Subject:

I recently toured afghanistan with admiral James stavridis (NATO). I am one of his advisors-mostly on middle east matters. In our tour of herat province -in the western region the italian and spanish nato troops were actively pursuing community engagement with an emphasis on women. I told jim I wanted you to see this and he said "of course". The next email will contain the full slide presentation because I am not nimble enough to send the page I want. In the back portion is a slide on the activities with women. In my discussion with McChrystal I also noted this focus and he agree that was an important piece of the ultimate success of his strategy.

If you have time I want also to tell you about some other efforts our friend in abu dhabi is making.

Hope all is well. Marty
