Harold said that the action memo calling for a cut-off in assistance to Honduras would be coming to the Secretary soon. Cheryl confirmed with him that it would not be coming forward in the next few days. Jim stressed that he thought we needed to think more about the end-game in Honduras, where the reports from the delegation of foreign ministers is not encouraging. Is there a scenario under which they do not accept Zelaya back but we recognize the legitimacy of the elections? If so, what conditions would have to be met? If not, should we not signal that now in order to maximize our leverage? Cheryl noted that Jim had not been part
