Dear Deputy Secretary Steinberg,

Thank you very much for meeting with me on Friday. I found the conversation stimulating and appreciate all of your advice and insights.

With regard to the position we discussed, it strikes me that you would be best served by someone whose interests are more aligned with the specific tasks that you need to have performed, so I have decided not to proceed with an application. I remain very grateful for the opportunity, needless to say, and hope that we will have a chance to discuss issues of mutual concern in the future.

Thank you again, and with every good wish and the highest respect and appreciation, [Redacted]
