hi Mom! I hope you have a safe trip. my first shuttle flight was cancelled and this one is delayed because of surprise FAA inspections! the first didnt pass for unspecified non-safety-related reasons and this one is delayed because a placard is missing above row 10...which is supposedly a safety concern?!

much to debrief on this weekend post my conversations with doug and hannah - and post a conversation marc had with justin - so indeed on many fronts. not to mention the other more obvious events of late.

hope all goes well in rome. hope i do make it to DC! and looking forward to sunday

xxxx
