I'll send him a polite response as soon as NEA clears some language I've suggested. They determined that asking Sen. Specter to intervene, rather than continuing to work through official channels, would send the wrong message. And it wouldn't have helped resolve the ICRC's problems in negotiating with the various opposition factions.

So no response to him? Even a non-substantive one?

NEA decided against it. I'll ask them for language to use in responding to Sen.whitehouse. I will also tell him that we have information that, due to its sensitivity, cannot be shared at the moment although we have conveyed key elements to the family.

which we will provide. But all of this is very close hold at the moment until we have confirmation, to avoid the sort of media muddle that we saw with reports that edith bouvier had escaped.
