We're on plane now. Dad met with PM and now he's in a mtg with Prevals representative. Preval still not back from DR. We see US Army helos now taking off loaded with supplies- apparently for other places in the city. Unclear on this tho. Carl Alexander (I think that's his name) from Justice met with the minister of Justice and they're very worried about the 4000 criminals that escaped

I'm told we did airdrops from the backs of C-130s in Bosnia every night for months w no injuries. But people were told it would ne coming and what to expect.

I'll defer to Cheryl of course and I forwarded Qs to Doug + Justin who are down w Dad now who's doing interviews. My quick rxns though:

- 1) There is a US military field hospital at the airport w/ some capacity (ie a few beds and an OR) we saw the outside of but the Israelis have a 200 bed hospital up and running now. I'd think its because we focused on logistics (eg airport, food distribution etc) and rescue efforts initially and the Israelis focused on rescue and hospital?
- 2) As your USAID people can tell you better and Cheryl and I talked abt before, airlift drops shld be a last resort given chaos often follows, people hoard and rarely those most in need get what they need (b/c they're the weakest)
- 3) No idea on more food sites
- 4) Not Paul's hospital but the main public hospital- unclear. I'd think this shld be the UN and they came with us and were then around but don't think they stayed. They shld stay though around the clock- to help keep order even if they don't have to enforce it.

Questions arising from press reports:

Why can Israel set up a full field hospital w operating rooms and the US military can't/won't and only offers surgery on the Carl Vinson which has to fly patients over and even flew Sanjay Gupta there to do an operation since they did not have a neurosurgeon?

If we are going to start air drops of food from C-130s as Jim Jones advocates, do we have Haitians on the radio explaining that's what we're doing and asking that people proceed calmly because a lot of meals will be dropped every night?

Have the Haitians agreed to more food sites yet?

Are our troops starting to provide more security at food and medical sites? Will they stay at Paul's hospital overnight?

Just leaving the hospital.

Really rough and sad.

Mark Paul and others doing the Lord plus 10 work

I sent Keen an email re no security.

Troops just arrived so the hopefully they will be able to keepb doctors there tonight around the clock.
