Thank you. I really appreciate that. Maybe we can celebrate, if I do well, and if you actually get a break with a cup of coffee/tea in Chapp over break in Dec/Jan. I'll email you when home if okay. This time it won't be when I see you shopping for tomatoes. :)

Until then, I'll let Morris and these other morons self destruct as they always do.

Talk soon. D

You are a good and clever writer--keep it up and, as always, thx for caring about the truth--and me! Now, get back to the case studies and procedural problems!
