibengood, Staff Members for Senator Baker, were interviewed regarding additional information they had which they felt may be pertinent to the investigation. The results of this interview are attached hereto.

b6

Regarding the tinted sun glasses, examination by the FBI Laboratory disclosed that they were non-prescription glasses and, in view of this, no effort to trace the manufacturer has been instituted.

Regarding the cut telephone lines entering Senator Baker's residence, the FBI Laboratory conducted an "electronic sweep" of both Senator Baker's and Senator Mathias' residence and found nothing to indicate the existence of any telephone tap or "bug."

Regarding the statement concerning [redacted] and her boyfriend, [redacted], both individuals have been interviewed, the results of which are attached hereto. It is noted that in the interview of both [redacted] and [redacted], [redacted] has stated that he was employed by [redacted] for several years during the early 1950's.

[redacted] was interviewed at his residence on August 5, 1975 by FBI Special Agents at his request regarding another matter. During the interview it was determined that he was under the care of a doctor for mental problems and stated he had corresponded with numerous politicians in WDC.

SENATOR HOWARD H. BAKER
SENATOR CHARLES MC C MATHIAS, JR.

Investigation has failed to indicate any connection between the burglary of Senator Baker's home and the burglary of Senator Mathias's home.

Subsequent investigation by the MCPD has revealed several young persons in their early teens as prime suspects in that burglary. However, sufficient evidence has not been developed to specifically charge anyone.

[redacted] and HOWARD LEIBENGOOD, staff members for Senator HOWARD BAKER, were interviewed in Senator BAKER's office. Dirksen Building, Washington, D. C.. At this time, [redacted] and LEIBENGOOD furnished the following information which they felt would be pertinent to the FBI investigation in the burglary of Senator BAKER's residence.

b6
b7C

Subsequent to his return to the Washington, D. C. area, Senator BAKER discovered a pair of glasses which appeared to be gray-tinted sunglasses, in his residence. After appropriate inquiries by Senator BAKER, he was unable to determine the owner of these glasses and surmised that the possibility existed that the individual who owns these glasses was actually responsible for the burglary of his residence. These glasses were given to Detective [redacted], Burglary Squad, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Washington, D. C., on approximately August 26, 1975. Subsequent inquiry with [redacted] by LEIBENGOOD has revealed that the MPD has either been unable to or has not attempted to determine the owner of these glasses.

b6
b7C

It was further pointed out that a [redacted] who resides on [redacted] [redacted], in the vicinity of Senator BAKER's residence, had her home burglarized on the same date that Senator BAKER's home was broken into. Neither [redacted] nor LEIBENGOOD had the exact street address of [redacted] available at this time, however, noted that Detective [redacted] had been apprised of this information.

b6
b7C

Upon the Senator's return to the Washington, D. C. area, immediately following the burglary, he observed that a certain old camera he kept in his darkroom, had the lens removed from it. Senator BAKER was certain that the lens was properly in place when he last saw it.

Several weeks after the burglary, [redacted] who is known to the BAKER staff, viewed the safe which had been broken into. It was this individual's impression that the burglar(s) had a certain amount of knowledge about safes in that they attacked it from the weakest point. He noted, however, that they went to great extremes in chopping a hole through the safe's insulation, observing that this was not the mark of a "professional." This individual further noted that three telephone wires entered the Senator's home, while it was apparently necessary for only two wires, in view of the Senator's telephone service.

At this point, it was stated that [redacted] [redacted] has a room on the third floor of the Senator's home and her room was also ransacked. Approximately one week to ten days ago, [redacted] advised a woman from Senator BAKER's Knoxville Office, who was visiting the Senator's wife, that although most people believe that nothing was taken during the burglary, she, in fact, was missing two cassette tapes and a microphone to a recorder. The contents of these tapes were that of a birthday party, apparently attended by [redacted] and her boy friend, [redacted], and the recording of a "Meet the Press" interview of Senator HARRY BYRD.

b7c

It was further noted that on approximately July 18 or 19, 1975, Senator BAKER's office received an anonymous telephone call advising his staff that the caller was aware of [redacted] and her boy friend, [redacted]. This anonymous caller made the allegation that [redacted] is, in some way, connected with [redacted] and was formerly involved in [redacted].

b6
b7c

It was noted that [redacted] broke off all relationships with [redacted] for no apparent reason, on approximately November 17 or 18, 1975. To date, she refuses to discuss with anyone the reasons and further refuses to speak with [redacted].

b6
b7c

LEIBENGOOD made available a copy of a Western Union Mailgram dated August 6, 1975 and apparently sent from Birmingham, Alabama. Stamped on the face of this Mailgram is the date August 7, 1975 which, according to LEIBENGOOD, indicates the date received in the Senator's office. The Mailgram is addressed to "Honorable HOWARD H. BAKER, U. S. Senator, U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C. 20310" and reads as follows:

"Caution set up possible toothpaste squeeze repaired document in and out safe."

LEIBENGOOD's only explanation was a possible reference to JOHN DEAN when he made reference to JOHN EHRLICHMAN's statement during the Watergate hearings to the effect that once the toothpaste is out of the tube, you can't put it back in. He also stated that the Senator's office had received numerous other items of "crank" mail which he considered of no significant value.

Neither [] nor LEIBENGOOD could provide any additional pertinent information regarding the matter of Senator BAKER's burglary.

[redacted] for Senator HOWARD H. BAKER, 3224 Woodland Drive, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), was interviewed at Senator BAKER's residence, in the presence of [redacted], Staff Member for Senator BAKER. She advised that at the time Senator BAKER's home was burglarized, she was in Tennessee with the Senator's family. She stated she had accompanied Mrs. BAKER to Tennessee in June, 1975, where Mrs. BAKER and the family were to spend the summer months. She advised that one or two days after learning of the burglary, she returned to Washington by way of bus.

Subsequent to her return to the Senator's WDC residence, and while straightening up her room which had also been ransacked, she discovered that her microphone to a cassette tape recorder and two cassette tapes were missing. She advised that these items had been kept by her in a drawer in her bedroom and had been wrapped in some undergarments.

[redacted] stated that the contents of these tapes were personal tape recordings and had no significance to anyone else. She stated that one of the tapes contained a recording of a "Meet the Press" interview of Senator BYRD and some other type of radio program while the other tape was a recording she had made with a friend and her friend's family talking. Also on one of the tapes was a recorded telephone conversation she had with another female friend.

She advised that when she told [redacted] about her missing tapes he said "[redacted]". She advised that it was [redacted]'s opinion that [redacted] was responsible for the break-in of the Senator's home and felt that they were looking for some type of an unspecified document.

b6
b7C

He then provided the following information regarding his knowledge and whereabouts on the date of a burglary of Senator HOWARD H. BAKER's residence.

b6
b7C

[redacted]'s first comment was to the effect that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and police probably found his fingerprints in Senator BAKER's house because [redacted] is his girlfriend and he ([redacted]) has been through most of the house on one occasion or another.

b6

[redacted] advised that he first learned of the burglary on a news broadcast and noted that he had been to New York the previous weekend to attend the wedding of a friend's daughter. [redacted] advised that his friend is [redacted]

[redacted] advised that the wedding he attended was on a Sunday, August 3, 1975, and he remained in New York until Monday evening, when he departed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after having dinner with the [redacted] family. The date of his departure was August 4, 1975, and he advised he did not arrive in Washington, D.C., until 5:00 or 6:00 a.m., Tuesday morning, August 5, 1975. b6

[redacted] recalled getting lost in the vicinity of Baltimore, Maryland, and advised that he received a traffic citation (speeding and going through a red light) in the vicinity of Baltimore. He advised this ticket was received late at night on August 4, or very early in the morning on August 5. He advised he "fought" the ticket and had the charges dismissed on November 9, 1975.

[] stated that after he arrived in WDC at approximately 5:00 or 6:00 a.m., he went to bed and slept until approximately noon. He advised that after he awoke, and later on in the afternoon or early evening, he heard on a news broadcast the fact that Senator BAKER's home had been burglarized. He advised that he then tried to contact his girlfriend, [], in Huntsville, Tennessee, at the Senator's residence there. [] advised the telephone was answered by Senator BAKER, who told him that [] was on her way to WDC and would arrive at the Trailways Bus Station there at approximately midnight. [] advised that he went to the bus station to meet [] and recalled that the bus was approximately one half hour late. He advised she was surprised to see him there and after talking for a short while they drove directly to his home on [], where he was then residing. He advised they both spent the night there and drove to Senator BAKER's residence the next morning at approximately 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. [] recalled that [] had told him that one of the reasons she was coming back to Washington, D.C., was to determine whether any of her things were missing.

b7c

[] advised that when they arrived at the BAKER residence, several other employees of Senator BAKER were already in the process of cleaning the home. He advised that [] went to her room upstairs while he looked around the downstairs area and spoke with the cook and the Senator's gardener. [] recalled that although many items were in total disarray, the Senator's darkroom appeared undisturbed and no valuable items were apparently taken. He further recalled that there was a safe in the family room on the lower level of the house which had been turned upside down and a hole chopped through the bottom.

b6
b7c

[] advised that at this time [] came downstairs and told him she was unable to find her tape recorder and one cassette tape. [] advised that this tape had been made at his apartment at which time he, [] and several family members were present and were just "horsing around." [] advised that to the best of his recollection, only one tape was missing and could not be sure whether the tape recorder and a microphone or only a tape recorder were reported missing by [].

b6
b7c

[] advised that he had told [] at this time that it was his opinion that this burglary was not an ordinary burglary. [] advised that it was opinion that, in view of Senator BAKER's work on the Senate Intelligence Committee, the burglary may have been committed by a disgruntled Federal employee of a security or police agency. [] had no facts on which to base his feeling but stated it was merely his opinion, due to the Senator's position and nature of the burglary.

b6

[] advised that [] frequently spends weekends at his apartment and stated that she still has various items of clothing, records, and other personal property there. He stated that they did have a disagreement several months ago and advised that for approximately two months she refused to speak with him. He advised, however, that they are now on speaking terms again and hopes their relationship will return to normal. [] declined to discuss what the disagreement concerned, noting that it was personal.

b6
b7C

[] advised that he has []
[]. He stated he is currently employed as a []
[] and works on an occasional basis.

b6
b7C

[] advised he is a former [] [] having worked for [] for several years in the early 1950's as []
[].

b6
b7C

[] advised he knew nothing further regarding the burglary and has been completely honest and forthright in information provided. He advised he would be willing to take a polygraph examination should it be requested at some future date.

The interview was terminated at this point.

Q1 Pair of eyeglasses and brown holder

Result of examination:

The Q1 eyeglasses have gold-plated frames which have no markings on them.

The clear lenses in the Q1 eyeglasses have no prescription; however, they darken in ultraviolet light and would, therefore, darken in sunlight.

The holder in which the Q1 eyeglasses were enclosed bears printed on the flap the words "RENAULD REACT-A-MATIC" which probably indicates that the holder was intended for the submitted sunlight-reactive eyeglasses and may indicate that the brand name of the eyeglasses is "RENAULD REACT-A-MATIC." Further, the submitted eyeglasses fit well into the holder.

Re WFO teletype to the Bureau, 2/12/82.

On 2/12/82, Sergeant [REDACTED], Capital Police, Washington, D.C., was contacted regarding calls being placed to the office of Senator Charles Mathias in Washington, D.C. He advised the calls started on 2/8/82, and advised the individual identifying himself as [REDACTED] had continually been calling the Senator's office with various types of complaints. Sergeant [REDACTED] advised he had heard portions of the tapes that were recorded and stated that he in no way construed the tapes to be threatening to the Senator's life. Sergeant [REDACTED] indicated [REDACTED] had complained about a house which he had purchased as being condemned by the Government and no one in the Government had helped him.

b6

On 2/12/82, Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) [REDACTED], Baltimore, Maryland, was presented the facts concerning the harassing calls being made to Senator Mathias' office. AUSA [REDACTED] advised that he would not authorize prosecution in view of any direct threat to the Senator, but he stated that should a threat or any implied threat be made by [REDACTED], that he would consider authorizing prosecution. AUSA [REDACTED] suggested that Agents interview [REDACTED] concerning his grievance with the Government and suggest that he attempt to discontinue his calls to the Senator's Office.

On 2/17/82, [redacted] was interviewed at his residence, [redacted], concerning his calling Senator Mathias' Office. [redacted] indicated that he had been wounded in 1952, and had been placed in the psycho ward at Walter Reed Army Hospital after being wounded. He indicated his main complaint concerned a residence at [redacted], and it involved a dispute concerning sewage lines being hooked up to the property. He gave the impression the property had been condemned by the County Government and he was forced to leave this residence because of a health problem. [redacted] indicated he was currently unemployed and also appeared to be somewhat unstable during the interview with the Agents. He agreed to terminate any further calls to Senator Mathias' Office, and we suggested that if he had a complaint that he write his complaint in a letter to the Senator.

On 2/19/82, Sergeant [redacted] was recontacted concerning calls being made to Senator Mathias' Office, and he advised that in the past two days, that there were no additional calls being made to the office by [redacted].

b6

In view of the fact, the AUSA, Baltimore, Maryland, declined to prosecute in this particular case, Baltimore is conducting no additional investigation. The AUSA's opinion is being confirmed by separate communication.

WFO is requested to make appropriate notification regarding results and status of the FBI investigation conducted to Senator Mathias' Office, Russell Building, Washington, D.C., since re teletype indicates original complaint in this matter was received from [redacted] of that office.

Re: [redacted]

Threat against Senator Charles Mathias, Jr. of Maryland and his family.

Dear Mr. Motz:

On February 12, 1982, Special Agent (SA) [redacted] [redacted] telephonically contacted AUSA [redacted] regarding harassing and possible threatening calls being made by [redacted] [redacted] to the office of Senator Charles Mathias, Jr. in Washington, D.C. AUSA [redacted] was advised that the context of the calls did not appear to be threatening in nature, but [redacted] appeared to have some grievance with the government which he felt was never rectified.

AUSA [redacted] advised that he would not authorize any prosecution against [redacted] but suggested that if the calls persisted, or if direct threats were made against Senator Mathias, that he would consider prosecution.

Very truly yours,

He is responsible for handling complaints from veterans regarding the Disabled Veterans Administration and to provide assistance in solving problems which affect veterans.

[redacted] stated he has been in touch with [redacted] off and on for a number of months regarding his [redacted]'s difficulty in obtaining a veteran's home loan.

On June 30, 1981, [redacted] received a phone call from someone at Congressman Michael Barnes's office requesting him to call [redacted] in an effort to calm him down.

During the course of the conversation, [redacted] decided that [redacted] was in an irrational state of mind and had "gone over the deep end." [redacted] threatened to go to Congressman Barnes's office with a loaded M-16 rifle and further stated if it came to a "quick draw" with the officers guarding the office, "That would be O.K."

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he had an M-16 rifle and a .45 caliber automatic pistol and racked the action of the rifle in the telephone receiver to prove to [redacted] he actually had a rifle. [redacted] also referred to the Congressman receiving [redacted] in the mail.

During the course of the conversation, [redacted] said to [redacted], "Quit fuckin' with me."

While reviewing his case file on [redacted], [redacted] found a note written by someone no longer employed at the Disabled Veterans Administration which was dated October 14, 1980, and stated that [redacted] had threatened to kill 18 members of the Disabled Veterans Administration.

At approximately 2 P.M., on June 30, 1981, [redacted] received a phone call from [redacted], an individual who has been corresponding with the office for several months.

[redacted] stated that he "had been denied his rights as a veteran," the senator had "screwed him over," and he insisted on making an appointment to see the senator.

[redacted] went on to say that "If I do not get what is coming to me, I will get the people involved." [redacted] believed the "people involved" to be the senator and/or the case worker. [redacted] told [redacted] that he did not want to hurt the secretaries or clerks.

[redacted] made a statement and said it was a quote from a Supreme Court ruling. [redacted] then heard a sound from the phone receiver which [redacted] stated was the sound of his gun being cocked.

At approximately 9:00 p.m., on August 4, 1981, [] telephonically contacted the Baltimore Office of the FBI, asked to speak to SA [], and the conversation ensued as follows:

[] advised he has met with unsuccessful results in obtaining a VA loan for the purpose of buying a home. [] sounded as though he was in an intoxicated state and went on to explain the efforts he has made through Senator Mathias' and Congressman Barnes' offices. He further explained that he felt he was being given the run-around by both Congressional offices and the Veterans Administration. He made numerous references to his Vietnam experiences, that he had killed in Vietnam and saw no difference in killing people in this country and what he had done in Vietnam. [] said that he feels like he is a one man killer team to Hanoi. He said that he feels alone in his efforts to fight the bureaucratic system and equated it to being a one man killer team. [] also said that had a lesser person been subjected to what he has gone through over the past three years that some FBI agents may have found themselves in the fire fight but he believes that his mental capacity has precluded him from using violent methods to this point. He added that he was at a mental point where he "might go down to the VA and blow someone away". When asked exactly what he meant by "blow someone away" he said "kill someone".

On the evening of 8/4/81, the writer received a telephone call from the subject who seemed to be in an intoxicated state. During the conversation [REDACTED] made numerous references to his experiences in Vietnam and that he felt as though nothing had changed since his return regarding his combat experiences, his feelings of fear, and his ability to kill.

[REDACTED] has made death threats against Senator Mathias, Congressman Barnes, and members of the Veterans Administration. During the conversation referenced above Kennedy said that he "might just blow someone away at the Veterans Administration" if he did not find some relief in his efforts to obtain a VA mortgage loan.

It should be noted that the writer had several telephonic communications with [REDACTED] during November and December of 1980. Several other agents of the Baltimore and WFO Divisions have also had numerous conversations with the subject. [REDACTED] was employed as [REDACTED] [REDACTED], however, during the most recent conversation with the writer, [REDACTED] explained that he was recently placed on suspension and therefore, does not have a job. The writer believes that [REDACTED] was in such a state of mind that he is capable of carrying out a violent act as he has previously threatened, especially in view of the fact that he is not steadily employed.

