Enclosure(s)
FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

(i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.

(ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

(i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual’s name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.

(ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

(iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

(i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.

(ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.

(iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

(iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

BUNDY, father of McGORGE BUNDY, was an Assistant to HENRY L. STIMPSON when he was Secretary of War. Mr. WILLIAM BUNDY, McGORGE's brother, he stated is a very reputable attorney in Washington, D.C. and is married to the daughter of DEAN ATCHESON, formerly Under Secretary of State. Mr. PARKER said that during his lifelong knowledge of the BUNDYS he has never known one who was not of the very highest type regarding character and integrity. He said that several members of the family have distinguished themselves in Government service, as well as in other fields. Mr. PARKER also informed that he felt that if the BUNDYS are not loyal to this country, no one is. McGORGE BUNDY, he advised, is an extremely gifted fine young man who has an excellent character and exceptional ability and he said he could recommend him without reservations for any position of trust.

Mr. WILLIAM E. KROUSE, 3307 O Street, N.W., said that he recalled the name BUNDY but did not know them and does not care to comment on them.

Miss SUE MURRAY, 3309 O Street, stated that she has lived at that address for a number of years but has no recollection of the BUNDY family.

Mr. L.C. F. HAMBLEY, 4413 Klingle Street, N.W., stated that he is acquainted with WILLIAM BUNDY who lives at 4431 Klingle Street but does not know his brother, McGORGE, who has been living there for only a short time. He said that WILLIAM BUNDY is DEAN ATCHESON's son-in-law and is a very highly regarded lawyer of excellent moral character. He further stated that the BUNDYS are an old American family and their loyalty and integrity are above question as far as he is concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. HOWARD ACTON, 4435 Klingle Street, said they were not acquainted with the BUNDYS but that they appear to be very high-type people who have attracted no unfavorable attention in the neighborhood by their actions and have given no reason to doubt their loyalty to the country.

Mrs. M.J. PROFFITT, 4411 Klingle Street, stated that she does not know the BUNDYS and has heard nothing of a derogatory nature concerning them.

EMPLOYMENT

BUNDY's personnel file was reviewed at ECA and reflects that he was born on March 30, 1919, Boston, Massachusetts; that on December 11,
1941 he was appointed Junior Information Research Analyst in the Information Division of the Office of Facts and Figures; and that he voluntarily resigned June 10, 1942 to enlist in the Army. His only efficiency ratings were "excellent". The file also contained a personal history in which BUNDY stated "during that time (Fall and Summer of 1940) I wrote a chapter for a book called 'Zero Hour', published in October, 1940 by Farrar and Rinehart; this chapter dealt, from the point of view of a supporter of the foreign policy of the President, with the opinion of undergraduates on the war; it was later re-printed and distributed by the Committee To Defend America."

BUNDY also stated in this personal history "I also served as a leader of the Liberal Party at the Yale Political Union."

An attempt was made to locate persons who served with BUNDY in the Office of Facts and Figures but none were found. The personal file also reflected that on June 4, 1948 BUNDY was appointed Consultant in the Trade Policy and Program Division of ECA.

MISCELLANEOUS

BUNDY's article "They Say in the Colleges", a chapter in the book "Zero Hour", was reviewed in the Congressional Library and it attacks isolationists and rash interventionists among the undergraduates and states his own position as "I believe in the dignity of the individual, in Government by law, in respect for the truth and in a good God; these beliefs are worth my life". He goes on to say that "HITLER does not believe in these things so he and those who feel the same way must make a vigorous defense of their beliefs which may be costly but less costly than surrender." Further on in the article BUNDY made the following statement "I myself do not include members of the Communist Party or the German American Bund in the category of ordinary Americans; it seems perfectly evident that both groups are essentially owned and controlled by unscrupulous foreign governments."

