

RELEASE IN FULL

From: Sullivan, Jacob J <SullivanJJ@state.gov>
Sent: Saturday, March 5, 2011 11:17 AM
To: H
Subject: Fw: (SBU) Update #2: the first two C-130s have landed in Djerba
Attachments: IMG00012-20110305-1634.jpg; IMG00012-20110305-1634.jpg

Fyi

From: Lucas, Laura D
To: Abedin, Huma; Sullivan, Jacob J
Sent: Sat Mar 05 10:55:14 2011
Subject: FW: (SBU) Update #2: the first two C-130s have landed in Djerba

PRM reports CNN has arrived in Djerba. Please find attached a recent photo with a CNN reporter and one of the KC-130s on the tarmac at the Djerba airfield.

From: Brown, Justin P
Sent: Saturday, March 05, 2011 10:20 AM
To: SES_DutyDeputies; Tueller, Matthew H; Scobey, Margaret; Robinson, David M; Schwartz, Eric P; SWO; S_SpecialAssistants
Cc: SES-O
Subject: (SBU) Update: the first two C-130s have landed in Djerba

Further to our alert, Embassy Tunisia reports two KC-130s were confirmed on the ground as of 0950 EST. They are expected to depart at 1130 EST and will carry 60-70 Egyptians each.

Justin Brown
Watch Officer
State Department Operations Center
202-647-1512

From: Brown, Justin P
Sent: Saturday, March 05, 2011 10:02 AM
To: SES_DutyDeputies; Tueller, Matthew H; Scobey, Margaret; Robinson, David M; Schwartz, Eric P; SWO; S_SpecialAssistants
Subject: (SBU) The first two C-130s have landed in Djerba

At approximately 0958 EST, the first two C-130s landed in Djerba, Tunisia to transport approximately 300+ Egyptian nationals to Cairo. Two more aircraft are expected later today. Ops will continue to monitor.

Justin Brown
Watch Officer
State Department Operations Center
202-647-1512