Enclosure(s)
As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum includes information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes additional standard responses that apply to all requests for records on individuals. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records. For questions regarding Parts 1, 2, or 3, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under “Contact Us.” Previously mentioned appeal and dispute resolution services are also available at the web address.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

(i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.

(ii) National Security/Intelligence Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of national security and foreign intelligence records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and PA exemption (j)(2) as applicable to requests for records about individuals [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2); 50 U.S.C § 3024(i)(1)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that national security or foreign intelligence records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

(i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual’s name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.

(ii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

(i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching those systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. Most requests are satisfied by searching the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled and maintained by the FBI in the course of fulfilling its dual law enforcement and intelligence mission as well as the performance of agency administrative and personnel functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization and encompasses the records of FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ), FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide. A CRS search includes Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records.

(ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.

(iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheets. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

(iv) The National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private citizens cannot request a name check.

Re: Information on [Name]

In followup to my conversation with [Name] on Wednesday, October 9: On Tuesday, October 8, about 3:00 PM, an anonymous lady called and was put through to me. She mentioned that she had some information that would be "of real interest to Senator Denton on a matter that she knows is getting a lot of attention right now." Other than that, I had no idea about what she was talking, but she sounded like she really might know something, so instead of disregarding her like we do a lot of times, I agreed to meet her that evening at 6:30 at the Sheraton Perimeter Park South. I only knew at that time that her name was [Name].

At the Sheraton we talked. She spoke in very vague and general terms about knowing some information that we needed to know. Finally after a while, she began to get more specific. She told me she has been at one week of training at an army training school in early September. She dropped out mid-way due to exhaustion and not having the physical capability at that time to finish it. She was told to finish the second week later -- whatever, but then she went back and was a llama from out of state who is staying with her temporarily. According to her, her friend made a comment about losing a week last in her presence while seeing Senator Denton being interviewed on TV about [Name] School: "I'm going to get him. He needs to keep his nose out of this." She responded, "That would be crazy to do something like that." He said, "Well, he's got kids." She said, "You wouldn't hurt children because of something he may be doing." He said, "Well, I know they are grown."

She also told me that this same man is stock-piling weapons, the large, military-type cannisters of ammunition, and is in the process of obtaining a passport or visa to South Africa. She was more than comment that he wanted to "take care of Bishop Tutu." She didn't go a lot further into detail about that but made me believe she knew more.

Actually, she inferred that she acquired his kindness through her feminine prowess, she is impressed with and thinks he is a brilliant man, but at the same time, thinks he may have dishonorable intentions with his mercenary school. She said that while she trained in early September that there were numerous other foreign nations in her class, even a couple of East Germans. I told her, "As I understand it, people like that must be approved through the State Department." She said, "Well, don't you think they can get in even if they want to, without that?"
Her friend going to South Africa apparently is not the only mission of which she has knowledge. She referred to others in Central America and other countries.

She asked me what it would be worth to us to have an undercover person in school. I told her, "That is nothing. There are hundreds of people who have gone to that school and you are not the only one willing to talk." (I was trying to get her to give me more details instead of just generalization.) What finally came out of the whole conversation is that for a price she wants to work with us as a "paid informant" on and these various other unnamed persons. I asked her if she was financially strapped and is that why she needed money. She said, "No, that is not the reason." I asked her why she got involved in this school to begin with. She told me and had always wanted a "change of pace." I think it's just the fantasy of being a spy that she is fascinated by. She has been familiar with the mercenary school for the last three or four years and not just during this recent surge of media attention. She told me she lived until which is

This lady's name is She is about pounds. I told I believe she was capable of making it through the school by looking at her, but as she admitted, she dropped out after the first week.

I told her that I didn't know her from Adam's housecat so I could not believe her credibility and how did I know that she wasn't just some nut. I asked her if she could give me three names of people who knew her and could give me a reference on her if I were to call them and ask for a reference for something like a job at a hospital. She gave me three for which I have names and addresses: one is a mother's friend; second one is a next-door neighbor of the mother; and third one is friend of hers.

The home (duplex) she is staying which is I don't have her exact street address but it is located Her phone number is and mailing address is (she told him her name and I can't remember it right now - I will find out). She has who apparently lives with her. Her mother isn't sure about father lives in phone She also said she has lots of kin folks in that area.

