Cheryl,

As we reach the final stretch of the QDDR and I have been thinking through some of the messaging, there are a couple of undercurrents that I keep hearing that are troubling to me, and that I think might get in the way of our ultimate success. There is nothing that I want more than for this effort to be successful, so I bring you these concerns in that spirit.

Apologies if I am being too blunt or impolitic – it is all in the spirit of achieving success.
