Subject: Good morning

I understand you're in NC tomorrow with Kay. I'm sure by now you've been told of that disgusting Dole ad. I'm still furious. But I think the campaign has done a phenomenal job dealing with it. Kay is also furious but sounds good. I really wanted to win this before but now I'm even more crazed. So judy lichtman and I are catching the monday 7 am flight to charlotte to do gotv for the day. Glad you're helping there at this time.

We've been doing a big "don't stop at the top" campaign targetted at young voters cuz they know nothing about anyone other than Obama. Totally Internet/cable. Maren Hesla has done a great job on this (just as she did on our Women Vote work for you). We're doing a young voters poll post Tuesday and I'm curious to see if they recall our stuff.

So what's your read on the sitiation? I'm upbeat and also nervous