I don't really know how to read this lady. She seems very sensible and "together." If you can classify someone who has been through that mercenary school as "together." Still, she wants to be very coy and vague about what she says and seems to really be fascinated with the idea of being an undercover and paid informant. When she finished talking that night after 1 1/2 hours, I asked her to call me back Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 after I had talked with my office. She had requested to be able to talk with Senator DeConcini about all of this. I told her to begin with that was impossible — that he would never be directly involved with something like this. If we went further with this, it would be through staff. I explained to her that our subcommittee on Security and Terrorism is not a truly investigative organization. That more than likely we would be referring her to the State Department, CIA, FBI, etc. I discussed with her how she felt about her safety and her well-being if she were to turn into a paid informant. She didn't seem to be afraid of any consequences.

I finally talked with [redacted] Wednesday afternoon at 4:00. [redacted] never called back. She may not, but even as [redacted] recommended, it is probably best that someone be in touch with her to find out more about what she knows about these threats to other people and the Senator.

I will be willing to do whatever you ask me to guide whoever back to her. She probably trusts me. I don't think she even knows my last name unless she asked the receptionist when she called.

RE: MO

Re telephone call of SA WFO, to Huntsville RA, 2/6/86; and telephone of SA Huntsville RA, to SA Opelika RA, 2/7/86.

Enclosed herewith for the Mobile Division is one copy each of six separate letters representing correspondence between the subject and Senator DENTON's Office.

On 2/6/86, a telephone call was received from SA Congressional Liaison, WFO, advising that Senator JEREMIAH DENTON's Office had received a threat from the subject. A copy of the letter conveying this threat had been forwarded by DENTON's Office in Huntsville to DENTON's Washington Office, who notified REDDEN.

On this same date, Staff Assistant, Senator JEREMIAH DENTON's Office, Huntsville, Alabama, was contacted at which time he advised a letter had been received on 2/6/86 from the subject, addressed to in which the subject stated, everybody works better with a deadline to meet. I am going to give you and your Senator DENTON

30 days to correct my military records. If they are not corrected within that time, then I'll do what I have to do. I hate that you have let this matter come to this."

This letter is dated 2/4/86 and signed by the subject.

stated that this alone does not convey a real threat; however, stated that the subject resides in Lanett, Alabama, and that the Senator's Office has been working with the subject in attempting to clarify the subject's discharge status with the U.S. AIR FORCE. According to the subject was court martialed and discharged from the AIR FORCE on 5/13/58 and since has been drawing a disability from the VETERANS ADMINISTRATION. The subject feels that he should have been honored with a retirement certificate, rather than being discharged.

Senator DENTON's Office has corresponded with the DEPARTMENT OF AIR FORCE and they have been advised that they are unable to issue the subject a retirement certificate, as he requests. This, according to has precipitated the remarks set forth in the letter dated 2/4/86.

stated that he is somewhat concerned, as the Senator has scheduled a visit to the town of Lanett, Alabama, for 2/14/86, and that postcards have been sent to all known residents of that community notifying them of DENTON's visit.

On this same date, First Assistant United States Attorney Northern District of Alabama, Birmingham, Alabama, was contacted and apprised of the statements made by the subject in enclosed letters, at which time he stated that he would defer prosecute opinion to the Middle District of Alabama, as venue regarding an extortion violation would lie in that district.

Upon receipt of any additional information from Senator DENTON's Office, Birmingham will forward same to FBIHQ and interested offices.

WFO requests copies of all correspondence be forwarded to that office for information.
MOBILE DIVISION

AT LANETT, ALABAMA:

1. Will notify appropriate law enforcement agencies of the threat against Senator DENTON.

2. Will consider interview of the subject and presentation of this matter to the appropriate AUSA in the Middle District of Alabama.

AUDLEY (NO MIDDLE NAME) CHAPPELL, 223 South 15th Street, Lanett, Alabama, Telephone No. 205/644-4879, was advised of the identity of [Redacted] as a Special Agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. CHAPPELL was advised the nature of the interview concerned a threatening letter dated February 4, 1986, which he mailed to Senator JEREMIAH-DENTON, Huntsville, Alabama. CHAPPELL advised as follows:

CHAPPELL served in the United States Army as a Private First Class from 1937 until 1940. He became a Staff Sergeant in the United States Air Force and served from 1942 until 1958. During the years from 1942 to 1945, CHAPPELL served as a Combat Airman in a B-24 Bomber Aircraft in North Africa. As a result of the aerial combat, CHAPPELL developed a nervous condition and was admitted to the hospital. He remained in the hospital for a short time and returned to combat duty. CHAPPELL remained in the United States Air Force and was on active duty at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, during 1953.