It is recommended that the case be reopened and a prosecutive opinion sought at the earliest possible time.

[] stated that although previously interviewed by FBI agents following his last series of threatening phone calls, he had ceased making any of these calls and was now represented by legal counsel in order that he may possibly litigate all of the grievances and inequities that have been perpetrated upon him by various federal agencies.

[] stated that he did not desire to cause the FBI any further difficulties, although should he be arrested at any time, he would relish the opportunity to come before a federal judge in order that he may explain the many instances of discrimination that have been inflicted upon him by numerous and assorted individuals and government agencies.

AUSA [] was advised by SA [] that investigation conducted by the FBI has resulted in background information regarding [] that would tend to make him appear greatly troubled by his Viet Nam combat experiences and constantly at odds with all forms of authority causing him to have serious differences of opinion with the Veterans Administration, [] for which he is employed, and the Montgomery County Housing authorities.

b6

In view of the above information, AUSA [] reiterated her former prosecutive opinion in which she declined to prosecute [] at this time in view of the fact that it did not meet the elements of the Federal Extortion Statute; however, if future death threats could, in fact, be proven to have an interstate aspect, she would consider prosecuting [] and seeking a court order to have him examined regarding his competency.

In view of the above information, no further investigation is being conducted by this office; however, should future transgressions on the part of [] come to the attention of the Silver Spring Resident Agency, they will be immediately presented to AUSA [] for opinion.

[redacted] was contacted at [redacted] at which time, he was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview.

[redacted] readily conceded that he had, in fact, made numerous telephone calls to various politicians, the Veterans Administration and local law enforcement agencies in which he usually became hostile and abusive and had, in fact, made threats to injure and/or kill many individuals.

[redacted] stated, however, although he certainly feels with his background as a combat Marine, four years in the U.S. Marine Corps and one year of service in Viet Nam that he is physically and mentally capable of performing these acts, he certainly had no intention of doing so and was merely trying to gain attention for himself and for his numerous causes to which he is totally committed and remains embattled against namely the Veterans Administration, Montgomery County Housing Authorities and [redacted], all of which he is currently involved in ongoing litigation in which he is represented by various attorneys including a representative from the A.C.L.U. in regard to his administrative suspension from [redacted].

At the time of the interview, [redacted] appeared to be rational and made a big point of displaying all his files that he has compiled over the years regarding his various claims, etc.

[redacted] stated that he is close to a Bachelor of Science degree in five or six different majors from a variety of colleges and is currently considering law school in order that he may represent himself in his many litigations.

[] advised that he had previously been interviewed by three FBI agents from the Washington Field Office following a series of abusive and threatening phone calls that he admitted making to the offices of U.S. Senator Mathias in Washington, D.C. and U.S. Congressman Michael Barnes.

At this time, [] was cautioned that although he may have legitimate complaints and arguments with all the individuals and agencies to whom he has frequent telephonic contact, that any telephone calls traveling interstate or from Maryland to the District of Columbia and vice versa involving threats or bodily harm or death to other persons could possibly result in his prosecution by the FBI for violating one of the elements of the Federal Extortion Statute.

b6

[] then advised that although it certainly was not his desire to be arrested by the FBI, he would not mind being arrested and taken before a federal judge because this, he stated, would give him an opportunity to explain to the federal judge all of the inequities that have been perpetrated by him by various people, namely the federal bureaucracy.

[] stated it was not his desire to cause the FBI any further difficulties and that he would, in fact, cease making these phone calls because he was now, in fact, represented by legal counsel on several "different fronts". [] stated that he had just finished a 25-day suspension from [] due to a problem arising from [] not conforming with departmental regulations.

[] then steadily changed the course of the interview by stating to the interviewing agent that he was [] serving in Viet Nam with the United States Marine Corps during the Viet Nam War and that he served with the [] in numerous combat situations in the Viet Nam War.

Rockville man surrenders after standoff with police

By LOLA DEMMA

Journal staff writer

A distraught Washington firefighter, armed with several guns, barricaded himself in his Rockville home Saturday morning for seven hours and threatened to kill himself before police persuaded him to go to a hospital for psychiatric care.

Brian Kennedy, 37, of the 1000 block of Crawford Drive, walked out of his house shortly before noon and was taken to Montgomery General Hospital for psychiatric evaluation, county police spokesman Sgt. Harry Geehreng said.

Although several weapons including an AR-15 rifle, a .45 caliber pistol and a shotgun, as well as ammunition, were later found in the house, no shots were fired and no one was injured, Geehreng said.

About eight houses surrounding Kennedy's home in the densely populated neighborhood were evacuated.

A police negotiation team and about 20 county and Rockville police officers were on the scene for seven hours, Geehreng said.

Kennedy has served 11 years with the District of Columbia Fire Department.

He previously had sought medical care at the department's medical clinic for stress-related problems resulting from his experience in the Vietnam War, said William Mullikin, deputy chief of the department.

Kennedy is on administrative leave with pay pending the department's investigation of the incident. He either will be reinstated or placed on sick leave, depending on the outcome of a medical evaluation by the department, Mullikin said.

Kennedy "has been upset for years" about his Vietnam experience, but it is not known what prompted him to barricade himself in his house Saturday, Mullikin said.

At about 5 a.m. Kennedy called the Montgomery County Crisis Center Hotline, saying he was going to commit suicide. The Crisis Center notified county police.

But Kennedy refused to let police get near the house and threatened to kill anyone who got too close, although he did not display any weapons, Geehreng said.

The negotiation team talked to Kennedy through the ordeal, Geehreng said. Just before noon, negotiators persuaded Kennedy to leave the house peacefully and go to the hospital, Geehreng said.

Kennedy was not charged, Geehreng said.

D.C. Firefighter Barricades Himself in House

By Molly Sinclair
Washington Post Staff Writer

A longtime District firefighter was undergoing psychiatric evaluation last night after barricading himself in his Rockville house for seven hours yesterday and threatening to kill himself and anyone who came too close, police said.

Brian R. Kennedy, 37, who is assigned to D.C. Engine Co. 29, near the reservoir on MacArthur Boulevard, was taken into custody shortly before noon when he walked out of his house, 1014 Crawford Dr., in response to appeals from police negotiators, said Sgt. Harry Geehrens, spokesman for the Montgomery County Police Department.

Geehrens said that weapons, including an automatic pistol and a shotgun, were seized in the house. He said Kennedy never fired or displayed a weapon.

About two dozen police from Montgomery County and Rockville were dispatched to Kennedy's house during the morning, Geehrens said. He said the first police arrived about 5 a.m. after being notified by Crisis Center Hotline personnel that they had received phone calls from Kennedy during the night threatening suicide.

Kennedy, who lives alone, was able to maintain his Rockville address while working for the District because he lived outside the city before passage of the 1980 residency requirement, according to Capt. Ted Holmes, spokesman for the District Fire Department.

Holmes said Kennedy was off duty yesterday. However, the fire department has initiated an internal investigation of yesterday's incident, Holmes said. He said this is normal "any time any of our people are involved in matters with law enforcement." He said an administrative action based on the investigation will be taken when Kennedy is due back to work.

Kennedy, a District firefighter since October 1977, made newspaper headlines in August 1983 after he was suspended by the fire department for having a beard.

Beards were forbidden by the department at that time because, officials said, a bearded firefighter may have trouble keeping an air mask fully adhered to his face, and smoke or toxic fumes could kill a firefighter without a sealed mask. When the case went to court, Kennedy won and was reinstated to his job.

Yesterday, Kennedy, who no longer has a beard, emerged from his home and was surrounded by police without further incident, police said. They said he was taken to Montgomery General Hospital for psychiatric evaluation.

Republican Senators Torpedo Don Devine

The decision of Dr. Donald J. Devine last week to withdraw from consideration for a second term as director of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management was understandable from a personal perspective. To have subjected himself, his wife, family and loyal aides any longer to the Star Chamber-type of abuse dished out by the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee would have been more than should properly be expected of any man. For President Reagan, however, whom he served uncommonly well, and for the nation as a whole, Devine's withdrawal represents a profound loss.

At a time when the federal deficit is a pressing threat to the national economy, Devine can take credit for having reduced the size of the non-defense federal bureaucracy by 10 per cent. He turned a $440-million deficit in the federal employees health insurance program into a $2-billion surplus, ended what had been scandalous abuse of disability retirement in the federal workforce, and initiated a policy of pay and promotion for federal employees based on performance, and not merely the length of time in the job.

As a result of these and other reforms many believed impossible before he took office, Devine has already saved the taxpayers $6.4 billion administratively, and $2 billion more when you count reforms approved by Congress at his urging. Over the next five years, the savings directly attributable to changes wrought by Devine will total more than $20 billion. And a Devine proposal to reform the Civil Service retirement system would have cut the system's unfunded liability by $142 billion, while saving many billions more in future taxes.

Ironically, it was Devine's very success in carrying out the President's policies that made him an object of partisan political attack by congressional Democrats.

But what is most outrageous—and should not be forgotten come future elections—is that Devine's withdrawal need never have happened save for the inexcusable failure of Republican committee members—with the notable exception of Mississippi's Thad Cochran—to defend the former University of Maryland professor against the absurd charge that he had clandestinely continued to run the OPM after his term as director expired March 25.

Under the law, as previously reported, OPM Deputy Director Loreita Cornelius became the interim acting director upon the expiration of Devine's term. Expecting that Devine would be confirmed within a few days, Devine and Cornelius sought to minimize the disruption at the agency by having Devine serve briefly as Cornelius' executive assistant.

Under an agreement between Cornelius and Devine, Devine, as executive assistant, was to have complete authority to perform all functions normally handled by the director, but his decisions were subject to approval by Cornelius.

After serving in the interim position for four weeks, Devine was asked to resign by Cornelius. She subsequently complained publicly that Devine, before leaving office, had delegated to himself far broader authority in the temporary post than she had been aware of when the position was created.

For Devine's Democratic foes on the senate committee, led by Senators Thomas F. Eagleton (Mo.) and Carl Levin (Mich.), Cornelius' charge was like manna from heaven. They quickly used it to claim that Devine had illegally sought, by deliberate subterfuge, to retain control of the agency.

But, as Devine, along with others,

Capital Briefs

★ Vice President George Bush holds a strong lead in the California Field Poll for the 1988 GOP presidential nomination. Bush is the first choice of 36 per cent of those surveyed, comfortably ahead of Sen. Bob Dole (14 per cent), former Senate Majority Leader Howard Baker (11), California Gov. George Deukmejian (10), Rep. Jack Kemp (9), and former U.N. Ambassador Jeane Kirkpatrick (6).

★ California Democrats give Ted Kennedy an early lead over Gary Hart in the race for the Democratic nomination. Kennedy is the choice of 33 per cent of those surveyed with Hart second at 27 per cent and New York Gov. Mario Cuomo third at 21 per cent. Trailing are Chrysler boss Lee Iacocca (8 per cent), Sen. Bill Bradley (2) and Arizona Gov. Bruce Babbitt and Sen. Joe Biden (1 per cent each).

★ A Libyan diplomat to the U.N. was expelled by the State Department last week for activities "incompatible with his status and illegal." That was a polite way of saying that Farhat Tibar, an administrative attache at Libya's U.N. mission, was involved in a plot to assassinate anti-Communist Libyans in the United States. Libyan dictator Muammar Qaddafi has set up groups to go abroad to "chase traitors, fugitives and stray dogs wherever they are and liquidate them physically."

★ White House strategists were beaming last week after reading the results of the latest New York Times/CBS poll. The survey showed 60 per cent of adult Americans believe the Reagan tax plan is fair and the President's popularity has jumped three points to 59 per cent. Forty-five per cent of voters now identify themselves as Democrats, 44 per cent as Republicans. Among 18-to-29-year olds, the GOP holds a clear 51-to-42 edge. And by nearly 2-to-1, voters say the GOP is doing a better job than Democrats in reducing the deficits.

★ Department of media bias: James Wieghart, national political correspondent for the Scripps-Howard papers, recently told a Polish government official: "There's a movement in Washington to let Reagan be Reagan. We're [the press] doing all we can to prevent that." Asked by New York magazine to elaborate, Wieghart explained: "There are people like Pat Buchanan who would let Reagan be Reagan, and that's a scary thought."

★ Rep. James Scheuer (D.-N.Y.) is a co-sponsor of legislation to impose economic sanctions on South Africa. That didn't stop him from holding stock last year in that country's largest diamond mining company and 18 U.S. companies which do business there. Asked if there was a contradiction between his support of economic sanctions and his own holdings, Scheuer answered: "Sure it is. Life is full of contradictions."

★ Sen. Al D'Amato appears to be in good political shape as he revs up his re-election drive. A New York Daily News poll shows D'Amato leads Geraldine Ferraro by eight percentage points, Atty. Gen. Robert Abrams by 18, Brooklyn District Attorney Elizabeth Holtzman by 21 and former Gov. Hugh Carey by 37. D'Amato runs well among Irish-Catholics, Italians, Jews and Independents and even carries New York City over Ferraro.

★ The Senate last week rejected four attempts to slash next year's $3-billion budget for the Strategic Defense Initiative (dubbed "Star Wars" by foes). First it voted 78-to-21 against an amendment introduced by Sen. John Kerry (D.-Mass.) to freeze the SDI budget at this year's level of $1.4 billion. By 57-to-38, it voted down an amendment offered by Sen. William Proxmire (D.-Wis.) to increase the SDI budget to only $1.8 billion. And by margins of 59-to-36, it rejected amendments by Senators Al Gore Jr. (D.-Tenn.) and John Glenn (D.-Ohio) to hold the SDI budget to $2.5 billion and $2.8 billion.

★ Only in New York (one hopes): Teen-age homosexuals can now attend their own public high school in Manhattan. Twenty students — 14 boys and six girls — are now enrolled in the school, which is named for the late San Francisco gay activist Harvey Milk. The New York City Board of Education is operating the school in conjunction with the Institute for the Protection of Gay and Lesbian Youth, a homosexual advocacy group financed in part by city and state taxpayers.

★ Charles M. Lichtenstein, who was Jeane Kirkpatrick's deputy to the United Nations, said last week that U.S. taxpayers are paying the salaries of large numbers of Soviet intelligence agents. Lichtenstein estimated that of the $200 million contributed each year by the United States to the U.N., between $5 and $10 million goes to pay Soviet employees whose primary task is espionage.

★ Rep. Jack Kemp (R.-N.Y.) is not the only lawmaker who wants to lower the 35 per cent maximum rate in the Administration's tax package. Sen. Bob Packwood (R.-Ore.), influential chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, last week told President Reagan he would like to see the top rate reduced to 25 per cent. Packwood said that could be done by changing exemptions and exceptions in "three or four places" in the tax code.

★ Interest rates show no sign of leveling off. "Rates will continue to decline through 1988," predicts Deborah Johnson of Prudential-Bache Securities Inc. "By the third quarter of next year, 30-year Treasury bonds will be down to about 8.5 per cent [from the current 10 per cent]. Conventional 30-year mortgages are expected to drop to 11.5 per cent and bank auto loans to 8.8 per cent."

The Declaration of Independence begins: "When in the course of Human Events..." In reporting the news, Human Events is objective; it aims for accurate presentation of all the facts. But it is not impartial. It looks at events through eyes that are biased in favor of limited constitutional government, local self-government, private enterprise and individual freedom. These principles represented the bias of the Founding Fathers. We think the same bias will preserve freedom in America.

LABORATORY LINGUISTICS ANALYSIS

This will supplement the forthcoming Laboratory report wherein the submitted specimens, Q1 and Q2, are further described and their disposition set forth.

A forensic linguistic examination was conducted on photocopies of Q1 and Q2. It was concluded that there is insufficient material upon which to draw either demographic or psychological profiles or upon which to make a threat assessment. The specimens are, therefore, not being forwarded to [redacted] as requested. Photocopies of Q1 and Q2 are being retained for future comparisons in the event further extortion notes are received in this case. A reevaluation will be made at that time regarding psycholinguistic examination.

WFO file 9A-4810 was reviewed to determine if hand-writing samples were available for submission to the Laboratory for comparison.

Evidence previously submitted by WFO in the case entitled UNSUB, aka Walter Treski, "Guralik", WFO file 9A-4810, has undergone laboratory treatment which has rendered the hand-writing quite blurry.

Unless requested by the Office of Origin this evidence will not be resubmitted in this case.

WFO will leave the request to Newark Division to attempt to recontact Walter Treski and obtain additional hand-writing to the discretion of Phoenix.

Re PX teletype to Director 7/16/85.

Enclosed is copy of FD-302 interview of WALTER TRESKI.

On 7/9/85, U.S. Capitol Police, Washington, D.C., turned over to the FBI a letter received on 7/8/85 at the Washington, D.C., Office of Senator MATHIS. The one-page letter was attached to a page from the newspaper "Human Events" dated 6/15/85. The front page from "Human Events" contained an article entitled "Republican Senators Torpedo Don Devine". The letter contained threats to both Senators STEVENS and MATHIS. The letter was postmarked Tucson, Arizona, dated 7/1/85.

U.S. Secret Service, Washington, D.C., was provided a copy of the letter.

On 7/15/85, captioned matter was coordinated with U.S. Secret Service, Pima County Sheriff's Office-Intelligence Division, Tucson Police Department-Special Investigations Unit, all at Tucson, without effecting the identity of any possible suspect who could have written the extortion letter.

