Dear Bob, Gary and Puneet

The Foreign Secretary made a statement to Parliament today. He said:

"Members of the House will be aware that the Iranian Parliament voted, over the weekend, to expel our Ambassador from Tehran. This is regrettable and completely unwarranted. It will do nothing to repair Iran's international reputation. To respond in this manner to pressure from the international community to engage is entirely counter-productive, and yet another sign of Iran's continued unwillingness to enter into dialogue. If the Iranian Government confirms its intention to act on this, we shall respond robustly with a strong package of measures drawn up in consultation with our international partners."

All the best

Karen
