Madam Secretary,

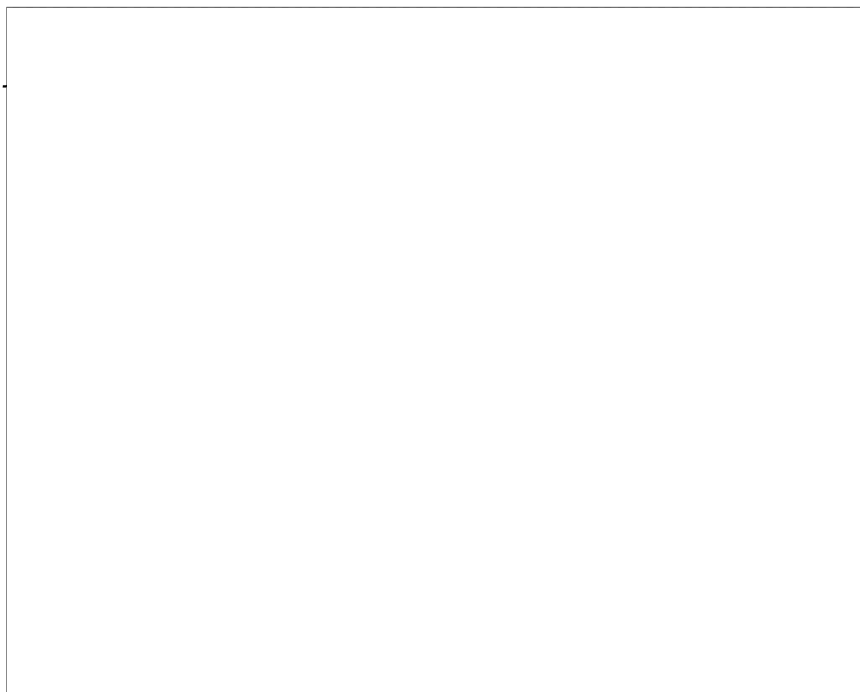

I thought your testimony went well and you were right to push back on what should be the focus right now. I hope you are feeling well. I wanted to write and just say what a pleasure it was to work with you. I wish we had completed our one project but I am still hopeful something can be done on it. I think we have a window now of a couple of months. If we cannot do something on it within that time frame, I have a sense that my London friend's friend will be either unable or unwilling to do much—and may very well move in the wrong direction. In any case, I will do what I can. I am concerned that the future of the Palestinian movement and its very identity between nationalist and Islamist is up for grabs.

I also just wanted to offer to be of any help to you as you look to the future and think about projects that you want to pursue. If there are some on which I can be of any assistance, I am happy to do what I can. In any case, I hope we can stay in touch. All the best--Dennis