A computer printout of 170 Arizona subscribers was furnished by "Human Events". Attention was drawn to the name [redacted] inmate # [redacted], Arizona State Prison, 10000 S. Wilmot, Tucson, Arizona. The file of [redacted] was reviewed and handwriting exemplars were obtained. A visual comparison of [redacted] handwriting was compared to the extortion letter which reflected that these handwritings did not appear identical.

b6

A forensic linguistic examination was conducted on the envelope and extortion letter and it was concluded there was insufficient material upon which to draw either demographic or psychological profiles or upon which to make a threat assessment.

FBI Latent Fingerprint Division processed the envelope and extortion letter and no latent prints of value were developed.

As a result of a search through the anonymous letter file, handwriting similarities were observed which indicated that the envelope and extortion letter could have been written by the subject of the following case:

UNSUB, aka
Walter Treski,
"Guralik";
DEATH THREAT AGAINST CONGRESSMAN CHRISTOPHER
H. SMITH, AND ASSASSINATION THREATS AGAINST PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN;
EXTORTION (A);
OO: NEWARK
(9A-NEW)
WFO file 9A-4810
Bufile 9-66875

The FBI Lab requested a sufficient amount of known handwriting comparable in lettering and format as that of the envelope and extortion letter be obtained from WALTER TRESKI and submitted for examination.

The envelope and extortion letter were examined for water marks and indented writing of value with negative results.

Newark Division advised on 1/6/86 that WALTER TRESKI was interviewed by Buagents on 12/17/85. TRESKI refused to furnish handwriting samples, denied writing the letter to Senators MATHIS and STEVENS, and stated he had never been to Tucson, Arizona.

PX 9A-2397
ERH/seb

TRESKI had previously been interviewed by agents of the Trenton RA and the results are contained in FD-302 interview on 7/30/82 at Trenton, New Jersey. A review of the interview will provide insightful view of TRESKI.

No further letters have been received by any offices of Senators STEVENS or MATHIS.

In that no subject has been identified, the Phoenix Division of the FBI is conducting no further investigation concerning captioned matter.

Date of transcription 8/9/82

Walter Walentin Treski, also known as (aka) Guralik, 331 Ellis Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey, telephone #609-393-2346, was interviewed at his residence and furnished the following information:

He advised he is a Polish immigrant having come to the U.S. at age 15. He thereafter became a naturalized American citizen. He completed his high school education at Trenton, New Jersey, and attended college in the State of Maryland where he graduated with an Engineering Degree. He advised he is currently unemployed.

He advised that from March of 1959 to the present, individuals he refers to as "boolas" have been using psychosis against him which has changed his entire psychology "from being a very big man in everything to a big punk in everything." He advised that boolas are the tycoons and are the individuals who are the richest of the rich. He advised these boolas communicate to him through the media, such as television and the newspapers, and have changed him into someone who is always tired, disinterested, and incapable of thinking things out completely.

He commented that he considers himself to be a "small-timer," which he stated means anyone who has small success or a small business. He advised that small-timers are at the mercy of the boolas who are in control of everything in this country. He advised in this regard he has written numerous letters stating his views and beliefs to the Pentagon, Washington officials, the New York Times, and Mayor Koch of New York City.

He recalled recently writing two letters to the Mayor of Washington, D.C. In the first, he explained his personal philosophy as indicated above and also requested the mayor to have the small-timers in Washington dispose of his (Treski's) congressman, Christopher H. Smith, by killing him. In the second letter, he described U.S. President Ronald Reagan as a criminal, who is no good to the country, and requested the mayor to have the Council of Churches hit the President and have him assassinated.

He advised, in his opinion, all of the U.S. Presidents are the tycoons' lackeys and that the justices of the U.S. Supreme Court are their covert lackeys. He advised, in his opinion, the President is not enforcing the laws of the U.S. of America and is, therefore, committing crimes against the people, and he should, therefore, be killed by him or someone else. He advised, however, at the present time he had no intention of assassinating the President in that he felt he could rectify the current political situation by writing letters to various officials, requesting their cooperation in changing things. In this regard, he is in the process of composing a letter to the U.S. Congress explaining his views which he plans on sending in the near future.

Mr. Treski stated he is not a communist or a socialist, but strongly felt that no one in the U.S. should be permitted to have personal wealth in excess of $10 million. He stated it was his aim to change the current situation in which a large amount of money is in the hands of a few and distribute it more equitably among the small-timers.

J. FRED BUZHARDT, GENERAL COUNSEL, DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE,

FURNISHED THE FOLLOWING THIS DATE:

SENATOR CHARLES MATHIAS, JUNIOR OF MARYLAND, MADE AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION TO BUZHARDT CERTAIN DOCUMENTS WHICH MATHIAS RECEIVED FROM DANIAL ELLSBERG IN THE SPRING OF NINETEEN SEVENTYONE.

ST-118

REC 1765-74060-589

BY WAY OF BACKGROUND, BUZHARDT SAID THAT IN MAY NINETEEN SEVENTY MATHIAS MET ELLSBERG IN FLIGHT FROM SAINT LOUIS TO WASHINGTON, D.C. (WDC), WHEN ELLSBERG SET NEXT TO MATHIAS INTRODUCED HIMSELF. THEY HAD A DISCUSSION CONCERNING THE WAR IN VIETNAM AND SUBSEQUENTLY, IN LATE WINTER OR EARLY SPRING OF NINETEEN SEVENTYONE ELLSBERG VISITED THE SENATOR'S OFFICE TO FURTHER DISCUSS THE VIETNAMESE WAR

RECEIVED A LETTER FROM ELLSBERG WHICH ENCLOSED A COPY OF AN ARTICLE THE LATTER HAD WRITTEN FOR THE QUOTE WASHINGTON POST UNQUOTE NEWSPAPER. A COUPLE OF WEEKS LATER ELLSBERG AGAIN VISITED MATHIAS' OFFICE, BELIEVED TO BE IN ABOUT APRIL OR MAY NINETEEN SEVENTYONE, AT WHICH TIME HE FURNISHED THE STAFF ASSISTANT, SUPRA, A PACKAGE OF DOUCUMENTS FOR MATHIAS TO READ. THIS PACKAGE WAS PLACED IN THE OFFICE SAFE WITHOUT IT HAVING BEEN OPENED. SOMETIME LATER AND PRIOR TO THE QUOTE NEW YORK TIMES UNQUOTE (TIMES) DISCLOSURES ELLSBERG SAW MATHIAS IN THE SENATE RESTAURANT AND ASKED MATHIAS IF HE HAD READ THE DOCUMENTS. THE SENATOR RESPONDED IN THE NEGATIVE AND DID NOT OPEN THE PACKAGE OF DOCUMENTS UNTIL AFTER ELLSBERG HAD BEEN IDENTIFIED AS THE SOURCE OF THE QUOTE TIMES UNQUOTE DISCLOSURES.

BUZHARDT HAS EXAMINED THE DOCUMENTS GIVEN MATHIAS BY ELLSBERG AND BUZHARDT DETERMINED THAT THEY ARE A XEROXED COPY OF NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL (NSC) STUDY MEMORANDUM NUMBER ONE DATED NINETEEN SIXTYNINE. IT CONCERNS BACKGOUND INFORMATION ON VIETNAM.

BUZHARDT EXPLAINED THAT NSC SENT A QUESTIONNAIRE CONCERNING VIETNAM TO A NUMBER OF GOVERNMENT AGENCIES, INCLUDING STATE; AMERICAN EMBASSY, SAIGON; COMMAND GO GENERAL ABRAMS IN VIETNAM, CIA, TREASURY, AND DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE. NSC SUBSEQUENTLY SUMMARIZED RESPONSES RECEIVED FROM ABOVE QUESTIONNAIRE AND RESPONSES WERE USED AS QUOTE INPUT UNQUOTE FOR STUDY MEMORANDUM NUMBER ONE.

THIS MEMORANDUM WAS THE FIRST STUDY OF THE VIETNAM SITUATION CONDUCTED FOR THE NIXON ADMINISTRATION. BUZHARDT SAID ELLSBERG TOLD MATHIAS THAT ELLSBERG PREPARED THE QUESTIONS USED IN THIS STUDY. BUZHARDT IS OF THE BELIEF THAT ELLSBERG WORKED AS A CONSULTANT FOR NSC, BUT HE HAS NOT CORROBORATED IT. HE CONCLUDED THAT ELLSBERG PROBABLY WORKED UNDER PRESIDENTIAL ADVISOR KISSINGER.

WITH RESPECT TO THE DOCUMENTS FURNISHED MATHIAS BY ELLSBERG, BUZHARDT SAID THAT THEY ARE A PACKAGE APPROXIMATELY FOUR INCHES THICK AND CONTAINED PAPERS CLASSIFIED FROM CONFIDENTIAL UP TO AND INCLUDING SECRET. BUZHARDT RECALLED THAT INCLUDED IN THE PACKAGE IS A NINETEEN SIXTYSIX STATE

DEPARTMENT STUDY OF PACIFICATION IN VIETNAM AND A FOUR OR FIVE PAGE CABLE CLASSIFIED CONFIDENTIAL AND COVERING PROBLEMS IN VIETNAM. HE RECALLS THESE PARTICULAR DOCUMENTS IN THAT THEY ARE OUT OF CONTEXT WITH THE REMAINDER OF THE MATERIAL IN THE PACKAGE.

MATHIAS' FIRST QUESTION TO BUZHARDT WAS WHETHER THE PACKAGE OF MATERIAL COULD BE DECLASSIFIED. BUZHARDT REQUESTED THAT THE MATERIAL BE ^TBURNED OVER TO HIM, BUT MATHIAS DECLINED STATING THAT HE DESIRED TO FIRST DISCUSS THE MATTER WITH SENATOR HUGH SCOTT, ADDING THAT HE WOULD QUOTE GET BACK TO UNQUOTE BUZHARDT. BUZHARDT HAS HAD NO FURTHER WORD ON THIS MATTER FROM MATHIAS.

BUZHARDT OFFERED THE OPINION THAT AFTER EXAMINING THE MATERIAL IN MATHIAS' POSSESSION (SUPRA), IT IS NOT NEWSWORTHY, ALTHOUGH, IT DOES CONTAIN SOME VERY SENSITIVE MATERIAL. THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE HAS NO INDICATION THAT QUOTE TIMES UNQUOTE OR QUOTE WASHINGTON POST UNQUOTE HAVE COPIES OF IT. BUZHARDT IS OF THE OPINION THAT THIS MATERIAL WAS

J. FRED BUZHARDT, General Counsel, Department of Defense (DOD), furnished the following information:

Senator CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR., of Maryland, made available for inspection to BUZHARDT documents which he had received from DANIEL ELLSBERG in the Spring of 1971.

By way of background, BUZHARDT related that in May, 1970, MATHIAS met ELLSBERG in a flight from St. Louis, Missouri, to Washington, D. C. (WDC), when ELLSBERG, who was sitting next to MATHIAS on the plane, introduced himself. The two of them then had a discussion concerning the war in Vietnam and subsequently, in the late Winter of 1970 or early Spring of 1971, ELLSBERG visited the Senator's office to further discuss the Vietnamese War with MATHIAS and a staff assistant. Thereafter MATHIAS received a letter from ELLSBERG which enclosed a copy of an article the latter had written for "The Washington Post - Times Herald" (Post) newspaper. A couple of weeks later ELLSBERG again visited MATHIAS' office in about April or May, 1971, at which time ELLSBERG furnished the previously mentioned staff assistant a package of documents for Senator MATHIAS to read. This package was placed unopened in the office safe of MATHIAS. At a later time, prior to "The New York Times" (Times) disclosures ELLSBERG saw MATHIAS in the Senate Restaurant and asked him if he had read the documents. The Senator responded in the negative and did not open the package until sometime after ELLSBERG had been identified as the source of the "Times" disclosures.

BUZHARDT has examined the documents given MATHIAS by ELLSBERG and has determined they are Xeroxed copies of National Security Council (NSC) Study Memorandum Number One dated 1969. This memorandum contains background information on Vietnam.

Interviewed on 7/15/71 at Pentagon, Washington, D. C. File # by SA's THOMAS A. MENDENHALL and CHARLES A. REGAN TAM:jh Date dictated 7/20/71

BUZHARDT explained that NSC had sent a questionnaire concerning Vietnam to a number of government agencies, including the United States Department of State (USDS); American Embassy, Saigon, Vietnam; General ABRAMS' Command in Vietnam; Central Intelligence Agency (CIA); United States Treasury Department; and BGD. NSC subsequently summarized responses received from above questionnaire, and these responses are used as "input" for Study Memorandum Number One.

This memorandum was the first study of the Vietnam situation conducted for the President NIXON Administration. ELLSBERG told MATHIAS that he had prepared the questions used in the questionnaire. BUZHARDT is of the belief that ELLSBERG worked for a time as a consultant to NSC. He concluded that ELLSBERG probably worked under Presidential Advisor, HENRY A. KISSINGER.

With respect to the documents furnished to MATHIAS by ELLSBERG, BUZHARDT described the package as approximately four inches thick containing paper classified from "Confidential" up to and including "Secret." BUZHARDT recalled that included in the package is a 1966 USDS Department Study concerning pacification in Vietnam, and a four or five page cable classified "Confidential" covering problems in Vietnam. BUZHARDT recalled these particular documents in that they are out of context with the remainder of the material in the package.

MATHIAS' first question to BUZHARDT was whether the material in the package could be declassified. BUZHARDT requested that the material be turned over to him, but MATHIAS declined stating that he desired to first discuss the matter with Senator HUGH SCOTT of Pennsylvania, adding that he would "get back to" BUZHARDT. BUZHARDT has had no further word on this matter from MATHIAS.

BUZHARDT offered the opinion after having examined the above material in MATHIAS' possession, that this material is not newsworthy, although it does contain some very "sensitive" material. BUZHARDT stated that DOD has no indication that the "Times" or "Post" have copies of this material. He is of the opinion that this material was hastily thrown together by ELLSBERG in that it contains some duplicates of documents. BUZHARDT said further that Senator MATHIAS had not actually read all the material on the occasion of their meeting.

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of the current status of the investigation concerning the burglaries of the residences of Senators Howard Baker and Charles Mc C. Mathias, Jr.

As you are aware, Senators Baker and Mathias met with the Director on 11/17/75 and requested FBI investigation into the burglaries of their residences as they noted similarities and Senator Baker felt that there may be a wiretap on his house. Deputy Attorney General Harold L. Tyler, Jr., authorized a Bureau investigation.

A comparison of the burglaries has determined there were few similarities between the two and Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and Montgomery County Police Department (MCPD) officials have indicated the burglaries do not appear to be professional in nature.

Senator Baker's residence was examined by the FBI Laboratory and no evidence of a wiretap or hidden microphone developed. Senator Baker advised of this by letter dated 12/11/75

This is to advise the Washington Post, November 13, 1975 issue contained an article captioned "Senator Baker Asks FBI to Probe Breakins," by Donald P. Baker, Washington Post staff writer.

This matter involves the burglary of Senator Mathias' residence, Chevy Chase, Maryland, during the period of November 7-9, 1975. During this period the Mathias family was away. It appears entry was made through a kitchen window or a set of French doors. Senator Mathias initially brought this burglary to the attention of Inspector John B. Hotis. Inspector Hotis subsequently contacted the Senior Resident Agent, Silver Spring, Maryland, who notified the Montgomery County, Maryland, Department of Police.

Senator Mathias advised numerous articles throughout the residence appeared to be handled or disturbed. The only items determined to be missing on November 10, 1975, were two 100 Swiss franc notes. Senator Mathias advised there had not been any papers of value or any of a classified nature taken, as no such papers are maintained at his residence when he is absent. In view of this, the FBI would have no authority to investigate as no violation has occurred under the TGP statute.

The Washington Post article states the Senator Howard H. Baker, Jr., had sent a letter on 11/12/75, to Director Clarence Kelley, requesting FBI inquiry into the breakin of Senator Baker's residence, Washington, D. C., on 8/4-5/75, and the breakin of Senator Mathias' residence. On 11/13/75, Inspector Hotis contacted Baker's office and was advised by the Senator's Assistant Mr. Ron McMahon that no such letter existed.

AUSA CAMPBELL EXPRESSED THE DESIRE THAT THE FBI REOPEN THE INVESTIGATION REGARDING THE BURGLARY OF SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE ON THE POSSIBILITY THAT CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS WERE THE ITEMS BEING SOUGHT. ACCORDINGLY, IT WAS AGREED THAT WFO WOULD MAINTAIN A CLOSE LIAISON WITH THE METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT (MPD), WDC, IN ORDER TO MONITER AND ASSIST IN WHATEVER MANNER POSSIBLE THE PROGRESS OF THE MPD INVESTIGATION. LIAISON WAS IMMEDIATELY ESTABLISHED AND HAS BEEN MAINTAINED ON A FREQUENT BASIS THROUGH THE PRESENT TIME WITH MPD DETECTIVE [REDACTED].

EXCEPT WHERE OTHERWISE INDICATED THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION WAS FURNISHED ON A LIAISON BASIS BY THE MPD, WDC, TO WFO AND SUPPLEMENTS THAT INFORMATION ALREADY KNOWN TO THE BUREAU.

ON A DATE SUBSEQUENT TO THE BURGLARY (EXACT DATE UNKNOWN) AN INDIVIDUAL DELIVERED TO SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE A ONE PAGE HAND WRITTEN LETTER ADDRESSED TO "SENATOR ROBERT BAKER". ATTACHED TO IT WAS A 26 PAGE TYPE WRITTEN "MANUSCRIPT" DESCRIBING THIS PERSON'S PLANS RELATED TO HIS ARREST AND INCARCERATION FOR A DRUG OFFENSE. THE LETTER

WAS SIGNED [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] A COPY OF THESE ITEMS IS BEING MAINTAINED IN THE WFO CASE FILE.

