RELEASE IN PART B6

	·
From:	James P. Rubin
Sent:	Saturday, January 21, 2012 2:52 PM
To:	н
Subject:	We will always have Paris
	e we saw each other was Paris, I believe, right after the fall of Qaddafi. Although Libya is still orts to keep the world's focus on removing Qaddafi and helping avoid a slaughter there emembered.
	Paris I mentioned the possibility of arranging some off the record events with key journalists and u in your last year as Secretary of State. Although Bloomberg is not the right place for it any more, I am also Preside events, if you are still in	ent of the Atlantic Partnership in NYC and Washington, which could be a perfect venue for such interested.
in order to promote so	want to ask you about coming to see you in Washington in connection with my work for Andrew me international opportunities for the State of New York, for which I hope you still have a soft from some colleagues that you have set up a foreign affairs board analogous to the Pentagon's
one of your rare downt	In any event, I hope I can get in to see you in Washington, or if it suited you better, on times in New York.
Best regards, your frie	n d,
Jamie

B6