Lona and Huma,

HRC has asked that we schedule a call with some [redacted] folks suggest next Monday or Tuesday, but I see by the Outlook calendar there is a hold on DC appointments. Will the times below that they suggest work for HRC's schedule?

I was out yesterday and asked Rob to contact [redacted] in my absence. I will check in with them today once I hear back from you on whether the times they offer will work.

Let me know when you can.

Thanks,

Claire

Claire/Monica:

I called and spoke with [redacted] She is very friendly!

There will be two folks on the call:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

She said that they were hoping, per Kurt, to do the call on Monday or Tuesday since HRC is travelling right now. She said that they can make anytime work except for 6pm to 2am EST on Monday because [REDACTED] She gave me their preferred times below:

Monday

10:30am-12:30pm

4-5pm

Tuesday

Early morning (for [REDACTED])

[REDACTED] so keep in mind the time difference

Since they will be apart, she will give them (and us) a dial-in number for the conference call, so that we can do it at anytime HRC is free.

Sound good?

Claire: I gave her your direct line and said that one of us would reach out when we had a better sense of timing.

-Rob

Kurt---

I'm happy to do this so let's try to schedule as soon as possible. I'm copying Monica to work w Claire to arrange the call in next few days. All best, H

Madame Secretary, Claire –

I hope your trip to Europe is going well and we are looking forward to travelling with you to Asia at the end of next week.

The [redacted] is moving quickly in its deliberations and the [redacted]
[redacted] were hoping for a quick telephone call with you at a time of your early convenience
[redacted] has graciously agreed to speak on [redacted]

The contact person to set up the call [redacted]

I have had numerous meetings with their top team and I think they are particularly interested to know your views on [redacted]
[redacted]

I think this is a great opportunity and they seem seriously very interested; I'm most grateful [redacted]

Thank you,

Kurt.