ALTHOUGH [REDACTED] WAS NOT AND STILL IS NOT CONSIDERED
A SUSPECT IN CAPTIONED MATTER BY EITHER THE MPD OR WFO
EFFORTS TO LOCATE HIM HAVE MET WITH NEGATIVE RESULTS.
THE MPD IS PROCEEDING WITH ATTEMPTS TO TOTALLY ELIMINATE

[REDACTED] AS EVEN A POSSIBLE SUSPECT BY COMPARING HIS
KNOWN FINGERPRINTS (A PRIOR ARREST RECORD FOR [REDACTED] EXECUTED IN WDC) WITH LATENT PRINTS DEVELOPED AT THE CRIME
SCENE WITH BOTH SENATOR BAKER'S AND MATHIAS' RESIDENCES.

REVIEW OF THE REFERENCED BALTIMORE REGARDING THE BURGLARY OF SENATOR MATHIAS' RESIDENCE INDICATES THAT SIMILARITIES BETWEEN THE TWO MATTERS ARE NEGLIGIBLE.
IT SHOULD ALSO BE NOTED THAT THE BAKER FAMILY REPORTED
AN ATTEMPTED BURGLARY (A BROKEN WINDOW) ON APRIL 27, 1975.
ACCORDING TO THE MPD, OTHER COMPLAINTS HAVE PREVIOUSLY BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE BAKER FAMILY REGARDING PROWLERS, A BOMB .

THREAT, AND PERSONAL INJURY CALLS.

A REVIEW OF THE MPD DETAIL OFFENSE REPORT FOR THE PERIOD JANUARY 1, 1975, THROUGH OCTOBER 31, 1975, FOR DISTRICT TWO, BEAT 069, CARNEY BLOCK 239, REFLECTS THE FOLLOWING: IT IS NOTED THAT SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE IS WITHIN THIS AREA AND THE NOTED AREA IS COMPRISED OF ROUGHLY AN EIGHT BLOCK RADIUS FROM THE SENATOR'S HOME. OMIT THE TWO INCIDENTS IN 1975 REGARDING SENATOR BAKER'S RESIDENCE, THE PREVIOUSLY DESCRIBED AREA HAS HAD ELEVEN BURGLARIES IN WHICH NOTHING WAS TAKEN ON FIVE OCCASIONS. ENTRY DURING THESE BURGLARIES WAS VARIED AND NO PARTICULAR PATTERNS OF MODUS OPERANDI HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED. WFO HAS ESTABLISHED LIAISON WITH BOB KELLEY OF SENATOR MATHIAS' STAFF BUT HAS BEEN INFORMED BY KELLEY THAT HOWARD LEIBENGOOD OF THE SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE, IS OUT OF TOWN AND WILL NOT RETURN UNTIL NEXT WEEK. KELLEY SUGGESTED THAT CONTACT BY ESTABLISHED WITH MIKE MATTIGAN ALSO OF THAT COMMITTEE, WHO WORKS CLOSELY WITH LEIBENGOOD. THIS LIAISON HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED AND WILL BE MAINTAINED UNTIL CAPTIONED MATTER IS RESOLVED.

END.

On 2/4/76, Detective [REDACTED], Crimes Against Property Unit, Montgomery County Department of Police, (MCDP), Rockville, Maryland advised the MCDP has not made any arrests in this matter.

Detective [REDACTED] said he has been in contact with SENATOR MATHIAS and discussed the MCDP investigation with him.

Detective [REDACTED] said he feels that juveniles are responsible for the burglary but that he has not developed sufficient evidence to specifically charge anyone. Also that local juvenile laws preclude him far from identifying any specific juvenile. He has also discussed this facet of the case with the Senator, who according to [REDACTED] feels satisfied with the investigation efforts.

Dear Fellow American:

Please help me prove that my desire to reform campaign financing is not just "a naive and unreasonable resolution."

Not even the lessons of "Watergate" have caused Congress to pass campaign reform legislation. Therefore, I intend to make my own 1974 campaign for re-election to the Senate a model of a new kind of politics:

- No contributions of more than $100 will be accepted from one person.
- No cash will be accepted or disbursed.
- All contributions will be publicly reported through a single committee.

Some very experienced politicians and a lot of cynics say it won't work. Some say I'm naive to expect people to respond. I know it's risky and that it won't be easy. I believe, however, our political system can work the way it's supposed to.

A statewide U. S. Senate campaign based on small contributions can succeed only if many who have never before given to a political candidate do so now. Won't you be one of the 10,000 contributors we need?

Your check in the $15 to $100 range in the enclosed envelope can go a long way to help. When others look at the politics in Maryland, let's show them a new standard of responsibility that can rekindle their faith in America. Let's not wait on others to lead; let's be the leaders ourselves.

Sincerely,

Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.

P.S. All contributions to this campaign are deductible on your federal tax return (up to $100 on a joint return). I will see to it that you receive a receipt. If you have already contributed, please pass this letter and envelope on to a friend.

NOT PREPARED OR MAILED AT GOVERNMENT EXPENSE

A copy of our report filed with the appropriate supervisory officer will be available for purchase from the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Corporate contributions are prohibited by law. All contributions from individuals under personal contract with the federal government. Pursuant to Senator Mathias' instructions all contributions will be publicly reported. Authority: Samuel Hopkins, Treasurer, Baltimore, Maryland 21218.

Synopsis: [REDACTED] has informed the Department of Justice he received a letter of solicitation from Senator Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. during 1974 while he was on active duty with the U.S. Navy at Patuxent River, Maryland. [REDACTED] was DC md
[REDACTED] for Senator MATHIAS's campaign. He assumed [REDACTED]'s name and address was obtained from a list of physicians available to interested parties including those soliciting funds. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] is sure Senator MATHIAS was aware that solicitation by direct mail was being utilized. The Senator's signature on the letter to [REDACTED] was a manual signature.

DETAILS:

This report contains the results of a limited investigation.

This investigation is predicated upon receipt of a memorandum dated March 27, 1975 from Mr. JOHN G. KEENEY, Acting Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice. Mr. KEENEY advised that the department had received a letter from [REDACTED], indicating that while he was on active duty with the U.S. Navy at Patuxent River, Maryland, he received a letter of solicitation at his duty station signed by Senator CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR.

Mr. KEENEY requested that [REDACTED] of the MATHIAS campaign be interviewed regarding this letter.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 4/10/75

[redacted]
furnished the following information:

[redacted] is [redacted], telephone [redacted]. He was [redacted] of the Senator CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR. campaign for re-election to the U.S. Senate during 1974. The [redacted] was [redacted]. [redacted] handled most of the "book work" and is currently employed on the staff of Senator MATHIAS.

The method of direct mail solicitation was used almost exclusively during Senator MATHIAS's campaign and those receiving this solicitation were informed no contributions over $100 would be accepted. [redacted] is sure Senator MATHIAS was aware of the solicitation by direct mail as this was a subject matter of several meetings attended by those active in the campaign including Senator MATHIAS. The number one guideline was that no violations of law be committed by those active in this campaign.

Mr. DOUGLAS BAILEY and Mr. EARLE PALMER BROWNE, supervised the solicitations. Both of these individuals are in public relations work in Washington, D.C. Mr. BROWNE is associated with Earle Palmer Browne and Associates and [redacted] is not aware of the name of the public relations firm employing Mr. BAILEY. He recalls Mr. BAILEY had previous experience with direct mail solicitation and possibly he was the one who actually obtained various lists that were used.

[redacted] does not know the source of these lists and it is his understanding these lists are available to interested parties including those interested in soliciting funds. He believes the lists primarily relate to professional individuals and there are listings identifying physicians exclusively. He believes these lists to include the address as well as the name of the individual and this was the source from which the name of [redacted] was obtained.

Interviewed on 4/9/75 at Baltimore, Maryland File # BA 56-191

by SA [redacted] /rld Date dictated 4/9/75

BA 56-191

2

[redacted] was shown a copy of a letter of solicitation dated March 27, 1974 addressed to [redacted] signed "CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR.". He said this was a manual signature.

b6
b7C

In conclusion, [redacted] explained again that the number one guideline of the campaign was that no violation of law occur and any violation was "certainly unintentional".

At 8:05 p.m., January 10, 1976, an individual who requested that his identity not be revealed and [REDACTED] employee of [REDACTED], appeared at the Maryland State Police (MSP) Barracks, Cumberland, Maryland, requesting to speak to a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). They were put in contact with a representative of the FBI by the MSP, and they advised as follows:

b6
b7D

[REDACTED] and the individual accompanying her stated that they are both acquainted with [REDACTED] who resides on [REDACTED]. They said that recently they have begun avoiding him as he is becoming increasingly paranoid in that he is obsessed with the idea that Senator CHARLES MC.C MATHIAS has "hit men" out to get him. [REDACTED] has stated in the presence of [REDACTED] and the individual who accompanied her that he was going to "get" the Senator before the Senator's hirelings got him. The individual accompanying [REDACTED] advised further that [REDACTED] owns a rifle and has a brother who is currently under some form of psychiatric treatment.

b6
b7C
b7D

The individual who requested his name not be revealed stated that [REDACTED]'s paranoia apparently began when Senator MATHIAS appeared at a dinner in Cumberland, Maryland, in early 1975. [REDACTED] was in attendance and made eye contact only with the Senator but came away feeling that the Senator was afraid of him and shortly thereafter began to believe he was being followed everywhere he went.

The following interview was conducted with [redacted] was located at his place of employment.

[redacted] He was advised of the identity of Special Agent (SA) [redacted] as a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and of the identity of Trooper First Class (TFC) [redacted], Maryland State Police (MSP), Cumberland, Maryland.

[redacted] was advised that a complaint had been received that he had made threats against the life of Senator CHARLES MC.C MATHIAS and that this was the reason that the interview was necessitated.

[redacted] vehemently denied ever having made any threats against anyone's life stating he could not kill an animal, much less a human being. He admitted to owning a .22 caliber rifle but said he never used it and was going to give it away soon to a relative.

b6
b7C

[redacted] said he has never met Senator MATHIAS personally but attended a Lincoln Day Dinner on February 12, 1975, at the Ali Ghan Shrine Club in Cumberland, Maryland, at which dinner the Senator was present. He said he made eye contact with the Senator across a table, saw fear in his eyes and wondered why the Senator should be afraid of him. Since then he believes he has been followed constantly at the Senator's orders and believes that at least four "man killers" have been sent to the Cumberland area to get him during this period. The latest of these he said is a man using the guise of a hunter, who has been in the area during the past three weeks with a dog and carrying a shotgun. When asked how he could spot a "man killer" [redacted] answered that he has associated with Viet Nam veterans and has learned through contact with them.

[redacted] concluded by stating that although he feared for his life and for those of the killers who had

[REDACTED] On January 24, 1984, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Office of the United States Senator CHARLES MATHIAS, JR.,
George H. Fallon Building, Baltimore, Maryland, telephone number 962-4850, advised that the captioned subject had made two telephonic contacts with the Baltimore Office of Senator MATHIAS on January 24, 1984.
One call was received at approximately 8:35 a.m., and a second call was received at approximately 10:00 a.m., on January 24, 1984. Both telephone messages were brief, somewhat rambling and disjointed, and simply warned the Senator that, "He had better watch out". In both telephone messages [REDACTED] left his name. In neither message did [REDACTED] make a specific threat to the Senator's life.

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] has been known to the office of the Senator since approximately 1980. The office holds an extensive file containing numerous letters from [REDACTED]. In most instances the letters complain of the Postal Services opening [REDACTED] mail and of Baltimore City Police harassment. In addition, the letters which were received mainly in the period 1980 through 1982 mention numerous political figures including United States Senators, local politicians and law enforcement agencies. Specifically, [REDACTED] has mentioned United States Senator PAUL SARBANES, Baltimore City [REDACTED] and Baltimore City Mayor WILLIAM DONALD SCHAEFER. Interviews were conducted with [REDACTED] and three other female employees of Senator MATHIAS' Baltimore Office. In each of the interviews it was determined that [REDACTED] had made no specific threat to the Senator, but had merely made an unspecific warning.

In accordance with plans previously approved by the Bureau, I talked this morning to eleven students from Haverford College who were visiting Washington. This was done by request of the above-captioned congressman. The students were mainly interested in the over-all jurisdiction and operations of the FBI. Additionally, they had a special interest in the problem of communism.

I offered to arrange a tour of the FBI for the students. They said that they would re-examine their schedule to see if they could fit it in. It was obvious that they were very much interested in taking a tour, but the trip for them has been carefully scheduled. Therefore, they do not have much free time left.

LETTERS TO THE STAR

Mr. Mathias on Civil Rights

The Star has been very generous to me in its support of many projects which I have sponsored from time to time. I find it difficult to believe, therefore, that we are as far apart on the question of civil rights legislation as might seem apparent from your editorial of Tuesday, June 4, entitled "Civil Rights Politics."

As a matter of fact we are in perfect agreement on that part of your editorial which said, "This is no time for sham performances in such a grave matter." I heartily concur in this sentiment. I have co-sponsored the civil rights proposals made on June 3, as well as an earlier bill, only because I believe they are absolutely necessary. The original 1963 Republican Civil Rights Bill was both comprehensive and constructive in nature. It was so moderate, in fact, that events proved that more stringent measures were necessary and for that reason we supplemented our proposal with the legislation introduced on Monday, June 3.

What we have proposed in the supplemental bill is, in substance, similar to Part III of the Eisenhower Civil Rights Program which failed to pass the Senate in 1957, in addition to a National Public Accommodations Measure based on the authority of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution. We believe that the Republican Civil Rights Program, as represented by the bills introduced earlier this year and on Monday last, constitute a "well considered civil rights program." We feel that events make it perfectly clear to any reasonable man that some new legislation is necessary, and we think we have proposed the kind of legislation to fill the need.

Republican members of the Judiciary Committee would have been happy to meet with the Attorney General at any time to discuss areas of agreement, and co-operate with respect to civil rights legislation. As far as I know, not a single Republican member of the House Judiciary Committee has been consulted in any way by the Attorney General on the subject of civil rights legislation.

As far as I am personally concerned, it would be a matter of duty to meet at any time with the Attorney General at his request. In the absence of an invitation from him I believe, however, that the proper and constitutional way for me to indicate my views on legislative matters is by the introduction of legislative proposals in the House of Representatives.

In determining if anyone is guilty of a "sham" performance fairness requires that the activities of all those who bear a share of responsibility should be subjected to examination. The President's record of statements with respect to his intentions on the subject of civil rights is exemplary. The Attorney General has likewise made many convincing speeches on this subject. You will recall that in 1960 the President pledged that the first legislation he would recommend to the 87th Congress would be a civil rights bill and he went so far as to confide to the country that, at his request, Senator Clark of Pennsylvania and Congressman Celler of New York were already drafting such a bill. The 87th Congress came and went and no such executive recommendation was transmitted. Early this year the President did make certain recommendations in the field of civil rights, but they have proved to be so obviously inadequate to the present emergency that it is generally expected that he will submit further proposals. On three separate occasions the Attorney General has been scheduled to testify on these proposals before the Judiciary Committee of the House and on each occasion has postponed his appearance; although it is my understanding that we now have a fourth date with him.

In the meantime, the House Judiciary Committee convened civil rights hearings on May 8, 1963, which was approximately the time that the seriousness of the situation in Birmingham was apparent to the whole country. Republican members of the committee withheld advancing further legislative suggestions for nearly a month in the expectation that there could be either a bipartisan, or at least an administration proposal. Neither was forthcoming.

A call from the administration for bipartisanship at this late date would be a little hollow, but would still not go unanswered in view of the vital interests of the Nation which are involved.

This is no time for sham performances in such a grave matter. The Republican members of the House who have felt their responsibility with respect to civil rights believe that the actions they have taken have been restrained, moderate, and in full accord with the conscientious discharge of their legislative duties. If everyone else who has a part to play in this unhappy situation will avoid "sham" it may yet be that the Congress can enact legislation framed with sufficient wisdom and restraint to save the country from an agonizing experience.

Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.,
Member, House of Representatives, 6th District, Maryland.

SUBJECT: CONGRESSMAN CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR.
(R-MD.)

By appointment SA Bowers called on Congressman Mathias, with whom we have had cordial relations in the past on 10/20/66. The Congressman stated he has received information from a newspaperman considered reliable to the effect that there is a definite tie between slot machine operators in Southern Maryland and New York members of La Cosa Nostra.

The Congressman related his information indicates the New York City Police or a District Attorney in New York City has a tape of apparently a telephone conversation between a Cosa Nostra leader in New York and a slot machine operator in Southern Maryland. Reportedly this is a lengthy conversation dealing with business operations but containing one brief passage indicating Cosa Nostra is collecting or has collected funds to be used in the current political campaign in Maryland in support of candidates friendly to the slot machine operators.

Congressman Mathias advised that he felt the above data should be brought to the attention of the Bureau for our information. He has no further information concerning the alleged tape but in the event his source furnishes any additional information or desires to talk to the FBI, he will let us know.

It is to be noted there has been and is a very heated political situation in Maryland involving the phase-out of slot machines. We have no information tying in La Cosa Nostra with the slot machine industry in Maryland. Congressman Mathias is aware of the current publicity involving Joseph Nesline and Charles Touraine, local gamblers who, during the course of their recent trial on charges of gambling in Maryland, indicated they were not in Maryland to open up any illegal gambling operation, but were interested in possibly the opening of a restaurant with legal slot machines.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memorandum be referred to the Special Investigative Division.

Reference is made to my memorandum to you dated 10-24-66 concerning information reported by Congressman Mathias to SA Bowers regarding an alleged taped conversation between a New York La Cosa Nostra member and a slot machine operator in southern Maryland in which the New Yorker reportedly stated that funds had been or were being collected for use in the current political campaign in Maryland to support candidates friendly to the slot machine industry.

