But as discussed, here is the answer to McCain's question about funneling more $ through the SOC

- The SOC is a very new organization -- midwifed by Ambassador Ford only a few short months ago. We've been working closely with it to develop its capacity to help direct humanitarian assistance.

- We're also coming to terms with it on direct assistance for the organization -- supporting staff salaries and overhead, for instance. And we're trying to coordinate with its assistance arm - the Assistance Support Unit - on an assistance shipment to Aleppo, in addition to other aid.

- It's a work in progress, but we are in fact making much progress in a short time. The larger problem is that the needs are just overwhelming.
