This report is worth reading. It's reassuring on Libya, from Susan Rice's Chief of Staff who saw Ian Martin (the UN guy).

I had a quick bite for lunch with Ian Martin today. Took advantage of what was otherwise personal catch up to seek his general impressions and insights on Libya (beyond the detailed briefing he provided to the UNSC earlier in the day, which USUN is reporting separately). He made the following points, which I'm sure are well known to our colleagues in Tripoli and elsewhere, but worth noting:

We ran out of time before I could delve further on above or ask about MANPADS or ICC.

Best,