On 11-1-66 Congressman Mathias contacted Bowers and stated he has the name of an individual member of the New York City Police Department who reportedly has control of the tape or was responsible for the conversation being recorded. He identified this individual as Sergeant Salerno of the New York Police Intelligence Unit but requested that we endeavor to use this information in such a way as not to jeopardize Salerno's position. The Congressman stated that while he realizes the FBI is rightly limited in the information it can disclose, he would be most appreciative if we could possibly tell him if the alleged tape exists or the reported conversation took place. He commented that the nearness of election day makes the time element most important to him.

The Congressman was thanked for the information and no indication was given to him that we would be able to supply him any data regarding this matter at any time in the future.

The Sergeant Salerno referred to by Congressman Mathias undoubtedly is Sergeant Ralph Salerno of the Central Investigations Bureau of the New York City Police Department. Salerno in recent months has gained considerable publicity as a so-called authoritative spokesman on organized crime. He appeared on the recent NBC "White Paper" on organized crime.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this matter be referred to the Special Investigative Division which already has instructed the New York Office to check concerning the alleged tape.

Captioned program was monitored by an Agent of the Crime Research Section in view of information received that Congressman Charles Mathias (R-Maryland) was to be a guest and in his newsletter dated 2/13/68, he expressed apprehension at the number of records concerning individuals being maintained by the Federal Government.

CHARLES MCC. MATHIAS

During the program, Congressman Mathias made no mention of the matter discussed in the above newsletter.

Senator Daniel Brewster (D-Maryland) was also a guest and, in answer to a question, Senator Brewster said that Congress should outlaw all "private" wire tapping including local police and the FBI. He indicated that he favored a bill which would permit limited wire tapping in matters such as treason and organized crime. In those cases, he advocated allowing wire tapping upon the issuance of process by a court based on definite information as to what law is being violated and being definite as to the time, place, and circumstances of the wire tap.

Bufile 94-62970 reveals Mathias is one of a group of about 40 Republican Congressmen known as the "Wednesday Club." In early '67 these Congressmen were signatories to a statement concerning Federal Organization to Fight Crime which had inaccuracies and was critical of Bureau. Memo R.E. Wick to Mr. DeLoach 3/14/67 reported on a conference 3/13/67 between Bureau officials and some of the Congressmen, including Mathias. The Congressmen's explanations were considered inadequate and the Director commented as to the Congressmen's statements that they had no intention of being critical of the FBI and would not issue any statement designed to bring criticism on the FBI, "They certainly lied."

SUBJECT: PROPOSED STATEMENT CONCERNING
FEDERAL ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT CRIME
PREPARED FOR THE "WEDNESDAY CLUB"
A GROUP OF ABOUT 40 REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN

(copy attached)

By memorandum dated March 14, 1967, our contacts with Congressmen Robert Taft (R-Ohio), Joseph McDade (R-Pa), Charles Mathias (R-Md) and Charles Mosher (R-Ohio) were set forth. The following summarizes their reaction.

Congressman Taft, when confidentially advised of the Bureau's observations concerning the above proposed statement, stated that he was unfamiliar with the details of the report but he has personally assured that there was no intention of being critical of the FBI. He suggested that contact be made with Congressman McDade who is the Chairman of the subcommittee on crime legislation for the "Wednesday Club."

Congressman McDade during the course of our discussion with him also assured us that there was no intention of being critical of FBI operations but pointed out that there is a need for all Federal investigative agencies to conduct their business like the FBI. He was defensive in that he had already signed the statement and explained that the format of the proposal was in question form rather than in statements of fact and that they were merely inquiring as to whether or not there should be more consolidation of Federal investigative authority.

Congressman Mosher raised several questions as to the content of the statement which indicated that he was not at all familiar with it in detail. His reaction was that perhaps the FBI was being oversensitive in that it was not his impression that the statement was critical of the FBI.

that he wished that all law enforcement agencies had the same standards

Reference is made to my memoranda to you dated March 6 and 9, 1967, in captioned matter. The Director approved our contacting Congressman Robert Taft, Jr. (R-Ohio) in connection with an analysis made by us of a 25-page solid typewritten proposed statement concerning crime legislation. The statement had been prepared by Douglas Bailey for consideration by 40 Republican Congressmen who belong to the "Wednesday Club," and was to be issued to the press sometime this month.

Briefly, the 25-page statement called for consolidation of all Federal law enforcement agencies into a single criminal agency in the Department of Justice, separation of the FBI's jurisdiction in internal security and criminal work; it proposed a Research Division of the Department of Justice to study all phases of crime and a coordinating council for crime prevention programs. It commented on the FBI's relative autonomy has resulted in a constantly decreasing ability of the public or Congress to know precisely what it does; it referred to the semi-autonomy of the FBI in the Department as demonstrated by the debate over wiretapping. In general, the document contained many critical statements without any justification.

crime. He stated that Congressman Richard H. Poff (R-Va.) had been instructed by the Republican leadership to write a report on the GOP's answer. In the meantime, Congressman McDade had Douglas Bailey (his researcher), prepare the above-mentioned 25-page document. Both factions were unaware the other was preparing papers relating to the proposed legislation on crime bills in the House.

Congressman Taft on Monday, 3/13/67, was confidentially advised of the Bureau's observations concerning the 25-page statement of the crime study group. It was pointed out there were some mis-statements of fact relating to the FBI which he may wish to consider before the report is given to the press. He agreed to do so, but indicated unfamiliarity with the details of the report and suggested that we talk to Bailey and Congressman McDade. [] had advised us in the meantime that the statement had been distributed to all 40 members of the "Wednesday Club" and possibly to other Republicans. b6 b7C b7D

In view of this, Congressman Poff was contacted and he indicated that neither he nor the Republican leadership was in agreement with the "Wednesday Club's" report. He advised that he had already prepared an analysis of the President's crime message at the instructions of the leadership. He indicated he felt the Administration's legislation was going too fast, too soon with insufficient funds. He advised that the Republican leadership was having a meeting on the afternoon of 3/13/67 to firm up a formal Republican position, based on his analysis. Poff described the "Wednesday Club" as comprised of the liberal wing of the Republican Party and seemingly not controllable by the Republican leadership (Gerald Ford, R-Michigan).

Mr. Poff advised on the morning of 3/14/67 that it has not as yet been decided when the Republican leadership will issue its statement on the President's crime legislation, but that it would be forthcoming either sometime this week or the week of March 20, 1967, and would be directed along entirely different lines than that of the crime study group of the Wednesday Club.

The three signers in addition to Taft of the 25-page proposed statement are Joseph M. McDade (R-Pa.); Charles Mathias (R-Md.); and Charles A. Mosher (R-Ohio). Mr. McDade called me yesterday and asked

Wick to DeLoach Memo, 3/14/67

RE: Proposed Statement Concerning Federal Organization

Group of About 40 Republican Congressmen

that I see him at 5:00 p.m., Monday afternoon, on a confidential basis, since he did not want to be a party to any statement which would be critical of the FBI.

Mr. Daunt and I at 5:00 p.m. yesterday, 3/13/67, did see Mr. McDade in his office, at which time he called in Douglas Bailey, his research man (a former professor from Massachusetts), as well as Congressmen Mosher and Mathias.

We explained the inaccurate references to the FBI in the proposed statement. The men stated they had no intention of being critical of the FBI and certainly would not issue any statement designed to bring criticism on the FBI. Mr. Mosher said he believed we were overly "sensitive" on the matter, that they were raising questions about other Federal agencies and not the FBI, but necessarily had to include the FBI since we are the most prominent Federal agency. The consensus of the Congressmen was that they should go ahead and issue a statement to morning papers of Wednesday, 3/15/67, but they would "water it down" by the technique of asking questions about the needs of reorganizing Federal investigative functions, such as: "How often are two Federal agencies working on the same case without knowing it?" and "Does it make sense for most executive departments to have their own criminal investigation bureaus?" also, "Should not the Director of the FBI be elevated to a rank requiring both Presidential appointment and Senate confirmation?" All questions relating to research into the causes of crime and related matters, questions relating to correction, probation, rehabilitation and pardon matters are included in their release.

We explained to the Congressmen that we were calling upon them solely for the purpose of advising them of some matters included within their report bearing on the FBI which were not correct and they may wish to give these consideration.

We pointed out to the Congressmen that despite the fact the references to the FBI were put in the form of a question rather than a statement of fact without any documentation or justification, the fact, nevertheless, remained that newspapermen will certainly view such references to the FBI as critical.

Wick to DeLoach Memo, 3/14/67

RE: Proposed Statement Concerning Federal Organization to fight Crime Prepared for the "Wednesday Club," A Group of About 40 Republican Congressmen

OBSERVATIONS:

There is no doubt but that the liberal Republican group comprising the "Wednesday Club" are out to obtain all the publicity they can get. Congressman Mathias said his group will vote for the President's legislation on crime but "We are looking for an issue and we found it in Federal organization." It was apparent that none of the Congressmen, with the exception of Chairman McDade, is completely familiar with the 25-page statement they have signed and intend to issue for publication Wednesday morning, 3/15/67. They are looking for headlines. For instance, Congressman Taft, in commenting upon the need for a Provost General within the Department of Justice to compel information sharing as proposed in the statement, explained that this was directed at Social Security information, business information in the Department of Commerce and income tax data. We explained to the Congressman the FBI's exchange of information with police agencies and he said that they had no intention of being critical about this aspect of the FBI's work, and that their proposal is directed at all Federal investigative agencies who have no control over the information which he discussed above. Congressman Mosher said that at no point in this statement is it stated that confusion, competition and duplication exists among Federal investigative agencies. We pointed out to Congressmen McDade, Mosher and Mathias that such a statement appears on page 2 of their statement under the phrasing "Our preliminary study has nonetheless provided ample examples of confusion, competition and duplication to justify many times over our recommendation for a broad-ranging Congressional investigation of the Federal Government's organization to combat crime." The men, nevertheless, reiterated that this was more or less posed as a question. I told the men that insofar as the FBI is concerned, there is no confusion, competition and duplication.

[redacted] advised me late last evening that the "Wednesday Club" leadership had intended to have a press conference today, 3/14/67, on this matter, but has canceled it. Instead, they are mailing out 800 copies of the attached 7-page revised statement which will be signed by several Congressmen, perhaps, in addition to McDade, Mathias, Taft and Mosher, who were primarily responsible for having it drawn.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN:

This matter will be followed closely.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED STATEMENT CONCERNING

My memorandum of March 6, 1967, advised of a document, captioned as above, which was prepared for consideration by 40 Republican Congressmen who belong to the "Wednesday Club." The document was prepared by a staff assistant, namely Douglas Bailey.

Summary of Detailed Analysis

The author of this document is naive and uninformed and certainly is no friend of the FBI. The whole proposal, namely "Federal Organization to Fight Crime" is built on a false premise. Applauding the President's Crime Message, even though tardy, the author of this proposal suggests that the President has overlooked the fact that there can be no comprehensive attack on the crime rate until all Federal criminal investigative agencies are centralized in one. This is unrealistic simply because Federal investigative effort was never intended to combat the common local crime problem. The Federal investigative agencies have little jurisdictional control over the 3 million serious crimes committed in the U.S. in 1966 or the 6 1/2 million arrests which local and state police made on a national basis.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: Proposed Statement Concerning
Federal Organization to Fight Crime

The Administration's crime bill and all similar crime bills in Congress call for a new Federal role that has never existed before, namely financial aid to the states, research and the coordination of information. In addition, the author ignores the diverse nature of Federal law and the inefficiency that results from the loss of management controls in "monster" agencies. The author claims that recent debates over wire-tapping show the extent to which the FBI is a semi-autonomous agency. He ignores published testimony of the Director and the documentation which establishes the FBI's use of wiretapping was done with the full knowledge of all Attorneys General, as well as under carefully controlled conditions. Gratuitous statements are made of jealousies, competition, suspicion, lack of communication, etc., between Federal agencies and in not one instance are these charges factually supported.

The report suggests the separation of Federal criminal investigative functions from internal security and personnel security investigations. He overlooks the fact that these responsibilities were legislated by Congress or are done at the direction of the President. He is obviously unaware of the fact that they frequently overlap and our daily liaison with local police on criminal matters contributes to a successful exchange and cooperative arrangements in the internal security function. The author suggests that the FBI's relative autonomy results in a constantly decreasing ability of the public or the Congress to know precisely what it does. This is, of course, ridiculous. The FBI is unique in exposing to the public through public information programs just what its responsibilities are and its effectiveness in dealing with these responsibilities. The Director's Appropriations testimony and correspondence with members of the Congress are testimony to frank and open exchange.

The author's discussion of the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports is evidence of his ignorance. He makes the statement that while the FBI is provided funds annually for a program of public information it is not notably successful. As a case in point, merely to refute this briefly: The only documentation to justify the national crime problem, the establishment of the President's Crime Commission and to support the current crime legislative proposals is the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports. Almost without exception the only

DETAILS

FEDERAL ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT CRIME

This proposal is generally naive and is built on a false premise. On page 1 it is stated "a comprehensive Federal effort to lower the crime rate can be truly effective only with a major reorganization of the Federal Government's departments, agencies, and bureaus charged with the task. Today that organization is a mess."

Comment

Traditionally and historically law enforcement in this country has been the responsibility of local governments and states. The crime problem is local in nature and can only be dealt with by local agencies. The Federal investigative agencies were never designed to deal with the voluminous murder, rape, burglary, robbery, auto theft, sex offenses, narcotics, fraudulent checks, etc. Federal legislation was passed to assist local law enforcement with respect to those crimes where state boundaries were crossed which required a greater continuity of investigation. Other Federal legislation was passed for specific crime problems such as broad conspiracy-type matters and, particularly, aggravated situations such as bank robberies, kidnaping, etc.

However, while the FBI successfully investigates and solves bank robberies, bank robbery makes up less than 1 percent of the total robberies committed in the United States. While the FBI does an efficient job in investigating interstate transportation of stolen motor vehicles, this type of car theft is only 5 percent of the more than 500,000 auto thefts in this country. Federal investigative agencies make approximately 50,000 arrests per year for Federal violations. Local and state police make over 6 million arrests for criminal acts not including traffic offenses. Federal law enforcement agencies have insignificant jurisdictional control over the 3 million serious crimes of violence and against property committed in 1966.

In short, the Federal investigative agencies have never been "charged" with the task of lowering the "crime rate." In fact, the present legislative proposals do not place such a charge on the Federal investigative agencies. What is proposed is financial assistance to local law enforcement, research and the coordination of information.

On pages 2, 3 and 4 the proposal in question describes the Federal investigative method of 20 law enforcement agencies as one of confusion, competition, duplication, chaos, and one of poor communication and self-defeating jealousies.

Comment

On its face such undocumented generalizations are without any basis in fact. While there is always room for consolidation, particularly as new responsibilities are added to the investigative agencies by Congress, Federal criminal law is highly specialized and sharply defined.

The legal areas of Federal investigative jurisdiction are supplemented by bilateral memoranda of understanding so that there is no confusion as to responsibility among the agencies themselves. The FBI maintains daily liaison with other agencies. Again, Federal investigative agencies are not organized to combat local crime but, rather, to enforce Federal laws.

As the Director of the FBI has pointed out on many occasions, it is unlikely that a single monster Federal investigative agency could operate with efficiency or as effectively in enforcing the diverse nature of Federal law.

The real problem is, again, at local level where there are 40,000 investigative agencies through the village constable, municipal police, county sheriff, state police, state bureaus, park police, etc. The crime problem is the responsibility of these agencies and the problem of multiplicity of jurisdiction is within the state.

On page 5 a statement is made that a comprehensive approach to organized crime and narcotics enforcement at the Federal level require the full cooperation of a number of agencies and these are set forth.

Comment

This, of course, is a fact, but the point is that one agency has primary responsibility and the data collected by another agency on organized crime or narcotics is a by-product of their defined jurisdiction. For instance, the contribution of the Postal Inspector to organized crime is intelligence that is a by-product of their highly specialized Postal law violations.

A similar charge is made with respect to a number of training schools that are maintained by the Federal law enforcement agencies such as the Bureau of Narcotics and the FBI. Again, the training schools for local law enforcement officers put on by the FBI and the Federal Bureau of Narcotics involve vastly different specialized courses.

On page 6 a statement is made that although the FBI is within the Department of Justice, "recent debates over wire tapping procedures have shown the FBI maintains an informal semi-autonomy from administration regulation."

Comment

This statement is without any basis in fact. Mr. Hoover's testimony as well as documentation has clearly shown that the FBI's use of wire tapping was done with the full knowledge of the Attorneys General and under controlled conditions.

On page 7 the statement is made that the President's Message to Congress on crime did not resolve any of these "severe" Federal organization problems. "On the contrary, the proposals in the message, regardless of their individual merit, merely impose new structural problems on top of the existing chaos."

Comment

In the first place, the author has not established any case with respect to the investigative functions of the Federal agencies. Furthermore, the proposed legislation suggests new responsibilities such as financial assistance to the states for law enforcement purposes, research, and other programs which are new to the Federal role. The proposed legislation spells out some means of administering such programs, but what new responsibilities may fall upon Federal investigative agencies are not clear at this time.

On pages 9 and 10 the recommendation is made that all criminal law enforcement agencies of the Federal Government should be replaced by a single criminal law enforcement agency within the Department of Justice.

Comment

As pointed out earlier, this proposal is just not responsive to the national crime problem. In itself, the recommendation is an oversimplification. While some consolidation is made from time to time, this broad brush approach is full of pitfalls. The statements concerning unhealthy competition, duplication of effort, suspicion, confusion, distrust, are simply mudslinging.

The conclusion that one large centralized agency would result in a savings of money and better restraint so that the interest of the public could be safeguarded is not valid. It comes down to the fact that management of a small organization versus a large organization is considerably more likely to maintain control and restraints on personnel. While one might save money in avoiding duplication of certain administrative staff, the loss of management controls in a large organization result in lower efficiency and offset any savings.

