

Fwd: Former US economic envoy Declan Kelly launches merchant bank and private equity and consulting company Bill Clinton and Tony Blair to join board of new company Teneo

From: Cheryl Mills

RELEASE IN PART
B6

To: Hillary Clinton HDR22@clintonemail.com

B6

Subject: Fwd: Former US economic envoy Declan Kelly launches merchant bank and private equity and consulting company Bill Clinton and Tony Blair to join board of new company Teneo

Fyi

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Caitlin Klevorick
Date: Wed, 29 Jun 2011 19:23:41 -0400
Subject: Former US economic envoy Declan Kelly launches merchant bank and private equity and consulting company Bill Clinton and Tony Blair to join board of new company Teneo
To: Cheryl Mills

[image: comment on article]

r

Former US economic envoy Declan Kelly launches merchant bank and private equity and consulting company Bill Clinton and Tony Blair to join board of new company Teneo

By
JAMES O'SHEA

IrishCentral.com Staff Writer

Published Wednesday, June 29, 2011, 3:20 PM
Updated Wednesday, June 29, 2011, 4:39 PM

Declan Kelly, who recently stepped down as the United States Government's Economic Envoy to Northern Ireland, is re-entering the private sector with a new business in partnership with Douglas Band, the long time top advisor to President Bill Clinton, Irish Central has learned.

The company, called Teneo, will comprise a merchant bank, a private equity vehicle and an international consulting business, with offices initially in New York, London, Washington DC and Toronto.

It is also expected that the company will have a presence in Dublin in the near future.