"The president is due to take a flight out Thursday afternoon," the official said, speaking on condition of anonymity, adding that Aristide was expected to give a news briefing before his departure.

"The details of the route will be given at the briefing," the official added.

The charismatic Aristide, Haiti's first democratically elected president, has been exiled in South Africa since being forced from power by an armed rebellion more than seven years ago.

The United States has urged Aristide not to return to Haiti before Sunday's presidential run-off election.