On page 10A it is suggested that routine criminal investigation and law enforcement should be entirely separated from national security and personnel security investigations. It alleges that the internal security jurisdiction is used to involve Federal agencies in matters that local agencies may not "welcome."

Comment

The FBI's success in the internal security field has, to a large extent, been the result of its close liaison on a daily basis with local and state law enforcement agencies in criminal matters of mutual interest. These same agencies are also alert to internal security problems and, as a result, a close working relationship exists in a common effort of national defense.

There is no abuse of this internal security responsibility on the part of the FBI. Personnel security investigations conducted by the FBI are limited to high level Administration individuals at the request of the President. Other personnel security investigations conducted by the FBI are done only when information of an internal security character is developed on the prospective employee. There is, then, a definite relationship between this type personnel security investigation and the FBI's responsibility for internal security matters.

On page 12 a statement is made "For example, the FBI's relative autonomy has resulted in a constantly decreasing ability of the public or the Congress to know precisely what it does."

Comment

This is a completely unjustified statement without one iota of fact being presented. The FBI's public information programs, tours, speaking engagement, publications, etc., are a model of exposure to the public as to just what its responsibilities are and its effectiveness in dealing with these responsibilities. The Director of the FBI has been forthright in all of his appropriations testimony and correspondence with members of Congress who are interested in any activity carried on by the FBI.

It is suggested on page 12 that through the centralization of the Federal investigative effort in one agency the proven checks and balances of the Government would be greatly enhanced. This is contrary to fact. Decentralization obviously provides more checks and balances. As far as improving the cooperation and coordination with state and local agencies, the fact is that local law enforcement and the FBI enjoy the highest degree of cooperation. While the author of this paper is concerned with the "relative autonomy" of the FBI, in recommending a corrections service within the Department of Justice, stress is placed on the need for this new agency to have independence.

On pages 14 and 15 where recommendations are made in connection with a research division within the Department of Justice. The purpose of the division is to conduct research concerning crime and criminal behavior and to centralize information on such studies.

Comment

This was a recommendation of the President's Crime Commission and would be a new role for the Department of Justice. The author is overoptimistic of the potential of this research and what it can produce. He is also uninformed because considerable research has been conducted in the area of crime and criminal behavior at colleges and universities, as well as in public agencies. What has not been conducted is not due to the lack of funds or the lack of technique but rather because of the lack of data and our lack of knowledge about human behavior. The statistical data that is lacking falls under the area of courts, corrections and parole and probation authorities. Only local law enforcement in cooperation with the FBI has provided any significant information on crime and criminals.

On page 15 the recommendation is made that the new division of research should establish its own system of crime statistics to replace the inadequate program now operated by the FBI. It is alleged that the FBI's program is inadequate because local law enforcement agencies do not consistently apply FBI regulations in reporting crime and also because the data collected is limited to "the reporting of offenses committed."

Comment

Again, the author of this paper is uninformed on the facts. The Crime Commission recommended that a new office be established within the Department of Justice to collect statistics from the courts, prisons and jails and parole and probation authorities throughout the country. The only nationwide collection of criminal statistics in this country is produced by local law enforcement in cooperation with the FBI and are published in Uniform Crime Reports. An attempt to collect national court statistics in this country "fell on its face" in 1945 because of a lack of cooperation between local courts. The Crime Commission report recognized this fact and pointed out the need to collect data from these other areas and that it be closely coordinated with the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports.

The FBI regulations referred to by the writer are apparently the standard definitions of crime which are necessary in a national program. In order to overcome the wide variation in state law as to the definition of each crime, common definitions were established. The police in this country conform to these definitions in reporting crimes to the FBI. The same procedure of common definitions will have to be applied in any forthcoming national collection of court, correctional, etc., statistics.

The point is that the full collection of criminal justice statistics in this country is inadequate but this is no criticism but rather a tribute that only the police through the FBI provide nationwide statistics.

With regard to the statement that FBI statistics are "inadequate" because they are limited to "the reporting of offenses committed," the author has fallen into a trap of the uninformed. The fact that all crime is not reported to police agencies by citizens was established 37 years ago when the Uniform Crime Reporting Program was initiated. Some alleged experts have now "rediscovered" this fact. Uniform Crime Reports are limited to the extent to which citizens report crimes to the police. The extent to which they are not reported to the police by citizens is interesting but academic. The point is that police statistics are administrative by nature and only those offenses reported to them are what they must concern themselves with in terms of crime control and manpower needs.

On pages 15 and 16 it is suggested that more analyses and interpretation should be made of statistics and an FBI Agent is not necessarily qualified to undertake such meaningful analysis. The FBI has over the years furnished to sociologists, colleges and universities both published and unpublished data for their analysis and study. The FBI has then provided the raw data as a service to the social scientists. In addition, the FBI conducts its own studies with personnel who have competent backgrounds to make meaningful analyses. Anyone who has ever had any experience with the collection of mass data for statistical purposes knows that the most competent person to judge the limitations and the proper use of the data are those involved in the collection from local agencies.

On page 16 it is stated that "the FBI is provided funds annually for a program of public information but it has not been notably successful."

Comment

This is ridiculous. The only documented source to justify the establishment of a President's Crime Commission, as well as the current proposed crime legislation in Congress is the FBI's Uniform Reports. A review of the President's Crime Commission report indicates that almost without exception the source of all statistics are the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports or other FBI statistical studies. Apparently the author of this paper has never heard of the FBI's monthly Law Enforcement Bulletin and the numerous other publications and articles by Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The Appendix developed by the author of this paper attempts to show present Federal Government organization and is filled with inaccuracies, omissions and obvious misclassifications.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

At a debate last week in Maryland, Senator Brewster and I were asked to comment on a statement purporting to have been made by Senator McCarthy and relating to termination of your services as Director of the F.B.I. I have been disturbed by some of the partial quotations, taken out of context, that distort what I actually said.

Fortunately, the Evening Star made a reasonably accurate report and I am glad to enclose a copy for your information.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

My dear Congressman:

I received your letter of September 25th and the attached newspaper clipping. It was certainly thoughtful of you to furnish this.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: The newspaper article is from the "Washington Star" of 9-18-68. Congressman Mathias was elected to Congress in November, 1960, and we have enjoyed cordial relations with him. Senator Daniel B. Brewster (D-Maryland) was elected to Senate November, 1962. In October, 1965, he was critical of the Director cancelling a lecture by an FBI representative at University of Maryland in which Bayard Rustin was also to appear. Rustin is well known to the Bureau as an ex-convict, moral degenerate and an admitted former member of Young Communist League. Director instructed Mr. DeLoach to note "After you have explained to Brewster reasons for cancellation of FBI speaker and Brewster told you he would not appear on platform with such a 'bastard' (Brewster's words), he attacked me in the press and writes me for an explanation as to cancellation. Just how low ~~can~~ a politician sink."

UNSCATHED AT CONFRONTATION

Brewster, Mathias Field Questions

By MARTHA ANGLI
Star Staff Writer

Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, D-Md., and his Republican challenger, Rep. Charles McC. Mathias, both emerged relatively unscathed last night from the first in a series of planned campaign confrontations.

Appearing before a politically alert audience of about 300 in Silver Spring, the two candidates fielded a battery of questions about their views on issues ranging from Vietnam and crime to congressional ethics.

For the most part, differences between the two men appeared to be a matter of degree rather than basic philosophy. Neither could claim a clear victory from the exchange of views, although Mathias appeared to win a slight edge in audience applause.

With newspaper columnist Jack Anderson funneling questions from the audience, the queries became distinctly pointed on several occasions — especially in regard to congressional ethics.

Financial Questions

Anderson challenged both Brewster and Mathias to tell the audience whether they had made personal financial disclosure statements and if not, to reveal their financial worth on the spot.

Mathias sailed through this test by explaining he had already made a full public disclosure of his financial status. He added that during his eight years in Congress, his income as a private attorney has averaged no more than about $2,000 a year.

Brewster conceded he has made "no detailed public statement on my net worth or investments." He said that "because of my birth I have inherited certain reasonably substantial properties and trusts."

Despite prodding from Anderson, Brewster did not put a price tag on his net worth but noted that beginning in January, all senators will be required to file statements with the Senate listing their assets and outside financial interests.

Not Available to Public

Anderson promptly reminded the audience that such statements are to be open to scrutiny only by the Senate, and will not be available to the press and public.

On Vietnam, Mathias said he still favors a plan of "gradual reciprocal identifiable de-escalation" which he and several other congressmen proposed 14 months ago.

He suggested that the Johnson Administration has missed several "signals" from North Vietnam and the Viet Cong indicating a willingness to de-escalate the conflict and said:

"This is still the road we must travel. We must look for signals, take opportunities as they are presented and get this war and this killing over with."

Brewster said the United States "must make abundantly clear to all the world that we seek no military victory but that we will stand by our word, and to the extent of our national interest, will oppose aggression."

Would Use U.N. More

He urged pursuit of the Paris negotiations, a greater use of the United Nations and vigorous exploitation of all diplomatic channels to world capitals "both friendly and enemy."

He cautioned, however, that the U.S. should not "cave in only to be forced to fight another day on another battlefield under less advantageous conditions."

Questioned about the disorders at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago last month, Brewster condemned both the violence of the "vicious, militant hard-core agitators" and "thoroughly irresponsible and vicious" police beatings of newsmen and demonstrators.

Mathias suggested that one way to eliminate dissent "is to eliminate the just causes of dissent," mentioning specifically that "we do have an unjust draft law." His comment drew loud applause.

Calls Drugs One Cause

On the crime issue, Mathias said that "a lot of the root of the problem lies with narcotics and drugs. Young people get the habit, and to feed it, they steal purses, cars, anything."

He said organized crime is behind much of the narcotics traffic in this country and charged that the Justice Department's organized crime and rackets division has "decreased its efforts since the late Robert F. Kennedy was attorney general."

Mathias urged that this agency be "beefed up," and also called for improvements in the "quality and quantity" of law enforcement at every level of government.

The 6th District Republican said the crime problem has been around "for many years" but used to be contained in the center city, "where the official attitude of those in charge too often was that if they do it to themselves, we're not going to worry too much."

Brewster Urges Attack

Brewster agreed that an "all-out attack on syndicated crime" is necessary and also urged heavier fines, more and better judges, a reformed bail bond system and "certain types of firearms control."

Both candidates endorsed the watered-down gun control legislation now pending in Congress. Brewster, who co-sponsored a much stronger bill calling for licensing and registration, now said he believes such provisions should be included in state, not federal, legislation.

Mathias did not mention either licensing or registration of firearms.

Both men were asked whether they thought FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover should be fired, as Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., suggested during his campaign for his party's presidential nomination.

Brewster declined to discuss Hoover specifically, but drew laughter and applause when he said: "As a general proposition, there comes a time in all men's lives when it is time to retire and rest on one's laurels."

Happy Hours Wished

Mathias said that to fire Hoover "would be an ill reward to a citizen who has served his country long and well," but added: "Mr. Hoover does have some favorite pastimes. He's one of the greatest fans of the turf in this country, and I wish him many long and happy hours at the track when he should choose to take them."

In a discussion of congressional reform, Mathias criticized the seniority system as the "dead hand on Congress" and urged that committee chairmanships be made elective. Alternatively, he said, committee members rather than chairmen should decide the positioning of bills on the docket.

Brewster conceded he has found the seniority system to have "slightly more appeal with each passing year," and said that "in the absence of a better proposal, it does lend order."

Last night's confrontation was sponsored by the Capitol Lodge of B'nai B'rith. Several more meetings of the two candidates are planned and former Democrat George P. Mahoney, running for the Senate as an independent, is expected to join in at least one debate in the future.

SUBJECT: CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR. (R)
SENATOR-ELECT--MARYLAND

SYNOPSIS:

On 11-5-68 Republican Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., of Frederick defeated incumbent Senator Daniel B. Brewster. Mathias had been in the United States Congress, representing Maryland's 6th District, since 1961. During his tenure as a congressman we have had favorable relations with Mathias. He has referred numerous constituent matters to the Bureau and has requested speakers and various reprints from time to time. Mathias was a member of the "Wednesday Club," a group of about 40 Republican Congressmen, which issued a proposed statement regarding a Federal organization to fight crime. As a result, Repr. Mathias, as well as several other members of the group, was contacted and various inconsistencies and inaccuracies in the statement were pointed out to him, particularly the inaccurate reference to the FBI. Mathias and the other men stated that they had no intention of being critical of the FBI in the proposed statement and certainly would not issue any statement designed to bring criticism of the FBI. The Director noted, "These members are totally ignorant as to the meaning of the King's English. Their statement was inaccurate and hostile as to the FBI."

In March, 1968, Repr. Mathias and Senator Brewster appeared on a TV program at which it had been alleged he would make statements concerning the FBI. This program was monitored and Repr. Mathias made no mention of such matters although Senator Brewster, in answer to a question, said that Congress should outlaw all "private" wire tapping, including local police and FBI. On 9-18-68 the "Washington Post" contained a news item entitled "Mathias-Brewster: Genteel Debate by Think-Alikes" which indicated Maryland's two major party candidates for the United States Senate fenced with each other and a dozen campaign issues but found themselves in basic agreement more often than not. The article stated that both Repr. Mathias and Senator Brewster called for peace in Vietnam, recognizing the need for safer streets and paid obeisance to J. Edgar Hoover. The article further indicated that each, asked their views by columnist Jack Anderson, the moderator, simply hinted that "the aging FBI chief might soon wish to retire of his own accord."

RE: CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR. (R)

BIOGRAPHICAL:

On 11-5-68 Republican Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., of Frederick defeated incumbent Senator Daniel B. Brewster. Mathias, who was born 7-24-22 at Frederick, attended Haverford College, Yale University, and received his LL. B. degree from the University of Maryland. He has served as Assistant Attorney General of Maryland; City Attorney of Frederick; and as a member of Maryland's General Assembly. He is a member of the United States Naval Reserve and was on active duty, 1942-46. Mathias was first elected to the 87th Congress on 11-8-60 and has been re-elected to each succeeding Congress.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

During his tenure as a Congressman we have had favorable relations with Mathias. He has referred numerous constituent matters to the Bureau and has requested speakers and various reprints from time to time.

Repr. Mathias is a member of the "Wednesday Club," a group of about 40 Republican Congressmen who, in 1967, ^{prepared a} document entitled "Proposed Statement Concerning Federal Organization to Fight Crime." This document applauded the President's crime message but suggested the President had overlooked the fact that there can be no comprehensive accuracy of the crime rate until all Federal criminal investigating agencies ^{are} centralized into one. An analysis of this document revealed that its author was naive and uninformed and no friend of the FBI. His discussion of the FBI Uniform Crime Reports revealed his ignorance. On 3-13-67 representatives of the FBI contacted several members of the group, including Mathias, and pointed out the inconsistencies and inaccuracies in the statement and explained the inaccurate references to the FBI. These men stated they had no intention of being critical of the FBI in the proposed statement and certainly would not issue any statement designed to bring criticism of the FBI. One of these Congressmen indicated he believed the FBI was overly sensitive and that they were raising questions about other Federal agencies and not the FBI, but necessarily had to include the FBI since we are the most prominent Federal agency. It was the consensus of the Congressmen that they should go ahead ^{out} and issue a statement but that they would "water it down." It was pointed ^{out} to them that, even so, newsmen would certainly take the view that the references to the FBI were critical. The Director noted, "These members are totally ignorant as to the meaning of the King's English. Their statement was inaccurate and hostile as to the FBI."

M. A. Jones to Bishop memo
RE: CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR. (R)

On 3-6-68 Miss Nina Kauffman of WRC-TV, NBC station in D. C., telephoned and indicated that on 3-11-68 they would have as their guest on the daily interview program entitled "Capital Tieline," Repr. Mathias. She stated in a recent newsletter issued by Mathias he alleged that the FBI maintains numerous records on citizens of the United States, such as income tax records, records of savings accounts, medical histories, psychiatric histories, etc. His newsletter deplored this accumulation of intimate details of personal lives. She advised that Mathias' newsletter and information in it would be the subject of discussion on the program and invited a representative of the FBI to appear to discuss this matter on the program. A copy of the newsletter was obtained and Miss Kauffman was subsequently advised that since the newsletter made no reference whatsoever to the FBI we would have no desire to have a representative appear on the program with Repr. Mathias to discuss it. (The newsletter actually discussed types of information regarding citizens maintained by all Federal agencies.) The TV program was monitored, however, and while Mathias expressed apprehension at the number of records on individuals being maintained by the Federal Government, he made no mention of the FBI. Senator Brewster, also a guest, in answer to a question said that Congress should outlaw all "private" wire tapping, including the police and FBI.

The "Washington Post" of 9-18-68 contained a news item entitled "Mathias-Brewster: Genteel Debate by Think-Alikes" which indicated Maryland's two major party candidates for the United States Senate fenced with each other and a dozen campaign issues but found themselves in basic agreement more often than not. The article stated that both Repr. Mathias and Senator Brewster called for peace in Vietnam, recognizing the need for safer streets and paid obeisance to J. Edgar Hoover. The article further indicated that each, asked their views on Hoover by columnist Jack Anderson who moderated the candidates' forum, simply hinted that "the aging FBI chief might soon wish to retire of his own accord."

My dear Senator:

Your letter of December 11th, with enclosure, has been received.

With respect to your constituent's inquiry about an article in a recent issue of "Time" magazine, I can assure you that there is not one shred of truth to the unfounded accusation that the FBI paid members of the Ku Klux Klan to persuade another Klan member to dynamite the home of a Jewish businessman in Meridian, Mississippi.
This is an absolute falsehood. We definitely do not engage in entrapment.

These false charges have caused a number of responsible citizens to contact me. I wrote to the Editor in Chief of this magazine calling to his attention the serious misstatements of fact in this article and my letter appears in the December 21st issue.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Division, was sharing a motel room with SLED Chief Strom.

