RELEASE IN FULL

From:

Sullivan, Jacob J <SullivanJJ@state.gov>

Sent:

Saturday, December 31, 2011 11:22 AM

To:

Н

Subject:

Fw: Embassy Sana'a Refutes Press Reports that Saleh Will Stay in Yemen

Fyi

From: Meehan, Bernadette M

Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2011 11:19 AM

To: Sullivan, Jacob J; Wells, Alice G

Cc: S_SpecialAssistants

Subject: Fw: Embassy Sana'a Refutes Press Reports that Saleh Will Stay in Yemen

Embassy sanaa disputes the press reports

From: Bowers, Stephanie L

Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2011 10:57 AM

To: SES_DutyDeputies; S_SpecialAssistants; D(B); D(N); P; NEA-Staff-Assistants-DL

Cc: SES-O_SWO

Subject: Embassy Sana'a Refutes Press Reports that Saleh Will Stay in Yemen

Colleagues,

For your situational awareness, Embassy Sana'a just met with one of outgoing President Saleh's advisors. Post reports they have no evidence to support the assertion that Saleh will stay in Yemen, and Post believes he still intends to depart in the near future.

According to Post, some of Saleh's General People's Congress party members met today, and some of the party's hardliners have initiated a campaign to encourage Saleh to stay. However, Post has no evidence that the statement referenced in the below press piece actually reflects Saleh's own intent.

Best regards, Stephanie

Stephanie L. Bowers
Senior Watch Officer
Operations Center
U.S. Department of State
202-647-1512

From: OpsNewsTicker

Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2011 10:14 AM

To: NEWS-Mahogany; NEWS-Yemen

Cc: SES-O

Subject: Yemeni president now plans to stay in country (AP)

SANAA, Yemen - (AP) A top official in Yemen's ruling party says the outgoing president has decided to remain in the country because protests against his regime have spread to include members of the civil service and key military units.

UNCLASSIFIED U.S. Department of State Case No. F-2014-20439 Doc No. C05786233 Date: 10/30/2015

President Ali Abdullah Saleh had said he would travel to the United States to calm tensions in his country after 10 months of protests seeking his ouster. Saleh signed a deal last month to transfer power in exchange for immunity from prosecution over the deadly crackdown on protesters.

Mohammed al-Shayekh, a leading member of Saleh's People's Congress Party, said Saturday that Saleh would stay because of the threats posed by new protests staged by employees of government agencies and members of the security forces.

NewsTickers alert senior Department officials to breaking news. This item appears as it did in its original publication and does not contain analysis or commentary by Department sources.