CHAPPELL was court-martialed by the United States Air Force during 1953, for being intoxicated on duty. He was found guilty and was reduced in rank to Airman Second Class. In addition, CHAPPELL was fined a total of $300 in connection with the court-martial. In 1958, CHAPPELL received an honorable discharge from the United States Air Force for medical reasons. He made available a medical board report dated April 9, 1958, Parks Air Force Base, California, which contained the following diagnosis of his medical disability:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
The United States Air Force Board rendered CHAPPELL unfit for duty and recommended that he be discharged from the United States Air Force on a 10 percent disability on May 13, 1958.

a disability in the amount of $1,295 per month from the military.

CHAPPELL was discharged from the United States Air Force instead of being retired. The method in which he was discharged does not allow CHAPPELL certain privileges which he would have enjoyed if he had been retired from the United States Air Force. CHAPPELL has been writing letters to various Senators and the United States Air Force since 1958 in an attempt to get the matter resolved. CHAPPELL has been unable to get any results from his letters to date.

Approximately two or three years ago, CHAPPELL began writing letters to Senator JEREMIAH DENTON requesting his assistance in having his military records corrected. CHAPPELL was shown a copy of a letter dated February 4, 1986, which was addressed to Staff Assistant, Office of Senator JEREMIAH DENTON, Huntsville, Alabama. CHAPPELL identified the letter as his most recent correspondence with Senator JEREMIAH DENTON’s Office. CHAPPELL was referred to a section which stated: “I can assure you that if he is not stopped before the next election, we will stop him then. Everybody works better with a deadline to meet. I am going to give you and your Senator Denton 30 days to correct my military records. If they are not corrected within that time, then I'll do what I have to do. I hate that you have let this matter come to this.” CHAPPELL explained that he meant in his letter that he would not vote for Senator DENTON again when he made reference to stopping him before the next election. CHAPPELL referred to his sentence containing the statement, "I’ll do what I have to do" as meaning that he would acquire an attorney and take legal action against the United States Government if the matter was not corrected within a 30-day period. CHAPPELL emphasized that he did not have any intention of harming Senator JEREMIAH DENTON or anyone else connected to the matter involving his military records. He noted that he did not realize that his letter contained a threatening tone. CHAPPELL stated he is well aware of the penalties involving extortion in matters relating to threatening letters. CHAPPELL again stated that he has no intention to harm Senator DENTON and does not plan to contact Senator DENTON on February 14, 1986, at the town meeting in Lanett, Alabama. CHAPPELL advised that he plans to secure an attorney and handle any further request with the United States Air Force through legal channels.

EXTORTION - THREATENING LETTER
CO: MOBILE

By report dated 4/18/86, the FBI Document Section advised that the preprinted cards and letter were searched through the anonymous letter file without effecting an identification.

By report dated 5/30/86, the FBI Identification Division advised that latent fingerprints were developed on the preprinted cards but they were not identical with the fingerprints of AUDLEY CHAPPELL.
On 10/20/86, the details of the above captioned matter were discussed with U.S. Attorney JOHN C. BELL, MDA, Montgomery, Alabama. It was noted that the preprinted cards were mailed before the FBI interview of AUDLEY CHAPPELL on 2/10/86 and before the original declination of prosecution by U.S. Attorney Bell on 2/13/86. BELL again declined prosecution of CHAPPELL for violation Title 18, USC, Section 876 (Extortion) inasmuch as the cards lacked evidence of a threat of harm to the person of JEREMIAH DENTON.

SHOOTING INTO CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS OF
Re: U.S. SENATOR JEREMIAH DENTON, 401 NORTH
MEMORIAL PARKWAY, HUNTSVILLE, AL,
9/19/86; CCSCAKA; 00: BH

On 9/19/86, at approximately 2:00 p.m., a projectile was fired through the plate glass front window of U.S. Senator Jeremiah Denton's re-election campaign headquarters in Huntsville, Alabama. A lone female employee was working in the office at the time the shot was fired; however, she was not injured. Senator Denton was not in Huntsville, Alabama, at the time of the incident.

The Huntsville Police Department and Agents from our Huntsville Resident Agency responded and conducted a thorough crime scene investigation. No bullet fragments were found and there is no evidence that additional shots were fired at the office. From the size of the hole in the window, it appears that the projectile was fired from a .22 caliber weapon.

No suspects have been developed. Campaign workers were unable to recall any unusual occurrences during Denton's re-election campaign. Senator Denton's headquarters is located on U.S. 231, which is a heavily traveled limited access four lane divided highway, with parallel service roads and numerous businesses on each side of the street.

Investigation is continuing.