When Bass and Nelson submitted their manuscript to World, the publishers sent out a promotional release emphasizing the criticism of the FBI. Two days later, Bass was asked by an FBI friend in Columbia if he could photocopy the book for "Mr. Hoover." Bass agreed, and was soon rewarded by a long, furious letter from FBI Boss J. Edgar Hoover. "The book is so biased in its attempt to smear the FBI," said an angry Hoover, "that it raises serious questions as to the competence and objectivity of the authors." After a rebuttal by Bass, Hoover signed off a second letter with "[Your book] reminds me of the 'scissors-and-paste' method of writing and arguing. As you certainly are familiar with this particular method, there is no need of my elaborating upon it."

The book smacks more of hard work than of paste; besides, there was precious little published material about Orangethumb to cut up. Bass plans no further reply to Hoover. As for Nelson, he has not heard from Hoover at all.

Muckraker's Progress

The fact that J. Edgar Hoover addressed his complaints about The Orangethumb Massacre only to Jack Bass is no mere coincidence. The FBI stopped talking to Jack Nelson last year—an acknowledgment of his more than 20 years of extraordinary muckraking in the South.

Nelson began the practice as soon as he got out of high school in Biloxi, Miss., in 1947. As a reporter for the Biloxi Daily Herald, he probed the city's gambling so effectively that it was finally investigated by Senator Estes Kefauver's peripatetic investigating committee. In 1953, at the Atlanta Constitution, he wrote a devastating exposé of vice and corruption in Hinesville, Ga. Directly or indirectly, his story resulted in so many grand jury indictments (44) of Hinesville's citizens that when Nelson turned up to cover the proceedings, he was mobbed by the townspeople. Spread-eagled across the hood of a car by a deputy sheriff while the locals yelled for his blood, Nelson appealed to a passing judge to arrest his attacker. "What's the name of your assailant?" asked the judge. When Nelson confessed he didn't know, the judge said, "Sorry. I can't write out an arrest warrant without a name." A Hinesville policeman finally saved him from lynching, though not from eventual arrest by vengeful deputies, who charged him with, among other things, raping B-girls.

Operating Nurses. After Hinesville, Nelson zeroed in on lottery rings, voting frauds, gambling, prostitution and governmental corruption. Once, when his sleuthing turned up a long-missing road scraper that the Georgia Bureau of Investigation had been unable to find, the Constitution published a map showing the GBI where it could find its machine. Next day the GBI sheepishly picked it up and charged a guilty contractor several thousand dollars for "renting" state property.

In 1959 Nelson wrote a series of articles charging Milledgeville (Ga.) Central State Hospital with using experimental drugs on mental patients without the permission or knowledge of relatives, hiring doctors who used alcohol and drugs on duty, even letting nurses perform major surgery when doctors were absent. The resulting furor ended with the resignation of Milledgeville's chief surgeon and seven other doctors. The hospital superintendent retired, and the hospital was removed from the jurisdiction of the graft-ridden public welfare department and transferred to the public health department. Nelson's Milledgeville exposé won him a Pulitzer Prize "for distinguished local reporting under deadline pressure."

Sour Relations. In 1965, after a series of pieces on Georgia marriage mills, Nelson was hired by the Los Angeles Times. He opened a Times bureau in Atlanta where he concentrated on civil rights. During the 1960s he had admired the FBI. Says he, "If the threat of the FBI hadn't been around, it could have been a lot worse for civil rights workers." But last February the relationship soured. Nelson had learned that the FBI had given two Ku Klux Klansmen $36,500 to persuade Kathy Ainsworth, a fellow Kluxer, to dynamite the home of a Jewish businessman in Meridian, Miss. When Mrs. Ainsworth appeared with her dynamite, a gun battle ensued during which she was shot to death by Meridian policemen. Nelson's story of entrapment and the use of agents provocateurs raised more moral and legal questions than the FBI was prepared to answer. Ever since, Nelson has been on the FBI's list of untouchable people.

Chancellor of the Exchequer

Some day, somebody like Ralph Ginzburg will publish the best promotions of Ralph Ginzburg. It will include blurbs for Eros, the hard-cover quarterly "devoted to the joys of love"; Fact, the magazine that would "not hesitate to ask 'Where are the emperor's clothes?'" and Avant-Garde, the journal pledged to generate "an orgasm of the mind." And it will certainly include Ginzburg's pitches for his newest publishing venture, a consumer newsletter called Moneysworth.

Full-page ads appearing in magazines and newspapers across the country carry the boldface head: YOU'RE BEING ROBBED! The text explains: "Commercial flimflam is rife throughout the nation and the American consumer is being victimized as never before." What to do about it? Subscribe, says the ad, to Moneysworth, "your own personal consumer

* Only Avant-Garde survives. Eros ended in 1963, after four issues. Its brief life contributed to Ginzburg's being convicted of pandering through the mails (an appeal is still pending). Fact folded in 1967, three years after Barry Goldwater initiated a libel suit that eventually cost Ginzburg nearly $92,000.

crusade" trusted stockbroker, and chancellor of the exchequer—all in one." Some 80,000 people have already forked over $5 for a "special, introductory" one-year subscription to the fortnightly. Question is, are they getting their money's worth?

In its skimpy four pages, the first issue carries only three of the 100 items touted by the ads. One piece tells how to buy a new car for just $125 more than dealer's cost, a tale oft told since 1965, when the system was first devised. Another is a cursory compilation of already available information on legal abortions. A "hard look" at the best buys in 35-mm. cameras neglects to explain the basis for the ratings.

Forthcoming issues promise to be no better. "Moneysworth's investigators,"

He had the use of a Pinto, which gets top rating, for just two hours. And, though Julty is a former automobile mechanic and service manager, he merely looked under the hoods at the engines. "I would call my report," he says, "a poor man's version of what Consumer Reports does. I did not have the facilities to do a comprehensive job. I wish I had."

Julty may never get them working for Moneysworth. Sitting in his Manhattan office behind a door marked DANGER!! HIGH VOLTAGE!! Ginzburg twits the techniques of the nation's leading consumer publication. "Consumer Reports sometimes leaves the reader more confused than when he started," he said. "They overload him with conflicting facts. They still leave the choice to the reader. We don't—we make it for him."

[Redacted] in the Office of Herbert E. Hoffman, Chief, Legislative and Legal Section, Office of the Deputy Attorney General, telephonically requested this date that a copy of the NCIC Operating Manual be forwarded Mr. Hoffman for Senator Mathias. She further asked that this request be handled as soon as possible. The request for the Manual at this time is obviously in connection with a previous request handled by Hoffman's office from Senator Mathias for detailed information on the Justice Department's activities in data processing. According to this previous request in July, 1970, Senator Mathias was particularly interested in the safeguards employed to protect individual privacy in these systems.

By letter from the Director to Mr. Hoffman dated 8-3-70 material was furnished for Senator Mathias and it was pointed out in this letter that the other information requested could be obtained from information previously furnished Hoffman in answer to a similar inquiry from Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr. (D - North Carolina). An NCIC Operating Manual had previously been given Senator Ervin.

NCIC Operating Manuals are made available to all law enforcement agencies throughout the United States and dissemination is made normally on a need-to-know basis in connection with law enforcement matters. Attached letter to Mr. Hoffman encloses a Manual for Senator Mathias.

FROM : W. E. Bishop

SUBJECT: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
BOMBING OF DORCHESTER COUNTY COURTHOUSE
CAMBRIDGE, MARYLAND
3-11-70

The above courthouse was bombed by unknown subjects on the above captioned date. We advised the Department of this, but no request for investigation has yet been received by the Department. We have offered to cover out of state leads for local authorities, and have offered the facilities of the Laboratory and Identification Divisions.

On 11:20 a.m., 3-11-70, William Mills, Administrative Assistant in the Office of Congressman Morton (R.-Md.) advised that the Congressman and Senator Charles Mathias, Jr., (R.-Md.) are immediately proceeding to Cambridge, Maryland, by chartered plane and will depart Page Terminal at Washington National Airport at 12:00 noon today. Mills advised that Congressman Morton wished to have someone from FBI Headquarters accompany him and Senator Mathias to Cambridge. Mills stated he did not know why this request was made, but believed it was because it would indicate that these men had secured the investigative services of the FBI.

Bishop advised Mills that it would not be possible for anyone from the FBI to accompany Congressman Morton and Senator Mathias to Cambridge inasmuch as we are not conducting any active investigation into this matter.

It would seem pretty apparent that this is strictly a political move on the part of Morton and Mathias.

T ST CONFIRMATION OF CLARENCE M. KELLEY

You inquired on your copy of my memorandum of 7/2/73 captioned "The Congressional Record, June 29, 1973," "Has this been done?" with reference to questions submitted to you during confirmation hearings by Senator Mathias.

The questions were furnished to Pat McSweeney, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, by Senator Mathias' assistant, late on 6/25/73. FBI personnel and Department of Justice personnel prepared answers to the questions which were submitted to you on 6/26/73 for your approval. Following this approval, the answers were delivered to Senator Mathias by McSweeney on 6/27/73. (This was recorded in Bowers to Baise memorandum of 6/28/73 entitled "Confirmation of Clarence M. Kelley.")

The "Congressional Record" of June 27, 1973, on pages S 12112 to S 12115 (copy enclosed) contained remarks by Senator Mathias in connection with the vote being taken that day concerning your nomination. Included with the Senator's remarks were his 29 questions and the answers submitted to him. The names of the NCIC Advisory Policy Board members were included in the "Congressional Record" of June 29, 1973 on pages S 12494-S 12495 (copy enclosed.)

In a memorandum this morning, we called to the Director's attention the fact that Senator Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. (R), Maryland, had volunteered information to a Washington Field Office (WFO) Agent yesterday that he had received from Daniel Ellsberg, who is under indictment in the leak case involving "The New York Times," some copies of classified documents.

The Senator said he had informed the Attorney General and, at the latter's request, had told Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian about this, but had not been contacted by either, although Mardian said someone would be sent to his office regarding this matter. We advised the Director that, if he approved, we would write to the Attorney General and advise him that if the Attorney General desired, we would be willing to contact Mathias, after the Senator returns to Washington on 6/30/71, to examine or obtain the material in his possession.

This afternoon, 6/29/71, Assistant Attorney General Mardian telephoned to relate that he, on instructions from the Attorney General, had called Senator Mathias and arranged to send Departmental attorney Daniel McAuliffe to see Mathias. He asked Mathias if he was willing to turn the documents over, and Mathias said he would discuss this possibility when he was contacted.

Mardian said that, recognizing that the Senator may turn over the documents, the Bureau might desire to have an Agent accompany McAuliffe to the office of Mathias, to receive the documents and treat them as possible evidence. He asked to be advised of our desires in this matter. He was told we would let him know.

Deleted Copy Sent Charles McC Mathias by Letter Dated 2-16-75

ACTION: Per FOIPA Request

Since the documents could constitute evidence in a case which we are investigating at the Attorney General's specific instructions, we feel it would be desirable for an Agent to receive them and preserve them as such. Accordingly, if the Director approves, we will not write to the Attorney General as previously indicated this morning but will have a WFO Agent accompany McAuliffe to Senator Mathias' office for the above-stated purpose.

WASHINGTON (UPI) --SEN. CHARLES MATHIAS, R-MD., SAID TODAY GOVERNMENT COMPUTERS ARE "BRINGING THE AMMUNITION FOR PERSECUTION, HARASSMENT AND IDLE GOSSIP WITHIN THE REACH OF EVERY PROSECUTOR AND PART-TIME DEPUTY SHERIFF IN THE LAND."

MATHIAS SAID ATTORNEY GENERAL JOHN N. MITCHELL SECRETLY HAD GIVEN THE FBI CONTROL OVER AN ELABORATE NATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE DATA BANK WITHOUT REGARD TO STANDARDS THAT HAD BEEN DEVELOPED TO PROTECT THE INDIVIDUAL AGAINST UNJUST ACCUSATIONS.

IN TESTIMONY PREPARED FOR THE SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS SUBCOMMITTEE, MATHIAS URGED DEVELOPMENT OF LEGISLATION TO INSURE THAT SUCH COMPUTERIZED OPERATIONS CONTAIN BUILT-IN SAFEGUARDS AGAINST POLICE STATE TACTICS.

MATHIAS SAID A PIONEER 10-STATE SYSTEM CALLED PROJECT SEARCH (SYSTEM FOR ELECTRONIC ANALYSIS AND RETRIEVAL OF CRIMINAL HISTORIES) HAD BEEN DEVELOPED AS THE FORERUNNER OF A NATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE DATA BANK.

THE LAW ENFORCEMENT ASSISTANCE ADMINISTRATION WAS PUT IN CHARGE OF THE SYSTEM AND MADE A $1.5 MILLION GRANT FOR ITS OPERATIONAL DEVELOPMENT DEC. 9.

"ON DEC. 10, IN AN INTERNAL DIRECTIVE WHICH WAS NOT PUBLICLY RELEASED, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TRANSFERRED THE PRIME RESPONSIBILITY FOR FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF A NATIONWIDE SYSTEM FOR EXCHANGING CRIMINAL HISTORIES FROM LEAA TO THE FBI," MATHIAS SAID. HE SAID HE UNDERSTOOD MITCHELL'S LETTER MENTIONED NOTHING ABOUT A "CODE OF ETHICS" THAT HAD BEEN DEVELOPED BY PROJECT SEARCH TO PROTECT INDIVIDUAL PRIVACY.

THE CODE BARRED THE USE OF "IRRELEVANT DATA" AND "UNVERIFIED INTELLIGENCE TIPS"; RECOMMENDED CONTINUOUS PURGING OF THE SYSTEM TO ELIMINATE RECORDS OF ACCUSED FIRST OFFENDERS WHO WERE FOUND INNOCENT, AND PRESCRIBED PROCEDURES TO PERMIT INDIVIDUALS TO CORRECT INACCURACIES OR PREJUDICIAL OMISSIONS IN THEIR ARREST RECORDS.

Dear Senator Mathias:

During the course of my confirmation hearing before the Committee on the Judiciary of the United States Senate, June 19, 20 and 25, 1973, it was apparent to me that there is widespread interest in the Congress as to the activities of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC). It is my opinion that a discussion and explanation of NCIC would be of benefit to Members of the Congress of the United States.

It, therefore, gives me pleasure to extend an invitation to you or a member of your staff to attend a briefing on this subject on October 25, 1973, at 10:00 a.m. The briefing will be held in the Conference Room of the Computer Systems Division, Room 3119, FBI Identification Division Building, 2nd and D Streets, S. W., Washington, D. C.

In order that we may plan for proper seating arrangements, a reply by October 22, 1973, would be very helpful.

Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Mathias:

I regret that neither you nor a member of your staff was able to attend the briefing held on October 25, 1973, at the FBI Identification Building. The briefing included a presentation concerning the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) system, particularly the concepts and issues involved in the Computerized Criminal History Program, followed by a tour of the FBI's computer facilities. Questions posed by the perceptive Congressional staff members provided for a mutually beneficial discussion.

Since you were unable to attend, I have enclosed a packet of information, which I believe will be most useful in answering questions you may have about the NCIC.

Should you have any questions please feel free to contact me or a member of my staff.

Sincerely,

G. M. Kelley

Dear Director Kelley:

Thank you very much for sending the article on the National Crime Information Center. As one who is greatly interested in the operation of that system, I will read the article carefully.

I also regret that the member of my staff who had planned to attend the briefing on October 25, 1973, on the NCIC system was unable, at the last minute, to attend. The week of October 21, 1973, was quite hectic for members of the Judiciary Committee and members of their staff. I understand that a number of people who had planned to attend were unable to do so and, while I regret the inconvenience that this may have caused you, I hope that you will be able to re-schedule another briefing session in the not too distant future.

Sincerely,

Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. ADAMS

RE: BURGLARY OF PRIVATE RESIDENCES OF SENATORS HOWARD BAKER AND
CHARLES MATHIAS

On November 17, 1975, Senators Baker and Mathias, accompanied by Howard Leibengood, came to my office. The subject of the conversation was the burglary of the private residences of the Senators.

Senator Baker said that he and Senator Mathias were of the opinion that the same person committed both burglaries. He said, however, there was no feeling by either that there was any element of danger present. He pointed out there were some patterns which gave rise to the feeling that they were done by one person or one group and which indicated that there was something other than burglary of things of value which may have been the goal of the subject. These patterns were recounted as follows:

1. It was indicated that the method of entrance was very thorough as was the search conducted. An example was the removal of a pane of glass which was made with such precision that the pane was restored without the need to do anything further insofar as build-up or even addition of the molding.
2. The care exercised in the entry would indicate that both seemed primarily exercising extreme precautions and were done in either a highly professional manner or in a manner to indicate that it was not the usual type of careless burglary.
3. Papers and documents were rifled, but were returned in a careful manner and there was very little disarray. In some cases, even the papers were returned to envelopes where they had not previously reposed.

Memorandum for Mr. Adams

November 17, 1975

4. Nothing valuable was taken in either burglary. Senator Mathias said he may have lost two Swiss bank notes of about 100 franc value, but he was not positive of this.

Senator Baker said that he had a small safe and the subject entered into the safe through the bottom, laid out the contents, but took nothing. He indicated further that the subject went through his clothing, but took nothing.

Senator Baker said that the only thing of value to any investigator was that at the scene of his burglary, a pair of sunglasses, apparently of rather expensive make, were left. He feels they probably were left by the subject inasmuch as no one in his family can identify them. He as well as Senator Mathias said no fingerprints had been developed.

Senator Baker further said that his maid, who has been in his employ for a number of years, felt that two cassette tapes were stolen from her although she does not know this to be a positive fact inasmuch as they may have been misplaced. They were not confidential and referred only to a party which she attended as well as a recording of a television broadcast.