The files of the Passport Division, State Department, reflect that BUNDY was issued a passport in February, 1941 for Colombia, Peru, Chile and Argentina. In April, 1936 he was issued a passport for England, Scotland and France and in 1932 he traveled to France, Great Britain, Italy and Switzerland on the passport of his mother, KATHERINE L. BUNDY.
BUNDY's army record was reviewed and reflects that he enlisted as a Private in 1942. His serial number is 13076698. The file further shows that on December 18, 1942 he was appointed a 2nd Lt. with serial number O-1640283. He was relieved of active duty on February 22, 1946 as a Captain and his efficiency ratings were "superior". BUNDY was awarded the Bronze Star Medal.

The records of the Intelligence Division of the Army and the Civil Service Commission contained no information of a derogatory nature concerning BUNDY.

The records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities were checked with negative results.

The Bureau advised that a search of the central files of the FBI has been made and no information of a derogatory nature concerning loyalty which could be identified with applicant was found.

The records of the Washington Credit Bureau were checked with negative results and the records of Stone's Mercantile Agency contained only a newspaper clipping concerning BUNDY's award of the Bronze Star Medal.

The records of the Metropolitan Police Department were checked with negative results.

--- REFERRED UPON COMPLETION TO THE OFFICE OF ORIGIN ---
A teletype was sent to New Haven requesting that they investigate BUNDY's connection with the Liberal Party in Yale University.

The files of the Washington Field Office reflect that on April 27, 1942, one BUNDY of the Office of Facts and Figures told KHOMJANIN (of the Russian Embassy) that they have the first draft of an article about the Soviet Union which is to go into a pamphlet on the United Nations. This was not included in the body of the report because it does not appear to be necessarily derogatory to BUNDY.

The Communist Party indices contain a reference in which MARTIN POPPER contacted one Mr. BUNDY and said that he saw where "the old man" (Hungarian Minister) was received yesterday. BUNDY gave the Minister's private address in New York as #9 Kew Gardens Road (Queens) Phone VIRginia 7-7959-7.
BUNDY's Army record was reviewed and reflects that he enlisted as a Private in 1942. His serial number 13076698. The file further shows that on December 18, 1942 he was appointed a 2nd Lt. with serial number C-1640823. He was relieved of active duty on February 22, 1946 as a Captain and his efficiency ratings were "superior". BUNDY was awarded the Bronze Star Medal.

The records of the Intelligence Division of the Army and the Civil Service Commission contained no information of a derogatory nature concerning BUNDY.

The records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the files of the FBI were checked with negative results.

Boston letter to Boston dated July 14, 1948

The records of Yale University, as furnished by H.B. FISHER, a liaison officer at Yale, reflect that an essay by MC GEORGE BUNDY appears in the book "Zero Hour" published October 31, 1940 by Farrar and Reinhardt, New York. In this he states that youth has been shown weaknesses in the ideals of their fathers but have not been given anything to believe in and so now (1940) is in a mental vacuum. BUNDY states that the undergraduates have been taught that war is so evil that they do not see how there are any greater evils or dangers if we do not enter the present war. He said that mistrust of reason and fear of "propaganda" caused much isolationist thinking.

BUNDY also states in this book as follows: "I regard the American Youth Congress as an excellent place in which to watch at work most of the attitudes I have been attacking, but it is nevertheless important to recognize that the members of the Congress seem to be neither fools nor..."
men of little faith. Their mistaken attitudes do not include cynicism or doubt". He states further, "As for civil liberties and the Bill of Rights, they must not be suspended under any circumstances. It is one thing to be firm toward fifth columnists and quite another to suspend the ordinary rights of ordinary Americans. I myself do not include members of the Communist Party or the German-American Bund in the category of ordinary Americans; it seems to me perfectly evident that both groups are essentially owned and controlled by unscrupulous foreign governments; this is a vexed issue, largely because so many people cannot see the difference between a Communist and other types of Leftist, but the facts of Communist action and thought speak clearly for themselves, and the Bund is obviously as much at Hitler's disposal as the German army."

The applicant is co-author with HENRY L. STITSON of "On Active Service In Peace And War" to be published this summer and copies of the manuscript were unobtainable.

There is no credit or criminal record for McGEORGE Bundy in New Haven, Conn.