I informed them that I thought that these burglaries seemed to be of a different pattern and wondered if perhaps they might feel that this could comprise harassment or possibly an indication that their positions as Senators and members of investigative committees may have made it possible that the burglar may have been trying to indicate he was flaunting them. They said this had occurred to them and it appeared that due to the unusual nature of both cases, this was probably the most likely possibility.

Senator Baker particularly pointed out that Guard's Mark had handled his case and that they might be of some assistance. He said that he further felt that the wiretap case which had been checked by the Bureau may have some answers as to the reason for the entry into his home, and he suggested that for that purpose Mr. Leibengood be advised and that thereafter it might be advantageous to any investigation contemplated for a further review of the case to be made by us.

Both Senators said they take briefcases home but never take home highly classified documents. They further said they do not make such documents as they might take home available for any illegal entry or exposure to such subjects as might conduct such entries.

Insofar as our jurisdiction in this matter, I explained that obviously we do not have direct jurisdiction. I informed them, however, that I was inclined toward favoring our entrance into the matters because of their positions as elected officials and as members of investigative committees. I told them I thought that they are entitled to such extensions of our policy as could be made in order to accommodate their predicament. Particularly was I thinking that this could well be a flaunting or harassment as mentioned hereinbefore and that through a check of the alleged wiretapping case, we might develop some leads. Senator Baker said that he understood from the local police that the known burglars in the area seemed to be confused about these entries and were of the opinion it was not one of them.

Senator Mathias said he would like to have Bob Kelly of his staff established as a liaison man with the Bureau in this matter, and Senator Baker said he would like to have Howard Leibengood of the Senate Select Committee staff act as his liaison person.

I informed both Senators that this matter would be presented to the Department and that I would indicate in this presentation that I felt we should extend ourselves insofar as taking jurisdiction in view of the unusual facts present therein. Senator Baker asked me if he might report to the press concerning his visit with me as indicating that I would "look into the matter." I told him I felt this might be ambiguous, but then agreed to such a designation when Senator Baker said he understood our lack of jurisdiction and that we might still not be able to go into the case, but it might be of some deterrent value if the statement were made.

I thereafter telephoned Deputy Attorney General Tyler and told him of my feelings in this matter. I informed him I would have Mr. Adams talk with him further regarding this. He said he would take into account the matters which I discussed with him and my reasoning insofar as my recommendation that we do enter into the case.

I feel this matter, if approved by Deputy Attorney General Tyler, should be given expeditious attention and that we should have in addition to investigators looking it over, necessary Laboratory personnel assigned to determine if there is anything which can be developed through a crime scene search or other inspection of the premises, particularly the allegation of Senator Baker that he had three lines coming into his home for the telephone when in reality only two were needed. This, he said, indicated that possibly the third line was a part of the wiretap installation.

As soon as a determination is made that we are going to look into the burglaries, the offices of both Senators should be immediately thereupon advised.

Very truly yours,

At approximately 9:10 p.m. on 11-10-75 Inspector John B. Hotis contacted Senator Mathias, at the Senator's request. The Senator, who was then visiting at the Swedish Embassy, advised that his home on 3808 Leeland Street, Chevy Chase, Maryland, had been broken into sometime during the past three days. He said that nobody was at the home over the weekend from 7:00 p.m. Friday, 10-7-75, to 8:00 o'clock Sunday evening, 10-9-75. The burglary was discovered late Monday afternoon when his wife noticed that some plants by a window on the ground level had been moved. Senator Mathias said that no jewelry or other items of value were taken from the residence. A gold watch on top of a dresser was not disturbed but it was apparent that someone had looked through the drawers.

The Senator said that there were no documents or other materials at his residence which he had obtained in his capacity as a member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities. He felt, however, that we should be notified since the incident was similar to the break-in of Senator Baker's home several weeks ago.

Mr. Hotis promptly notified Bill Campbell, Senior Resident Agent, Silver Spring, Maryland, of the incident and requested that he contact somebody at the Mathias residence for further details. He was also instructed to notify the Montgomery County Police Department. [redacted], the night supervisor for the General Investigative Division, was also contacted and furnished the above information.

ROBERT MORGAN, MEMBERS OF THE U. S. SENATE
SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

This is in reference to a letter to you dated May 28, 1975, signed by Senator Frank Church and Senator John C. Tower, Chairman and Vice Chairman, respectively, of captioned Committee, in which they requested any files or documents in the Department or FBI concerning five members of this Committee. These five members were identified as Senators Gary Hart, Walter D. Huddleston, Charles McC. Mathias, Walter F. Mondale, and Robert Morgan. A copy of this letter was made available to this Bureau on June 10, 1975, by Mr. K. William O'Connor, Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Office of the Deputy Attorney General.

In response thereto, there are attached one copy each of five letterhead memoranda along with the five sealed envelopes which contain the original of these letterhead memoranda and pertinent documents from our central files concerning each of the above-mentioned Senators. In the explanations furnished to each Senator, certain documents are being excluded and various deletions are being made based on certain provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. Each Senator has been advised that if he wished to have any of the material reconsidered it would be appropriate to discuss this matter with you.

Our search in response to this request located four Department documents. We assume you will be making release of these documents. They are as follows:

5 MAR 19 1976

Letter from Elliot L. Richardson, Attorney General, to William D. Ruckelshaus, Acting Director, FBI, dated June 26, 1973, subject "Attached Mathias Correspondence."

At approximately 11:00 a.m., today, the writer received a call from Assistant Director John A. Mintz in which Mr. Mintz advised that he had just learned from Douglas R. Marvin that Senators Mondale, Mathias and Hart had granted approval to have the Attorney General's staff review files on captioned Senators. Mr. Mintz pointed out that Mr. James B. Adams, Assistant to the Director, Deputy Associate Director, has, following conferral with the Director, advised that the Director has instructed that our files on the above-captioned Senators should be made available to Mr. Marvin for the purpose of having the files reviewed as to whether information, in addition to that furnished the Senators by letter dated July 16, 1975, should now be made available to them. Following a discussion with you, Mr. McDermott, and further consultation between you and Mr. Adams, it was decided that the complete main files of these Senators would be made available to Mr. Marvin. With regard to the see references pertaining to them, these raw references would be removed from the pertinent files and only the see references, rather than the actual files, would be made available to Mr. Marvin. At approximately 11:55 a.m., the main files from the above-mentioned Senators files were personally delivered to Mr. Marvin by SAs [redacted] and James C. Farrington, along with copies of our search slips on the Senators.

Mr. Marvin then asked as to the possibility of receiving a copy of the excised documents on these three Senators which we have already furnished to the Senators so that they could make comparison between what we gave the Senators and what was actually in our files. He was advised that another copy would be made of these documents and it would be brought to him.

At 9:43 p.m., 11/10/75, Inspector John B. Hotis, Congressional Liaison, Office of Legal Counsel, telephonically advised Night Supervisor [redacted] that he (Inspector Hotis) had received a call from Senator Mathias shortly after 9:00 p.m., 11/10/75, who advised Inspector Hotis he believed his residence (Chevy Chase, Maryland) had been broken into although nothing had been taken. Senator Mathias told Inspector Hotis that jewelry and other items were in full view but were not disturbed. Senator Mathias believed entry may have been gained through a window as the window appeared to have been opened. Senator Mathias believed entry was possibly made over the weekend but he was not specific. Senator Mathias indicated he had not notified the local authorities regarding this matter as he wished to discuss it first with the FBI since he is a member on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Senator Mathias also stated he was reporting this to the FBI in view of the burglary which occurred to the residence of U. S. Senator Baker.

Inspector Hotis advised he subsequently contacted the Senior Resident Agent (SRA), Silver Spring, Maryland, and requested that he make inquiry at Senator Mathias' residence regarding this matter and to advise local authorities.

In keeping with your request, Special Agents of the FBI completed a microphone and telephone security survey of your home on December 22, 1975. During this survey it was requested that the FBI check all of the appearances of your telephone lines. Dear Congressional Liaison:

I have heard from several law enforcement agencies in Maryland about the proposal to require fees for attendance at the FBI's National Academy.

These agencies, including the Baltimore City and Prince George's County police departments, have emphasized that attendance of their officers at the Academy has helped to build strong, cooperative links between federal and local law enforcement officials and has produced demonstrable results in the effort to curb crime.

These Maryland officials report that if the FBI begins requiring local agencies to pay the costs of the Academy training, they will probably be forced to withdraw from participation. I am sure you would agree that this would be a very regrettable result indeed.

I would appreciate your consideration of the concerns expressed by these Maryland law enforcement officials.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

As you know, I have been constantly ready to defend the legitimate interest of the Bureau and to protect the Bureau from unfair attack. I hope to be able to play this role in the future.

For that reason, I would appreciate a briefing on the circumstances surrounding the Miami airport incident and that of the constituents of Representative Tim Wirth who undertook a letter writing project to a Soviet diplomat. If you deem it advisable, I would be glad to accept the briefing within the limitations of security classification.

Dear Senator Mathias:

I have received your March 25th letter regarding the budgetary proposals involving the FBI's training programs which resulted from the imposition of budgetary constraints. The concern of your constituent law enforcement officials is certainly understandable, and I appreciate your writing on their behalf.

We recognize the need to provide training in the latest investigative techniques and management applications to law enforcement personnel at every level. I hope we can continue such programs at Quantico and locally to those who desire this training.

Sincerely,

William M. Baker

[redacted] was interviewed by SA [redacted]
[redacted] and SA [redacted], who identified themselves to SANDERS as Special Agents of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI). At the onset of the interview, SANDERS was advised by SA [redacted] that he was being interviewed in connection with a telephone call placed to the office of Senator CHARLES MATHIAS, Russell Building, Room SR-287, Washington, D.C. (WDC), telephone number (202) 224-4654, on 5/14/86, at approximately 4:17 p.m., during which time a caller, who identified himself as ROBERT SANDERS, stated "If I came up there and shot or stabbed somebody, what would they do?"

SANDERS was warned of certain rights and he waived these rights as shown on a Warning and Waiver Form.

b6
b7C

SANDERS voluntarily furnished the following information:

He called Senator MATHIAS' office, on the morning of 5/14/86, in order to complain about a delay the SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (SSA) was causing in processing a claim. SANDERS denied voicing a threat and stated such words were not in his vocabulary.

SANDERS feels the illness he suffers from may result in behavior which he forgets. As an example, he was arrested, for Disorderly Conduct, by the METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT (MPD), WDC, on 9/11/85, although he can not remember details of the incident. He was also arrested in Mecklenburg, North Carolina, on 11/2/71, for Disorderly Conduct. Finally on 11/19/85, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, he received a Notice of Discipline, from the Labor Relations Personnel Office for being disrespectful and using profane and abusive language. Again, SANDERS indicated he could not recall the incident. The details were provided from documents which SANDERS carried with him.

SANDERS stated he has no intention whatsoever in harming any public officials.

On 5/14/86, shortly before 4:00 p.m., a male caller, who sounded like a black man, stated that he would like to speak to Senator MATHIAS.

She replied that the Senator was not in and inquired as to if anyone else could possibly help him. Without discussing his particular medical problem, the caller indicated he was having problems getting his benefits from the SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (SSA) - the Lanham, Maryland office could not help him.

She next asked the caller if he was Mr. SANDERS. He hesitated and said, "Yes, ROBERT SANDERS." By way of background information, she explained that ROBERT SANDERS is well known to Senator MATHIAS' office for making complaints regarding his supposed difficulties with the SSA.

b6

SANDERS sounded upset and angry and stated:

"What would happen if I came down there and shot or stabbed somebody?"

She said that he would be arrested and he replied:

The call was then switched to [redacted]

Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Sir:

This letter will serve to confirm the May 14, 1986 telephonic conversation between AUSA [REDACTED] of your office, and Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] of the Washington Field Office (WFO) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), when the following matter was discussed:

On May 14, 1986, at approximately 4:17 p.m., [REDACTED] for Senator Charles Mathias, Russell Building, Room SF-387, Washington, D.C., telephone number (202) 224-4654, advised Detective [REDACTED] of the United States Capitol Police, that she had received a call, from an individual who ultimately identified himself as "Robert Sanders" who reportedly stated:

"If I came up there and shot or stabbed somebody, what would they do?"

A preliminary inquiry determined that referenced [REDACTED] is a matter of record with Senator Mathias's office because of his complaints regarding the Social Security Administration's handling of a medical compensation claim he had filed with them.

On May 16, 1986, Sanders telephonically contacted WFO and voluntarily met with SA [REDACTED] and Detective [REDACTED] in order to discuss his alleged threat. Sanders indicated he may have called Senator Mathias's office, on the morning of May 14, 1986, in order to complain about a delay the Social Security Administration was causing in processing his medical claim. He adamantly denied voicing any type of threat and stated that such words were not in his vocabulary. Sanders said he had no intention whatsoever of harming any public official but merely wished to make inquiries to the status of his claim.

It is noted that, in the interview of [redacted] [redacted], she indicated that she would probably not be able to pick out Robert Sander's voice.

b6
b7C

Consequently, on May 16, 1986, AUSA [redacted] declined prosecution based on the difficulty in identifying Robert Sanders as having made the call in question and the lack of any clearly voiced intention to carry out any type of threat. AUSA [redacted] and SA [redacted] concurred that the matter would be re-evaluated should the situation change.

Very truly yours,

For the information of the Silver Spring and Hyattsville RAs, on 5/14/86, Detective [redacted] U.S. CAPITOL POLICE (USCP), Criminal Investigations Unit (CIU), 331 First Street, NE, Washington, D.C. (WDC), telephone number (202) 224-0928, telephonically apprised the Washington Field Office (WFO) of the following information:

On 5/14/86, at approximately 4:17 p.m., [redacted] [redacted] for Senator CHARLES MATHIAS, Russell Building, Room SR-387, WDC, telephone number (202) 224-4654, advised she had just received a call, from an individual who identified himself as ROBERT SANDERS, who stated:

"If I came up there and shot or stabbed somebody, what would they do?" or words to that affect.

Detective [redacted] also advised that SANDERS had allegedly made verbal threats against employees of the SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION, address 962 Wayne Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland, telephone number (301) 427-7067.

b6
b7C

On 5/16/86, [redacted] [redacted] SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION, Silver Spring, Maryland, advised that on, or about, 4/30/86, SANDERS had visited their office and in a moment of frustration had said:

"I should go home and come back and line you all up against the wall but I won't because I know what would happen if I did", or words to that affect.

On 5/16/86, SANDERS voluntarily met with WFO Bureau Agents and Detective [redacted], and agreed to be interviewed regarding the aforementioned threats. SANDERS adamantly denied making any type of threatening phone call to Senator MATHIAS' office.

On 5/16/86, AUSA [redacted] declined prosecution.

On 6/27/86, the USCP advised that SANDERS had appeared in Senator MATHIAS' office, on 6/26/86. SANDERS had displayed anger regarding his SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION medical claim; however, he made no direct, or indirect, threats whatsoever.

Deputy Chief [redacted], USCP, has been apprised of all Bureau efforts in this matter and they now consider the incident closed.

On 6/27/86, [REDACTED], Security and Protection, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES (HHS), WDC, telephone number (202) 245-3410, advised WFO that SANDERS had appeared at the Silver Spring SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION office, that same date. SANDERS had made no threats whatsoever but had become belligerent and was asked to leave by the MONTGOMERY COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT.

On 6/27/86, AUSA [REDACTED] again declined any prosecutive interest in SANDERS' activities, based on his appearance in Senator MATHIAS' office.

b6
b7C

On 6/27/86, [REDACTED] indicated his agency was continuing to monitor the situation and requested Bureau assistance and cooperation in the matter.

On 6/30/86 [REDACTED] SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland, Operations Building 1L19, telephone number FTS 934-6255, contacted WFO and advised that the Baltimore Division would be responsible for any continuing investigation regarding the Silver Spring SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION office.

On 6/30/86, [REDACTED], SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION, 962 Wayne Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland, telephone number (301) 427-7126, indicated that her agency had initiated a psychological evaluation of SANDERS which essentially indicated that he had a problem with "verbal aggression"; however, the report gave no indications that SANDERS was likely to carry out any type of physical threat. WFO now considers that matter closed. Any additional investigation is left at the discretion of the Baltimore Division.

On 7/17/86, at approximately 10:30 a.m., a male caller, who sounded like a black man, engaged her in a conversation in which he complained that his request for social security disability benefits had been turned down.

to Senator Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., 387 Russell House Office Building (HOB), Washington, D.C. (WDC), telephone number (202) 224-4654, shortly thereafter reported that, on July 22, 1986, at approximately 3:20 p.m., a black male caller, in his late 30's or early 40's, telephonically contacted the Senator's office, at the aforementioned number, and stated:

"I'm going to get some of you bastards up there. I'm going to kill some of you mother fuckers."

In her own words, she "felt quite sure it was him," meaning [redacted]. Sanders is a matter of record with Senator Mathias' office and she [redacted] has personally spoken with Sanders on several occasions.

On August 6, 1986, [redacted], United States Capitol Police (USCP), advised WFO that on that same date, Sanders had suddenly appeared at the Capitol Hill Office of Senator Mathias, requesting assistance with his disability benefits. Sanders' demeanor was described as "calm and cooperative." He was interviewed, on the scene, by Sergeant [redacted] and Detective [redacted] (USCP), and Sanders stated he had only visited Senator Mathias' office to ask them to intervene, on his behalf, with the Silver Spring office of the SSA; Sanders was afraid of being arrested if he showed up in Silver Spring. Sanders was assured, by Senator Mathias' office, and the USCP, that he would be assisted in the future in any way possible.

Further investigation has disclosed that on May 15, 1986, [redacted]

Consequently, on August 22, 1986, AUSA [redacted] declined prosecution based on the fact that Sanders continues to show no specific intent to harm. AUSA [redacted] and SA [redacted] concurred that the matter would be re-evaluated should the situation change.
